FOREWORD

This 1956 Year Book of the Christian Churches and their Agencies is made available through the office of The International Convention of Disciples of Christ. Splendid cooperation was received from State and Provincial Secretaries, National Boards, ministers and church secretaries. These and others have joined to make possible this comprehensive volume of the activities of our religious group known in government statistics as Disciples of Christ.

The information contained herein is furnished by the churches and organizations listed, and was up to date at the time the Year Book went to press. All factual data was compiled by the Year Book staff and the book is a monumental task considering the many colleges, state offices, national organizations and churches from which this information was gathered. Every effort has been made to prevent errors in its compilation and to make the book as accurate as possible.

Participation in the Year Book is voluntary and all churches and organizations are invited to cooperate in this annual summary of the Disciples of Christ. We encourage your use of all the reports and statistics contained here. Make this book live in the lives of those who attend our churches to work and worship.

The Editor.

Disciples of Christ (Christian Churches)

A DIAGRAM OF THE BEGINNINGS AND DEVELOPMENT

All-Canada Committee of the Churches of Christ

O. W. McCully, General Secretary
630B St. Clair Ave., West, Toronto 10, Ontario, Canada

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

A conference of Canadians in attendance at the International Convention of Disciples of Christ in 1921 expressed a desire for closer unification of the work of the Churches of Christ in Canada.

Later in 1921 a team of four including George H. Stewart of Winnipeg, visited many of the churches across Canada. The idea of an All-Canada Conference was presented and discussed.

The Conference was held late in May, 1922, at Poplar Hill, Ontario. George H. Stewart was elected Chairman of "The All-Canada Continuation Committee."

Listed as purposes the following items were prominent.

1. Greater unity of the Church.
2. Secretarial leadership that would include all of Canada and all phases of the work.
3. A Headquarters office or clearing house for the many and varied activities of the Churches across Canada.
4. Literature—The first move in this way was "The Canadian Disciple" which was first published in January, 1923.
5. Stewardship of Life and Means.

The Committee sponsors an All-Canada Convention once in two years. The Convention appoints the Continuation Committee which carries on the work between Conventions.

At the beginning of the year Canadian Disciples were pleased to welcome their brethren from around the world to the fifth World Convention of Churches of Christ in Toronto.

ANNUAL REPORT, July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

The All-Canada Committee held a brief business session on the opening day of the World Convention. This business session took the place of the regular biennial Convention. The next Convention will be held in Edmonton, Alberta, August, 1957.

The 1955 Summer Camp Reports indicated increased attendance in all age groups. The church members are realizing the larger potential in this phase of the Christian Education program.

H. B. Stainton accepted a call to become Maritime Secretary-Evangelist beginning his work on September 1, 1955. His leadership has been well received and the work in that area is making progress.

Wallace Gentry came from Virginia on September 1, 1955, to give leadership to the churches at Back Bay and L'Etete, New Brunswick. This is a very needy field where the Disciples have almost entire responsibility for the Christian nurture of these fishing villages. Mr. Gentry is giving able leadership.

As we complete our first year as a co-operating unit in Unified Promotion we are thankful for this wider vision and all the responsibilities and opportunities involved in this new relationship. We are deeply grateful to the leaders of the Brotherhood Agencies who have made this possible.

During the last week in June 1956, 50 of our church leaders came together at the Ontario Conference Grounds for a six day Planning Conference. The representatives came from all across Canada and in several ways it was one of the most significant meetings ever held by Disciples in Canada. Creative work was done at the Conference which reflected knowledge, concern, vision and much hard work. We are challenged to implement the plans which have been made.

Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ

William T. Percy, Executive Secretary
222 South Downey Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana

History and Purpose

The Board of Church Extension has 18 members. These members are elected for a 3-year term, therefore, each year 6 are elected for a term of 3 years by the International Convention. Out of the 18 members 9 trustees are elected. The trustees elect the officers. Church Extension reports to the International Convention.

The purpose of the Board is to assist Christian churches and organizations in the planning and financing of church buildings, building sites and parsonages.

The sources of its funds are: Offerings from churches and individuals through Unified Promotion; Annuity gifts; Bequests; Named Fund gifts and Trust Fund deposits.

The Board of Church Extension cooperates with: The national agencies of Disciples of Christ; state and provincial societies; city and area organizations of Christian churches.

The following services are rendered by Church Extension:

Loans to churches for the erection of new churches and educational buildings, the remodeling of existing buildings, the purchase of sites for new buildings, the purchase of new equipment related to buildings (such as pews, heating and cooling, organ, etc.).

Loans to state and city societies for the purchase of parsonages to be used by staff members.

Interest-free loans to mission churches. The emphasis on mission churches clearly highlights the new frontier into which our Brotherhood is moving. It is the frontier of America's rapidly expanding cities and towns.

Trust funds (a depository for building or other investment funds) currently paying 3% interest per annum, compounded semiannually.

Financial counseling with churches concerning the financial implications of their building projects (no charge).

Leadership in financial campaigns and dedications.

Architectural counseling.

How to Secure a Church Extension Loan:

1. Consult the advisory architect of the Board of Church Extension before employing a local architect.
2. Request a visit from a Church Extension staff member for conference on over-all plans—no charge for this service.
3. Employ local architect and secure detailed plans and specifications.
4. Secure bids on your project.
5. Have in hand at least 50% of the total cost of the project before construction begins. An additional 25% of the total cost should be raised during construction and on dedication day.

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

January 31, 1956

To the Trustees
Board of Church Extension of
Disciples of Christ
222 South Downey Avenue
Indianapolis, Indiana

Gentlemen:

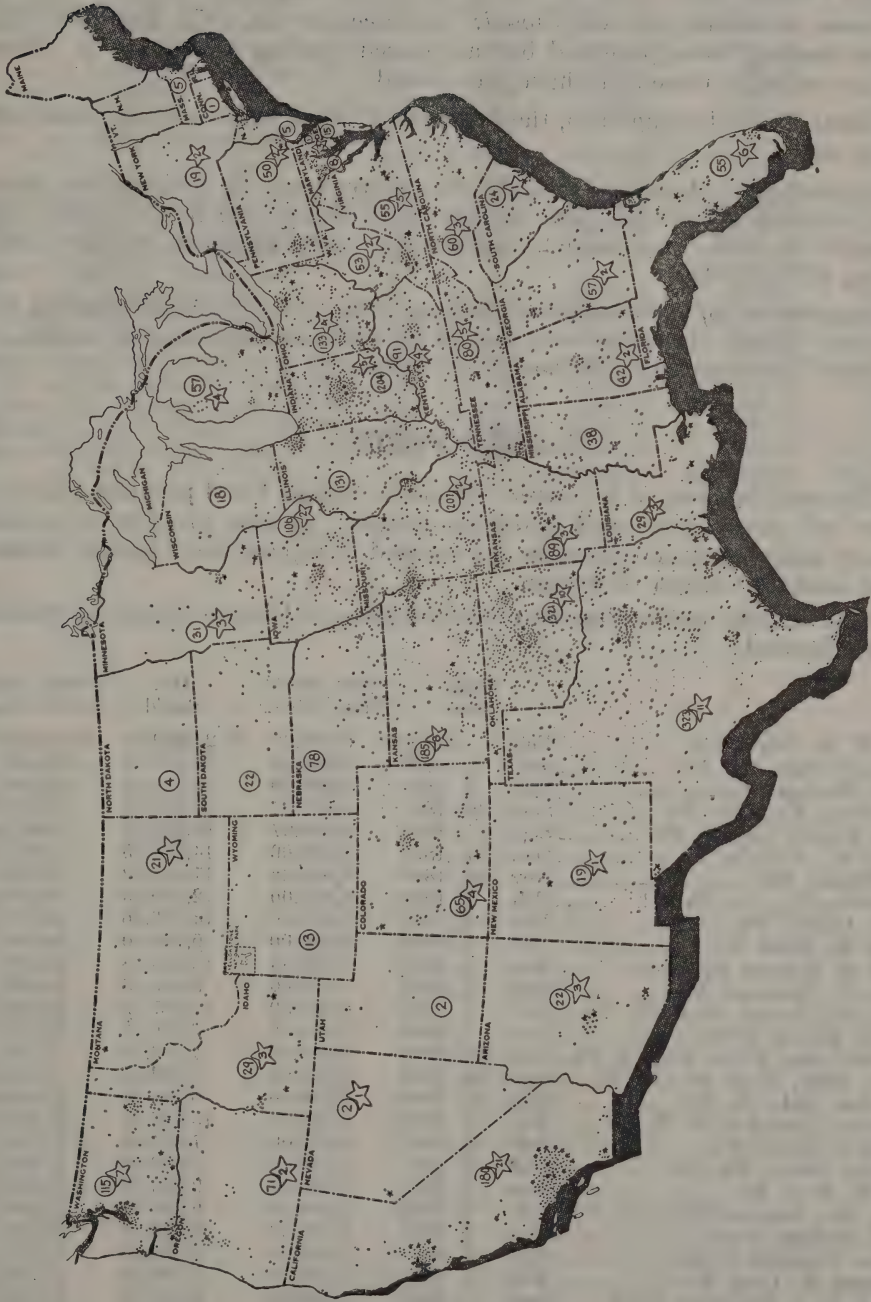

We have examined the accounting records of the Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ, Indianapolis, Indiana, pertaining to its financial position at December 31, 1955, and to its operating results for the year then ended. We have reviewed the accounting procedures of the corporation and, without making a detailed audit of the transactions, have examined or tested accounting records and other supporting evidence to the extent we deemed appropriate.

In our opinion, the accompanying Balance Sheet and Statements of Income and Fund Accounts, subject to the notes relative thereto, present fairly the financial position of the Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ at December 31, 1955, and the results of its operations for the year then ended.

Respectfully submitted,

CARTER, KIRLIN AND MERRILL
Certified Public Accountants

ON THE MAP, THE DOTS INDICATE THE CHURCHES RECEIVING REGULAR LOANS WHILE THE STARS INDICATE THE CHURCHES RECEIVING INTEREST-FREE LOANS

Since its beginning in 1884 the Board of Church Extension has made 4,948 loans to 3,352 different Christian churches. This total includes both interest-bearing and interest-free loans. The total amount lent is $31,014,379.26. The state having received the largest number of loans is Texas with 508 loans. The state of Texas has received the largest amount of loan money, $3,146,401.34. Many loans have been made to churches outside the continental limit of the United States.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

ANNUAL REPORT

Loans Closed: During 1955, 130 churches received interest-bearing loans totaling $2,921,610.05. Nineteen of these were, all or in part, for parsonages.

Loans Promised But Not Closed: On December 31, 1955, there were 138 interest-bearing loans promised but not closed totaling $3,250,158.77. Since that date many of these loans have been closed.

Loans Paid: During 1955, the balances of 119 interest-bearing loans were paid in cash.

Interest-Free Loans: During 1955, there were 13 interest-free loans closed totaling $70,087.50. The balances of 8 loans were paid in cash. On December 31, 1955, there were 21 interest-free loans promised but not closed, totaling $100,413.00.

Department of Architecture: During 1955, the Department served 550 churches. These churches were served by preliminary sketches, review of architects' drawings, color schemes, conferences, etc.

NAMED FUNDS

The establishment of a Church Extension Named Fund provides a unique method of honoring devoted Christian people. It also provides a method whereby individuals and churches are enabled to express their special interest in the work of Church Extension.

Your inquiry concerning the establishment of a Church Extension Named Fund is invited.

Board of Higher Education

Disciples of Christ

Harlie L. Smith, President
222 S. Downey Avenue, Indianapolis 7, Indiana

History and Purpose

The Board of Higher Education is a successor organization of a Board of Education which grew out of informal meetings of college presidents and others interested in higher education. This Board of Education was chartered in 1914 and continued in existence until the late thirties when the work of higher education was merged with the United Christian Missionary Society. In 1938 a new Board of Higher Education was chartered and the work of the former department of higher education became the responsibility of the new Board.

The membership of the Board consists of elected members who are laymen, lay women, and ministers, and the heads of member institutions who are ex-officio members. Together these groups total sixty.

The Board is concerned with the education of youth in an atmosphere of Christian influence. This concern is expressed in liberal arts colleges, universities, seminaries, Bible chairs and Bible colleges, and student work foundations. A coordinate concern is the training of young people for vocations of the church, and is expressed through these same institutions.

Since these two concerns are carried on through member institutions, the Board has a responsibility to assist them in making them strong and vital.

The Board also serves in a program of recruitment of leadership. Here again, there is close cooperation with the member institutions and other agencies with recruitment programs.

The Board is the representative of Disciples of Christ in many ecumenical activities as they relate to higher education. For example, the Board represents the Disciples in the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. on the Commission on Higher Education and in the Department of Life and Work. It also serves on the Commission on Christian Higher Education in the Association of American Colleges.

It represents the interests of higher education in many conferences for joint planning among the many boards of Disciples, and is the organization through which the institutions of higher education are related to the International Convention.

It is the channel of two-way communication at the national level between the churches and the institutions.

It serves institutions and churches in areas in analytical studies of the needs for new or different means of serving post-high school youth in an educational way.

A. INSTITUTIONS

In general our institutions have continued to grow in strength during the past year as evidenced by fewer and smaller deficits, larger student bodies, and increased facilities for the education of our youth. It would be inaccurate to imply that our problems have been solved but it is accurate that support of these institutions has improved.

Some of this increase in financial support has come from the churches, but much has come from other sources. The most notable of the latter was the Ford Foundation Grant totaling over two million dollars to our regionally accredited liberal arts colleges and universities. This money is for endowment only for ten years and the income can be used only for the increase of the salaries of liberal arts college faculties. This will provide for salary increases to this select group of college teachers to the amount of approximately four per cent. This will not make their purchasing power equal to what it was in 1939 by about two per cent. The grants have the effect of increasing the total budgets of the institutions involved by about one per cent.

We are beginning to feel the pressure of students as enrollments increase with the greatly increased number of college-age youth in our population. Our institutions can properly serve only so many students, and increases of substantial numbers will create new problems. Each student pays only a part of his educational cost, and each additional student makes it necessary for the institution to find additional resources in faculty and in income. One of the current felt needs is for more Disciple teachers properly and adequately prepared for college teaching.

As more students come to college, we are faced with the necessity of providing more facilities for student work and Bible teaching for our youth on tax-supported campuses.

As our population grows, we shall establish more churches and need many more ministers. The seminaries, therefore, face the same problems as those faced by the other institutions.

All of this may appear to be in the future but it is already with us to a degree and must be reported as a part of this annual report. As this is being written early in July, some colleges have found it necessary to turn students away because of lack of facilities.

B. THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION

The Board of Higher Education continues to be called upon to expand its program in many areas. A large segment of the time of the staff is devoted to over-all work of a total brotherhood program in those many areas in which higher education is involved.

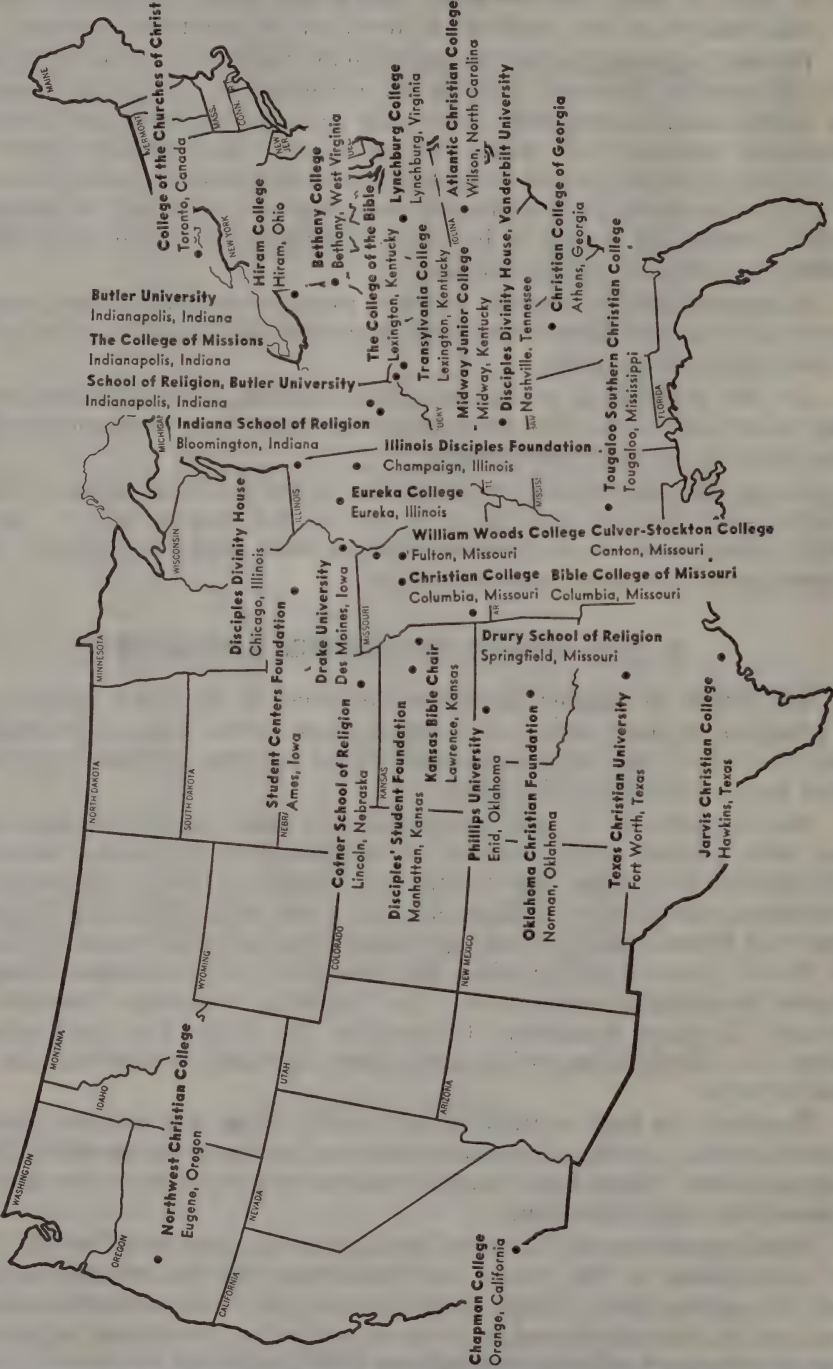

The Department of Administration and Research, as the name implies, deals with general administration of the Board in its various relationships with Unified Promotion, the Council on Christian Unity, the International Convention, the Council of Agencies, the Curriculum Planning Council, the Home and State Missions Planning Council, the National Council of Churches, the World Council of Churches, the Association of American Colleges, the various accrediting associations, the Christian Vocations Committee, the National Christian Missionary Convention, the World Call publication committee, the World Convention, and other Disciple, ecumenical, and educational groups.

Research has been carried on for several states and member institutions in an effort to provide adequate educational and student work facilities for Disciple youth. These have ranged from surveys requiring a few days to one of some four weeks' duration.

The Department of Christian Institutions has functioned in part through two commissions of the Board and has served the institutions in assisting them in, among many things, their planning of curriculum for students in vocations of the church and in their attempts to provide an improved program of voluntary religious activities on their campuses.

The Department of Christian Vocations has devoted time and resources in planning for the Year of the Ministry. It has concerned itself also with the recruitment and placement of college teachers and has assisted some college boards in the selection of administrative staff. It also conducted the second annual conference of seminary middlers held in Indianapolis in April. The president of the Board has visited all the interdenominational seminaries where there are an appreciable number of Disciple students and has conferred with the students and the administrative officers of the institutions in efforts to make them more acutely aware of the particular needs of our ministerial students.

The Department of Campus Christian Life which works through the Joint Commission on Campus Christian Life has developed plans for the initiation of a Disciple Faculty Christian Fellowship and for some pilot experiments in student work for graduate students.

The Department of Publications has produced new pieces of literature for the Year of the Ministry. These and other pieces are available as free literature.

Board of Higher Education of Disciples of Christ
222 South Downey Avenue
Indianapolis, Indiana

I have examined the cash records of the Board of Higher Education of Disciples of Christ for the fiscal year July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956, for the purpose of verifying the present year's transactions.

I have found that all receipts have been correctly recorded and disbursements made have been properly authorized and charged against specific items in the budget. In my opinion the records have been properly kept for the period under review.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann Davidson

Brazil Christian Mission

Wm. A. Cook, Mission Agent, Box 386, Guymon, Oklahoma

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

First begun as "The Lloyd Sanders Missionary Fund," the Brazil Christian Mission had its genesis at Johnson Bible College in May of 1943 when the graduation class organized the fund to send out and support Lloyd David Sanders, their fellow classmate, to Brazil. In August of 1947 the "fund" was reorganized in order to enlarge and stabilize its work. The name was changed to "Brazil Christian Mission."

The mission functions with a Board of Representatives whose purpose it is to insure the continuation of the work, to hold mission property in trust, to represent the mission on the home front, and to advise the missionaries as to matters of policy, selection of new recruits, etc. It is not a controlling faction of the mission. Its members are selected by the missionaries, serve without remuneration, and though having a voice in general policy, leave to the missionaries the responsibility of all duties which relate primarily to the mission field. A field association of the missionaries of the B.C.M. functions in Brazil to govern all matters pertaining to the field itself.

The missionaries draw support from those who see the merit of the work, who realize the need in Brazil, and who count it worthy of support. It is entirely dependent on churches, classes and individuals who voluntarily contribute to the cause. It does not receive financial support from any mission or convention but is completely dependent upon funds sent directly to the mission treasurer. Each missionary seeks living-link and service-link support, plus support for special projects.

Lloyd David Sanders and wife, Ruth, were the first missionaries of our brotherhood to go to Brazil, landing there in March of 1948. The Ewing family and Miss Ruth Spurgeon joined the work in April, 1950, and Miss Ellen Case in September, 1952. Miss Case resigned from the mission to marry in March of 1955. The Edwin C. Knowles and the Kenneth L. Mathis families joined the work in April, 1956.

The purpose of Brazil Christian Mission is to win souls to Jesus Christ, to establish "New Testament" churches, and to form a preacher training school for the education of young nationals who will carry out the complete evangelization of Brazil.

Beginning in, and centered around the new capital city of Goiania, Goias, B.C.M. aims to reach as many as possible in as little time as is feasible using any and all appropriate means. These means include: evangelistic services with regular and circuit preaching, Daily Vacation Bible Schools, Christian Day Schools, a Preacher Training School, literacy program, medical assistance, printing and distribution of tracts, and a radio ministry.

ANNUAL REPORT July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

The work of the Brazil Christian Mission cannot be told in facts and figures, which, of course, is true on any mission field. Having sewn seed throughout the years in various ways (i.e.: the establishment of the first Christian bookstore in interior Brazil, since sold to the Baptists and now under management of the Christian-Congregational mission) the mission now concentrates its efforts in the establishing of churches and training of a national ministry.

The past year has seen three missionaries on the field with one new Sunday school founded, making a total of 6, four congregations ministered to, 28 baptisms, one Christian day school and one preacher training institute operated, the first building of the Goiania Christian Institute completed, a building purchased in Sylvania, two Daily Vacation Bible Schools conducted and two evangelistic meetings held, two new families recruited and brought to the field and one family returned from furlough.

For further information concerning the mission or the missionaries, contact Wm. A. Cook or Dale McAfee (addresses on page 2). Further study materials are available at these addresses and your missionaries welcome correspondence to help acquaint you with the work of this mission.

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The proposition of a Brotherhood-owned publishing house was first officially brought before our people in the National Convention at Richmond, Virginia, in 1907. At this time a committee was appointed to explore the matter and make a report at the New Orleans Convention in 1908. The committee reported progress at that convention and asked for a continuation of time, which was granted. The committee again reported in the Pittsburgh Convention in 1909, at which time a request was granted for a smaller and more compact committee which could thoroughly explore all the problems involved.

Seven weeks after the Centennial Convention in Pittsburgh in 1909 the committee reported through The Christian-Evangelist, the acquirement of the Christian Publishing Company by R. A. Long of Kansas City, who had purchased plant, equipment and publications of the former company which was to become the nucleus of a Brotherhood Publishing House.

The Christian Board of Publication was chartered by the State of Missouri as a nonprofit publishing company in 1911. The original investment, including property, plant, equipment, etc., amounted to $404,307.95. This investment has now grown to $2,000,000.00 and another $1,000,000.00 has been turned back to religious educational, missionary, benevolent and other agencies of Disciples of Christ.

The purpose of this Brotherhood-owned publishing house is to serve the churches of Disciples of Christ by publishing The Christian-Evangelist, a journal of information, interpretation and inspiration; by publishing periodicals, books and curriculum materials to propagate and support an effective program of Christian education in the local church, and by providing through convention service and other channels audio-visual materials, Bibles, books and all other supplies which are essential for an ongoing program of Christian teaching, Christian evangelism and Christian stewardship in the local church.

In providing this service to the churches of Disciples of Christ, the Christian Board of Publication cooperates with all state and national agencies of Disciples of Christ, with the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America, and with educational and publishing boards of other communions.

ANNUAL REPORT January 1 to December 30, 1955

The Christian Board of Publication was established in 1911, a successor to the Christian Publishing Company. Its organization and early development were made possible by gifts from Mr. R. A. Long totaling more than $404,000. Since its establishment the Directors of the Board have added to the capital account a total of $1,453,176.67. As of December 31, 1955, the total assets of the Board were $2,607,887.55.

The net income and surplus of the Christian Board of Publication not needed for extension of the business in accordance with the terms of its charter are to be "turned over to and paid into the treasury of missionary, benevolent, church extension, educational societies or other agencies of the Christian Church, Disciples of Christ." (Articles of Association, Section 6, third paragraph, 1911.)

than $167,000.00. For example, the Christian Board of Publication is contributing financially to the support of the training and field program of Children's and Youth Workers in several states, and a National Training School for Youth Workers.

The cost of certain of these special services for 1955 and amounts budgeted for 1956 are listed for the information of those interested:

	1955	Budgeted for 1956
United Christian Missionary Society, for support of Children's Workers	$13,212.00	$16,900.00

The Christian-Evangelist Daily (Des Moines Convention)		1,500.00
Total	$57,773.54	$64,745.00

Some periodicals are published at a cost substantially in excess of income received. This cost in 1955 was approximately $7,000 more than in 1954. The approximate figures are as follows:

The Christian-Evangelist	$ 70,365.00
Vision	22,560.00
The Bethany Guide	16,320.00

The Christian-Evangelist

The Christian-Evangelist is in its ninety-third year of publication, tracing its genealogy back to the first issue of The Gospel Echo which appeared in 1863. In October, 1882, under the guidance of James Harvey Garrison and B. W. Johnson, two papers with long genealogies, The Christian and The Evangelist were merged to form The Christian-Evangelist of today.

The Christian-Evangelist endeavors to keep its readers informed of significant trends in the Brotherhood life and religious movements throughout the Christian world. It seeks to keep its readers alive to the essential issues of the day, to instruct them in the cardinal doctrines of the Christian faith and to develop within them the deepest spiritual qualities by devotional articles and a general tone of spiritual earnestness and challenge.

Church School Publications

In order to serve the churches and church schools of Disciples of Christ, the Christian Board of Publication cooperates with The United Christian Missionary Society and others in the support of the Curriculum and Program Council and the Christian Education Assembly of Disciples of Christ. With the counsel and advice of these groups, it endeavors to provide curriculum materials that will enable our churches and church schools to plan more effective programs of Christian teaching, Christian stewardship, Christian evangelism and Christian service.

The first of a new series of graded lessons for kindergarten age was introduced in the fall of 1956. Special new courses on stewardship for primaries and juniors are to be introduced January 1, 1957. PM Pack No. 10 and Fellowship No. 5 for 1956-57 are now available.

In addition to the Bethany Graded Lessons and Bethany Uniform Lesson, the Christian Board of Publication publishes books of a general nature, study courses and materials developed through the Home and State Missions Planning Council and others developed through the Curriculum and Program Council. The Board also publishes educational texts for leadership education classes, vacation church schools and weekday church schools which have been developed cooperatively by several communions through the Cooperative Publication Association. The sales of its products in 1955 were the largest in the history of the Board. Statistics indicate that churches whose enrollment constitutes more than 76% of the church school enrollment of the Disciples of Christ use Bethany materials.

In order to give churches and church schools the advantage of the latest and best methods and materials, your publishing house cooperates with the agencies of the Disciples of Christ and with educational boards and publishing houses of other communions in the planning of curriculum materials. Other communions have adopted Bethany teaching materials as their official curriculum, which materials are furnished to them under their own imprint.

Audio-Visual Services

The Audio-Visual Department was instituted to provide guidance in the use of this educational medium and a source for ordering tested materials. The department's operation is essentially divided into four parts:

1. Equipment. The primary concern is to keep churches informed on latest developments in audio-visual equipment, to recommend and sell high-quality, tested equipment.

2. Materials for Sale. A large stock of the best religious slides, filmstrips, and sound filmstrips is available. A catalog is published periodically, describing these materials.

3. Rental Materials. An extensive rental library of 16mm movies, sound filmstrips and slide sets is maintained.

4. Special Services. An audio-visual mailing list is maintained through which all who have expressed an interest in audio-visuals are kept up to date on new developments and new materials. A regular feature of the audio-visual mailings is a mimeographed bulletin which contains suggestions for integrating projected visual aids with the Bethany graded and uniform lessons. A "preview by mail" service has been instituted through which churches which request it are regularly sent new filmstrips on an approval basis.

This department is an operating member of the Religious Film Libraries network, a new distribution organization which is undertaking to set up and operate a nationwide chain of rental libraries to bring audio-visuals within "arm's length" of every local church.

Our audio-visual service has been extended by including this department's materials and equipment in the operation of the new Bethany Bookstore in Indianapolis.

Books and Church Supplies

Through its Merchandise Department the Board undertakes to make available to the churches religious books of all publishers, miscellaneous equipment and supplies needed to improve the effectiveness of the total church program. This department is responsible for the distribution of various worship materials, including Bibles, Christian Worship—A Hymnal, and Christian Worship—A Service Book. A general catalog is published for free distribution, which lists the many religious supplies available from this source.

Bethany Bookstore—St. Louis

In 1941, the Bethany Bookstore was created to serve ministers and laymen who live in the metropolitan area of St. Louis, and for those who are visiting or passing through the city.

A large and varied stock of religious books of all publishers and church and church school supplies is carried. The Bethany Bookstore is reputed to be the largest exclusively religious bookstore west of the Mississippi River.

Reproductions of the old masters of Christian art, as well as the modern artist's work, are included in the stock. A comprehensive line of communion ware and communion table appointments is maintained. Many gift items for all occasions are displayed and sold in the store.

A Worship Center in the store is a unique display of church appointments.

Bethany Bookstore—Indianapolis

The Bethany Bookstore at Indianapolis was established to serve the churches and their membership in the Indianapolis area as well as the thousands who have occasion to visit Missions Building each year.

During its first eight months since its establishment it has served 184 different Disciple churches and 36 different denominations in the Indianapolis trade area,

Because of its favorable location with a first floor entrance to Missions Building, its convenient parking facilities, its attractive interior with arrangement to encourage quiet browsing, its wide offerings in current religious books in many fields, its visual-aid equipment and general church and church school supplies, the store promises to meet a growing need in the entire community.

The Bethany Press 1956

The Bethany Press, or trade department of the Christian Board of Publication, considerably increased its operation in 1956 with the addition of new lines of church goods. Additional sales representatives were employed and a more efficient promotion program was established.

In response to many requests for a line of communion ware bearing the name of the Brotherhood publishing house, the Bethany Press and Mr. Otto Dingeldein, a silversmith of St. Louis, designed communion trays and bread plates which it is felt will be generally accepted and pleasing to churches. They were shown for the first time at the International Convention in Des Moines, Iowa. A portable lightweight all metal book and tract rack was presented in 1956, as well as other new items of religious supply which included CHI-RHO rings and flat silverware for use by churches and religious conference grounds.

The Palm Sunday and Easter bulletins which were introduced in full color had a gratifying acceptance. The bulletins were not only used in large quantities by churches of the brotherhood, but an equal number was purchased by religious stores for use by other churches.

More than 275 book manuscripts were examined during the year and 32 were accepted for publication. Most were reviewed with the possibility that they would be rewritten and considered at a later date. Contracts were signed for completion of nine manuscripts in 1957 and 1958. The Bethany Press continued to produce books for the Cooperative Publication Association of the National Council of the Churches of Christ. A great deal of the volume of this year's sales may be credited to the Cooperative promotion program of the several religious denominations working together to promote vacation church school texts for use by all religious communions. Nineteen new books were published in 1956 and one was considerably revised and promoted again to the trade in order to increase its usage. The book by Charles F. Kemp, LIFE SITUATION PREACHING, was accepted by the Pastoral Psychology Book Club for its September Book of the Month program. Other new titles received prominent reviews and recommendations. The acceptance of Bethany Press publications has been very encouraging and increased activity for religious trade books is anticipated.

The Bethany Press Associates were introduced to increase the interest and support of the publishing program by more individuals of the Brotherhood. A special promotion program for the Bethany History Series was established and for the first time the books were promoted directly to selected laymen among the churches.

The Marion Stevenson Library

The Marion Stevenson Library is a reference and research library for members of the editorial staff. A full-time librarian not only searches for answers to specific questions, but engages in extensive research to ensure the factual accuracy of all books, periodicals and church school materials published by the several departments of the Christian Board of Publication. In addition to bound volumes of all Christian Board publications, the Library contains approximately 4,000 books, several thousand periodicals, an information file of pamphlets and clippings, and a biographical file of Disciple ministers and noteworthy persons.

Agency Sales

Agency Sales Department of the Christian Board of Publication is now one year old and has proved its value to the total and enlarging program of the Disciples by making it possible for churches, ministers, laymen, and youth to secure program materials along with other religious needs at one sales point.

The Agency Sales Department was created to serve the Brotherhood in the production and distribution of program and allied material for the various agencies of the Disciples of Christ.

News and Worship Bulletins, the circulation of which has doubled in the past year, are distributed through this department.

Colleges and universities, state missionary societies and other agencies have availed themselves of the services of this department and have had access to the counsel and cooperation of artists, advertising specialties, journalists, editors and printing experts.

Like other departments of the Board, it was "Created to Serve."

Buildings and Equipment

In December, 1952, the Board purchased a new building to provide facilities for the executive offices, editorial departments, church school sales, merchandising, agency sales, audio-visual services, etc.

The Bethany Bookstore is located on the first floor in the northwest corner of this building at Beaumont and Pine Boulevard. Other features in this building include adequate assembly and conference rooms which are available for church groups meeting in St. Louis.

The buildings formerly occupied by the Christian Board of Publication are given over to the Production Department. Offices and Composing Room and Proofroom are situated on the second floor of these buildings. The Pressrooms, including the section set aside for the offset press, are located on the first floor. The Folding, Binding and Mailing facilities are on the third floor.

Columbus, Indiana.

We have examined the statement of assets and fund reserves of The Christian Foundation as at November 30, 1955, and the related statements of principal and income of the various funds for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

It has been the consistent policy of the Foundation to record income and expenses on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements and no effect has been given to any accruals of income and expenses in the accompanying financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of assets and fund reserves and statements of principal and income of the various funds, together with the notes thereon and the comment in the preceding paragraph, present fairly the assets and fund reserves of The Christian Foundation at November 30, 1955, and the summary of its fund income and expenditures for the year then ended, as recorded on the books and records maintained for the Foundation, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding period.

Christmount Christian Assembly, Inc.

C. O. McAfee, President
Black Mountain, North Carolina

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

Christmount Christian Assembly, one of the newer agencies of the Disciples of Christ, is being developed as a training center for church leaders. It is located in the Blue Ridge Mountains of western North Carolina, near Black Mountain.

The following progress has been made so far: The site of 609 acres has been purchased; six miles of graveled roads have been laid; an excellent water system and an adequate sewage system have been installed.

Aldridge Hall, 50 feet by 100 feet of slump brick construction, is now in use. Nine new dormitory cottages with baths comprise Camp McAfee. These, with the six substantial camp cabins, with wooden floors and shingled roofs, close to a double bathhouse, are ready for conferees and vacationers.

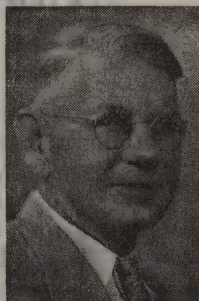

Four groups of young people made use of the facilities at Christmount in 1956. Laymen's Week and Ministers' Week are scheduled for August.

Nine states have already voted to assist in the development and support of Christmount.

CERTIFICATE

We have examined the Financial Statement of the Christmount Christian Assembly as of June 30, 1956. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and therefore included such tests of the accounting records as were considered necessary.

In our opinion the accompanying Financial Statement, and the related Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements and Statement of Fund Balances, with appended footnotes, presents fairly the financial position of the Assembly at June 30, 1956, and the cash transactions accomplished during the fiscal year then ended.

We have adjusted Land Costs and Reserve for Development Costs in accordance with actual sales and development expenditures since the beginning of the development.

ANNUAL REPORT

The Council of Agencies has completed six years of operation. Membership in the Council is confined to agency executives of the agencies reporting to, or affiliated with, the International Convention.

Purposes of the Council are clearly set forth in the by-laws and may be summed up as follows: "the Council shall seek to deepen the fraternal relationships existing between the various staffs of the agencies of the Disciples of Christ; to conduct or encourage to be conducted studies to the end that needs and opportunities may better be met; and that tensions, impingements and obsolescence may be eliminated."

The Council meets biennially. An Interim Committee, broadly representative of the Agencies, meets at least once each year between sessions of the Council. During the past biennium the Interim Committee has held five meetings. The full meeting of the Council was held at Bethany College, July 24-27, 1956.

Work of the Council and its Interim Committee may be summarized as follows:

1. Supervision of the year-by-year emphases of the Long Range Program.
2. Development of a unified program among the agencies on Wills and Annuities.
3. Consideration of standards for the development of Camp and Conference Grounds.
4. Planning for a unified program for New Church Development for the decade 1960-70.
5. Devising of ways and means for eliminating tensions arising among the agencies, and for the creation of new work required by a growing brotherhood.
6. Initial study of the 10-year program for the Disciples of Christ following 1960.

Financial reports for the work of the Council of Agencies show an income of $8,415.68 during the 1954-56 biennium and expenditures of $6,756.37. Receipts to the Council are based upon the promotional receipts of the agencies reporting to the International Convention.

The work accomplished during the first six years of the Council speaks for the vital place this organization holds in the Brotherhood. Its open forum for the discussion of mutual problems and concerns has proved of immeasurable value to the agencies of the Disciples of Christ.

Council on Christian Unity

George Walker Buckner, Jr., Executive Secretary
222 South Downey Avenue, Indianapolis 7, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

"To watch for every indication of Christian unity, and to hasten the time by intercessory prayer, the holding of friendly conferences, and the publication and distribution of literature, prophetic witness to the will of Christ for his church, and the practice of love, fellowship and mutual service among Christians. The Council shall give particular attention to the development nurture of an ecumenical spirit among Disciples of Christ."

This has been the purpose of the Council since its organization at the Topeka Convention in 1910 under the leadership of Peter Ainslie. Known originally as the Council on Christian Union and then as the Association for the Promotion of Christian Unity, the Council was reorganized in 1954 so as to serve both as an association and a council. As an association its membership is open to any Disciple of Christ in sympathy with its purposes. The annual membership fee is $2.00. As a council it brings into its work the executive heads of the Board of Higher Education, the Committee on Relief Appeals, the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, and The United Christian Missionary Society as members of the executive committee.

Members of the Council in annual meeting elect members to a Board of Directors for three-year terms. The Directors, 33 in number, elect officers and an executive committee which acts for the Council between meetings. The work is administered through three departments: the Central Department of Christian Unity, the Department of Ecumenical Service, and the Department of Ecumenical Study.

FORTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

The executive heads of the Board of Higher Education, the Committee on Relief Appeals, the International Convention and The United Christian Missionary Society were brought into the Executive Committee in 1954. This has contributed much in the past year toward an effective, correlated Brotherhood program in the area of Christian unity. Other plans adopted at the time of the Miami Convention have been implemented this past year, viz., the creation of the Department of Ecumenical Study and of the Committee on Relations with Churches and Union Movements Abroad.

Central Department on Christian Unity

The Committee on Relations with Churches and Union Movements Abroad, with Virgil A. Sly as chairman, reports to the Central Department on Christian Unity. It has begun its work of exploring areas for the development of relations with churches abroad by outlining areas of priority and assigning responsibilities to competent organizations and individuals.

The 1955 Peter Ainslie Memorial Lecture, sponsored by the Central Department, was given at the University of Antal, South Africa, by the Honorable R. S. Garfield Todd, Prime Minister of Southern Rhodesia. The department continues to seek local church budget support for the National and World Councils. It is glad to report that such support of the World Council increased by 9 per cent in 1955, and that of the National Council by 13 per cent. The department has active concern in union movements such as the proposed merger of Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed churches to form a United Church of Christ, and the (Greenwich) Conference on Church Union.

Department of Ecumenical Study

The Study Department was created with Irvin Lunger as chairman, and Ronald E. Osborn, director. The purpose of the department is to relate Disciples in a responsible way to official ecumenical studies, to maintain a program of serious study among Disciples, and to prepare Disciples for competent participation in world-wide ecumenical study. At its first planning meeting, some 30 areas of ecumenical study in the program of the World Council were considered and responsibilities assigned to competent Disciples' groups or persons.

In October a conference of representatives of ten area groups working on the (Greenwich) Plan of Union expressed general enthusiasm for the tentative Plan, and at the same time prepared 13 typewritten pages of suggestions for improvement of the preliminary draft for consideration by the interdenominational drafting committee.

The department is working at preparations for the 1957 Faith and Order Conference on "The Nature of the Unity We Seek" to be held at Oberlin, Ohio.

Department of Ecumenical Service

This department has been engaged in conferences and visitation with other churches, including the Disciples' Mission to Europe and the Middle East in July and August, participation of Dr. Tobias in the Ecumenical Mission to Istanbul in November and in the World Consultation on Inter-church Aid in Switzerland in May.

The department has surveyed ecumenical concerns overseas and made recommendations to the Committee on Relief Appeals for aid through Week of Compassion. With Week of Compassion support and under departmental auspices, Malcolm McCallum has completed a year of successful work among refugees in Egypt. The department is now considering other appointees for ecumenical service abroad on a similar basis.

A program of ecumenical scholarships has been established, and the first recipient for the "Seminaries' Scholarship" for study at the Graduate School of Ecumenical Studies in Switzerland has been named. He is Delos McKown, sponsored by the College of the Bible.

Funds for projects administered through this department are provided by various Disciples' bodies. Through the cooperative effort of the Christian Board of Publication and the United Society's foreign division, books were recently supplied to union theological seminaries abroad.

Literature and Interpretation

Through the generosity of the Christian Board of Publication, the "Disciples' Response to Evanston" was distributed to Disciples' ministers and to member churches of the World Council. Ecumenical literature, particularly Evanston Interpretation, has been made available to Disciples' leaders. The Newsletter has gone to members of the Council; a special brochure on the work of the Council has been distributed free of charge at area conventions. A library on Christian unity is being collected at the Council's offices, and literature has been exchanged with churches of several confessions in other parts of the world.

Special Projects

A significant part of the work of the Council this year has been the creation of a special committee, chaired by Gaines M. Cook, for Disciples' support in financing the new headquarters building for the World Council. Mention should also be made of fraternal messages sent to churches in special celebrations or in special distress, and of staff participation in numerous ecumenical conferences and committees which consume a great deal of time. The staff has also been engaged, together with staff of the Historical Society, in making plans for the 1958-59 Year of Emphasis on Disciples' History and Christian Unity.

Certificate of Auditor

I have examined the cash records of the Council on Christian Unity of Disciples of Christ for the fiscal year July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956, for the purpose of verifying the present year's transactions.

I have found that all receipts have been correctly recorded and disbursements made have been properly authorized and charged against specific items in the budget. In my opinion the records have been properly kept for the period under review.

Disciples of Christ Historical Society

Claude E. Spencer, Curator
Joint Universities Library, Nashville, Tennessee

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Disciples of Christ Historical Society was established May 7, 1941, in St. Louis, Missouri, with the approval of the International Convention then in session. The organization of the new agency came as a result of the work of the Historical Commission appointed by the 1939 convention which met in Richmond, Virginia.

The first five years were spent largely in surveying the field, correlating the interests of various groups, and making plans. In 1946 the Society accepted the offer of Culver-Stockton College to set up its headquarters and archives there with the privilege of using the Henry Barton Robison Collection as a nucleus around which the Society would build its own collection of materials.

On April 2, 1952, the Society moved to its new location in the Joint University Library, Nashville, Tennessee. This came as a result of a called meeting of the Board of Directors in St. Louis, Missouri, November 29, 1951, when the decision was made to move the headquarters, archives and library to Nashville by the first of June, and to start full-time operation with a staff of three people.

The Society is the only organization among Disciples of Christ whose sole purpose is the locating, collecting, cataloging and arranging for use the historical materials of the brotherhood. The archives, library and museum contain thousands of books, pamphlets, periodicals, manuscripts, documents, letters, church records, photographs, and illustrative materials concerning those religious groups which have grown from the work of Elias Smith, Abner Jones, James O'Kelly, Barton W. Stone, Thomas and Alexander Campbell, and others who revolted from the autocratic sectarianism of the early nineteenth century.

The resources of the Society are open to all persons, regardless of race or creed, and the curator at all times is willing to advise graduate students, research workers, and all who are seeking a knowledge concerning the Disciples of Christ, Churches of Christ, and the Christian Church.

The Society is not an opinion-forming group. Its function is the locating, collecting, cataloging and making available for use historical material.

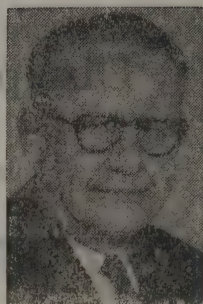

Construction started in the early winter of 1955 on the new Society building being erected at 1101 Nineteenth Avenue, South, in Nashville, as a memorial to Thomas W. Phillips, 1835-1912, with funds provided by the Phillips family, of Butler, Pennsylvania.

Background

The Constitutional purpose of the Disciples of Christ Historical Society is "to maintain and further interest in the religious heritage, background, origins, development, and general history of Disciples of Christ, Christian Churches, Churches of Christ, and related groups."

The Society was founded in 1941 as a cooperating agency reporting to the International Convention of Disciples of Christ. In 1946, Culver-

Stockton College, Canton, Missouri, was designated Society temporary headquarters. In April, 1952, by vote of the Board of Directors, the Society was removed to Nashville, Tennessee, as a result of a proposal advanced by the Nashville Planning Committee whereby the Society would be given a $55,000 subsidy and five years of free housing in the Joint University Library building.

From 1952 to 1955, Society holdings were increased by receipt of thousands of items of Disciple historical material; services to individuals and groups were multiplied; promotional efforts for financial support were expanded, and plans were laid for the eventual erection of a permanent Society headquarters building.

1955: Year of Achievement

Early in 1955, the Society announced the purchase of a most desirable site in Nashville's "University Center" area for the location of the permanent Society home. Funds for the purchase of this $30,000 site were provided by Mr. B. D. Phillips, Butler, Pennsylvania.

On February 22, 1955, the Society announced that the Phillips family of Pennsylvania would completely underwrite the construction of the proposed Society building, as a Memorial to Thomas W. Phillips (1835-1912).

In November, 1955, contracts totaling $825,000 were awarded for construction of the Phillips Memorial, and excavation was started immediately. Society supporters who visited Nashville November 29, 1955, for the Second Annual President's Dinner program were favorably impressed with the prominence of the Society site, as well as with the beauty and functional efficiency of the building plans, which were published in the June, 1955, issue of The Harbinger.

Not only did 1955 bring to partial realization Society dreams for a permanent headquarters building, but the year was also marked by Society triumphs in other areas.

Work was begun on indexing and microfilming the complete files of The Christian-Evangelist, under a subsidy from the Christian Board of Publication, St. Louis, Missouri.

Receipts of materials continued to increase. Space limitations at the Society's temporary location in the Joint University Library made necessary the shifting of DCHS promotional and mailing activities to additional offices at 1804 Grand Avenue, Nashville, a residence owned since 1954 by the Society.

Support from the Brotherhood, particularly from local churches, showed a marked increase in 1955. In 1952, 17 churches contributed $411.00 to the Society. In 1953, 35 churches gave $1,255.10. In 1954, this had increased to 84 churches and $3,094.30. In 1955, 136 churches gave more than $7,000 to support the Society program.

July 1, 1955, a two-year campaign was launched for $50,000 to purchase equipment and furnishings for the new Society building when completed. Initially directed to the ministry and professional leadership of the brotherhood, more than $4,500 has now been received for this Equipment Fund.

Monthly publication of The Harbinger and Disciplina continued in 1955, with the inclusion of more historical feature material in each issue. FOOTNOTES TO DISCIPLE HISTORY, Numbers 1, 2 and 3, were reprinted to supply the increasing demand for these booklets on Disciple personalities and events. Sale of the Society-published book by Dr. William Garrett West, BARTON WARREN STONE: Early American Advocate of Christian Unity, continued strong, as reviewers hailed this long overdue analysis of the contribution to ecumenical thought of one of our Disciples pioneers.

Calls for Society services increased in 1955. Not only requests for information and help for local churches preparing historical sketches, research students needing guidance, and others using the vast resources of the Society collection; but calls for staff personnel to participate in state convention programs, ministers' institutes, conferences and other Brotherhood gatherings.

The year 1955 stands as the most significant year in the development of our Society. The year 1956 promises to bring even greater advancements for the Society program.

Future

The Historical Society is supported solely by membership dues from individuals, local churches, institutions and organizations. It is not in Unified Promotion, nor does it share in any other general Brotherhood fund-raising effort. Individual membership dues in the Society range upward from $2.00 annually. Local church membership dues are based on the number of members in the congregation. A congregational membership for any church of over 500 members is $50.00 annually. Sustaining membership is $100.00 annually.

Immediate support is needed from an increasing number of churches to maintain the minimum program being undertaken while the new Society building is under construction. When the Phillips Memorial building is completed in 1957, it will be necessary to increase the annual Society budget over the $30,000 level presently maintained, in order to adequately serve the Brotherhood in the field of research assistance and preservation of materials. Every church in the Brotherhood is urged to consider membership in the Society as a means of supporting the expanding Society program.

European Evangelistic Society

Post Office Box 1010, Indianapolis, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

It was and is the purpose of the Society to establish a college adjacent to, and ultimately to be affiliated with a university in Germany. After extensive investigation Tübingen was selected as the most suitable location.

The purpose of this college is to present within the framework of European university scholarship the ideals and experience of Disciples of Christ in their attempt to realize for themselves and share with the Church universal the genius of New Testament Christianity.

Our basic purpose is expressed in the light of a fundamental conviction: that our apprehension of Christian truth and life can best influence the Church universal by introducing it into the intellectual and theological framework of European academic life.

We share the concern of all missionary endeavors with the limited returns experienced during the initial years of establishment. This particularly is true in the case of an educational mission such as ours. The struggle and growth of students whose lives are conditioned by the rigidity of European theology are necessarily slow, halting and difficult to portray in statistics. Dealing as we do primarily with ideas, we find the progress of thought often rejects the kind of data which can be readily tabulated. Moreover, the purpose and program of the Society accepted from the outset the fact that our most significant contribution to European Christianity would be in the almost indiscernible impact of these ideas within the circles of theology.

We may, however, mention some definite results in the persons of those who have been reached through the attractions of the teaching of Mr. Stuckenbruck. We may mention, for example, Dr. Theodore Mosalkow. Over twenty years ago he was associated with Prokhanoff in a school for ministers conducted in Berlin. Upon learning of the European Society, he sought to continue his work among the Slavic displaced persons in Germany under our auspices. His work among these folk, of whom there are 120,000 unchurched and unassimilated, constitutes one of the few ministries to these refugees from communism. We may rejoice that through him we have a link with the significant work so prayerfully sponsored years ago by such men as Z. T. Sweeney.

Iwan Petresky has expanded his work in Strassburg concerning which previous reports have spoken. He has given considerable time to the development of tracts in Russian which have been circulated in nineteen countries in Europe, Asia and South America. In 1955, in order to meet the needs of Russian exiles, he established a church in Baden Baden. These people are largely without an evangelical ministry in the center of Russian culture. He has been able to enlist the Christian confession of representative leaders among them, both in academic and army circles.

We may mention, as one of the theological students studying with Mr. Stuckenbruck, Gunther Brockhaus. His field of service is still under careful consideration. Herr Brockhaus is typical of those students of theology in Germany who are concerned to find the expression of the will of Christ through a fresh approach to the problems presented to the historic confessions by the social and religious upheavals of the present time.

In East Belgium, the Society has been approached to assist the work of Dr. Deelstra, the only non-Catholic worker in that area, for aid in his ministry to the large number of immigrants from among the Slavic, Italian and German peoples. Dr. Deelstra operates primarily through an elementary school serving some one hundred twenty-five families. He urges the Society to supply him with help in personnel. Mr. Stuckenbruck has found a young man, Mr. Eric Schneider, who is willing to undertake this responsibility. We are presently endeavoring to secure support for him in this spiritually important area of Belgium.

Mr. Stuckenbruck of course continues actively studying the Bible and theology with a select group of theological students largely in the University of Tübingen. He continues his serious and cordial communications with members of the faculty and with eminent theologians elsewhere in Europe. He finds a gradual amelioration of attitude toward the theological position he presents, and a disposition to take carefully into account the interpretation of the New Testament so familiar to us but so unfamiliar to European theologians. In addition to these responsibilities, the resignation of Fritz Schmitt from pastoral oversight of the church in Tübingen has again devolved upon Mr. Stuckenbruck. Ways are being sought to relieve him of this added burden that he may devote himself more directly to his central teaching endeavors.

The work of the Society here in America is greatly handicapped by the lack of a field secretary who can give his full time to the development of the work. Mr. Norvil W. Underwood was obliged to surrender his position as field secretary of the Society after making a significant contribution of several months' duration. We express ourselves as devoutly grateful for the stimulus he was able to provide during his official relationship. We are conscious, especially since his contribution, to the imperative need of someone to do this important work. We pray that we may find such service in the very near future.

The work of the past year gives evidence of the increasing recognition being secured by Mr. Stuckenbruck in significant circles of European life. A number of people have been attracted through him to the service of Europe's displaced peoples, who otherwise would have no spiritual counsel. We are pleased to believe the hand of God is thus blessing the purpose and program of the Society.

Respectfully submitted,
DEAN E. WALKER, President

International Convention of Disciples of Christ

Gaines M. Cook, Executive Secretary
620 K of P Building, Indianapolis 4, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The International Convention of Disciples of Christ is the outgrowth of our first General Convention held in Cincinnati, Ohio, October, 1849. The present organization of the International Convention (serving churches in United States and Canada) dates to 1917. The Convention office with a full-time staff was opened on October 1, 1946. The incorporation of the Convention was approved at the Cincinnati Assembly in October, 1949.

The Convention office coordinates the commissions and committees appointed each year at the International Convention Assembly and compiles the annual Year Book of Disciples of Christ. Its major task is to efficiently organize and present the annual International Convention Assembly. The office regularly contacts all railroads, airlines and bus companies concerning the transportation problems of our Brotherhood.

The Convention office, through its Department of Public Relations, attempts to provide a united front for the Disciples of Christ to the secular news services. Regular news releases regarding the activities of our various national agencies go out to the major newspapers, radio and television stations. The Department is also developing a training program in public relations for our churches. Press service is provided at each Annual Assembly to report the program and business actions taken.

The Preamble to the present Constitution states clearly the purposes of the International Convention and its relationship to the local churches and to member service agencies.

"Whereas, There is a widespread feeling among Disciples of Christ that a closer cooperation among their various missionary, educational, benevolent and other agencies, and a more general fellowship in their common efforts for the extension of the Kingdom of God in the world would result in greater efficiency;

"Therefore, We, members of Churches of Disciples of Christ in convention assembled, reaffirming our steadfast adherence to the independence and autonomy of the local churches and disavowing any control over our congregations or missionary, educational, and benevolent agencies other than that which is advisory, and inviting the fellowship of all brethren in the accomplishment of these ends, do hereby adopt the following: . . ."

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARYJuly 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

The Board of Directors held its annual meeting in Indianapolis, June 13-14, 1956. All members were present except two. One member, Mrs. W. Goebel Sanders, had entered into the Larger Life a few weeks preceding the annual meeting. The Board gave attention to the continuous program of the Convention, reviewed the service and financial activities of the staff, confirmed committee appointments, and adopted policies relative to the Year Book, the Department of Public Relations and the Des Moines Assembly.

The Area Assemblies

Twelve Area Christian Assemblies were held in September, October and November in the following locations: Lynchburg, Virginia; Atlanta, Georgia; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Cincinnati, Ohio; St. Louis, Missouri; Omaha, Nebraska; Colorado Springs, Colorado; Spokane, Washington; Bakersfield, California; Fort Worth, Texas; Wichita, Kansas; Memphis, Tennessee. The total registrations were 18,174. The theme was "We Press On" and each Assembly evaluated the progress of the Long Range Program and made plans for future progress toward the completion of goals for the ten year period ending 1960.

Area Assemblies in 1955 filled a real need in our Brotherhood life for fellowship, inspiration and planning. No general Assembly of the Convention was held in 1955. This was due to courtesy to the World Convention of Churches of Christ and the Canadian brethren in whose country the Convention was held, Toronto, Canada. The holding of these Assemblies in the year of the World Convention does not establish a precedent. No action by the Convention, the Board of Directors or officers, has projected any plans in the future for Area Assemblies. We report them as a project of service related to peculiar circumstances in 1955. This also was true in 1950 when 17 Assemblies were held in the year just prior to the simultaneous Conventions in Chicago, Disciple and Baptist, and the launching of the Long Range Program.

Personal Services

The Executive Secretary serves as the administrator of all activities authorized by the Assembly and the Board of Directors. He is assisted by a competent staff whose specific responsibilities are reported later in this review of the year. The Executive Secretary also serves as Secretary to the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships; the Committee on Recommendations; and on various Board Committees and Commissions and ecumenical organizations with which the Disciples of Christ are affiliated.

Local Churches Visited: The office of the Executive Secretary is considered to be representative in its relationship both to local congregations and to agencies affiliated with the Convention. During the year the following local congregations were visited for preaching service, dedications, ordinations and anniversary celebrations: Sidney, Ohio; First Omaha, Nebraska; First Colorado Springs, Colorado; Central Spokane, Washington; East Columbus, Ohio; Kingston Road United Church, Toronto, Canada; Rossmoyne Glendale, California; Monte Vista Albuquerque, New Mexico; First Clarksburg, West Virginia; Griffin, Georgia; Park Hill, Missouri; Louisiana, Missouri; First Decatur, Illinois; Prairie Avenue Decatur, Illinois; East Market Akron, Ohio; Boulevard Akron, Ohio; First San Pedro, California; Niantic, Illinois; Bartlesville, Oklahoma; Meade Avenue Akron, Ohio; Manhattan, Kansas; Frankfort, Kentucky; Hampton Park Toledo, Ohio; Sylvania, Ohio; First St. Joseph, Missouri; Union Park Des Moines, Iowa; Peachtree Atlanta, Georgia; Hyde Park Austin, Texas; Central Dallas, Texas; Central Lima, Ohio; First Washington, Pennsylvania; Capitol Hill, Grant Park, Highland Park, Wakonda, West Des Moines, Des Moines, Iowa; University San Diego, California; Kentland, Indiana.

Special Services: Several trips were made to St. Louis, Omaha, Colorado Springs and Spokane in connection with the holding of Area Assemblies. Visits were also made in this connection to Forth Worth, Wichita, Bakersfield and Pittsburgh; at Christmount, North Carolina, service was rendered to the Annual Assembly; we attended the World Convention in Toronto, delivering an address on that occasion; one week was spent in Toledo, Ohio, as Noon-Day Lenten speaker; we attended and participated in the first National Conference on Churches and Social Welfare in Cleveland, Ohio; consultation conference was held with the Illinois Unification Committee; three meetings of the General Board of the National Council, located in Omaha, Toledo and New York; one meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Conference on Church Union was attended in Cambridge, Massachusetts; I attended the memorial services for Oreon E. Scott in St. Louis; State Conventions in Tulsa, Oklahoma; Nashville, Tennessee; Macon, Georgia; meetings of Boards of Trustees of Eureka College and The College of the Bible; two meetings of the Interim Committee of the Council of Agencies; the Study Conference on the Church and Economic Life at Pittsburgh; the Conference on Audio-Visuals and Mass Media of Communication held by the agencies of the Brotherhood in St. Louis, as Chairman; Orientation Conference of Ministers and Wives, also Middlers' Orientation Conference in Indianapolis; the United States Conference of the World Council of Churches, Buck Hill Falls, Pennsylvania; three meetings of the Committee on Military and Veterans Services; meetings of the Committee on Relief Appeals and The Week of Compassion; numerous visits to Des Moines in preparation for the 1956 Assembly. Travel in connection with the Secretary's service totaled 70,150 miles. This year completes ten years with the permanent office and staff. They have been happy years. Statistical growth of the Convention cannot adequately measure the extent of progress made in the unification of the Brotherhood and more responsible procedures in the relationship of the Convention to constituent agencies and local congregations. However, it may be of interest to note that in 1946, 666 churches had part in the support of the Convention contributing $25,087.36. In 1956 the number was 1661 with $75,317.12. The total budget of the Convention including the Department of Public Relations for the year just closed was $78,153.

Assistant Secretary

Robert L. Lewis, Assistant Secretary, is responsible for securing underwriting of funds for the office, program and activities of the International Convention. He edits the Year Book, serves as Transportation Director and serves as the personal representative of the Executive Secretary in many Brotherhood and interdenominational relationships, e.g., the Washington Office of the National Council of Churches Committee, the Interchurch Transportation Committee, Advisory Board of the American Bible Society. He served as Team Leader for four Area Assemblies: Bakersfield, Wichita, Forth Worth and Memphis. He has been active on a special committee of the Interchurch Transportation Committee in the effort to secure Congressional action to permit reduced airline fares. The new Department of Public Relations has been partially underwritten by individual gifts, corporations and designated funds from local churches, in addition to funds from the enlarged receipts for the general budget. Mr. Lewis has a responsibility for developing these funds.

The 1955 Year Book containing 810 pages has been the responsibility of Mr. Lewis as Editor. He is assisted by Mrs. Lucille Funke and a staff of competent clerical workers. During recent months the Assistant Secretary has directed the activities of the Local Committee in Des Moines, Iowa, in preparation for the 1956 Assembly. He is the Business Manager for Convention activities both at the time of the Convention Assembly and ad interim.

Director of Public Relations

Ralph C. Neill is completing his second year as Director of Public Relations. He is assisted by Mrs. Olive Dorman, full time secretary. Mr. Neill's responsibilities include news coverage of general and national activities of the Disciples of Christ. He writes articles and news stories and travels thousands of miles in his service of interpreting the Brotherhood.

One of the most appreciated services is the assistance to State Conventions through clinics, workshops and direct assistance to local publicity committees at the time State Conventions are held. He has written a manual "Press Relations and Your Church," which has been widely distributed not only among Disciples but among other Public Relations Directors and staffs in sister communions. He is a member of the National Council Commission on Broadcasting and Films. Plans are under way for participation in radio and television programs in cooperation with the National Council and with local congregations.

The Department of Public Relations has become fully established. The experience of the first two years has ripened into definite patterns of service and the Department is being reorganized with sub-committees to involve technical skill and advice from an ever enlarging group of ministers and laymen in the Brotherhood.

Recording Secretary

Miss Gertrude Dimke, Recording Secretary, who has been with the International Convention Office since its opening in October, 1946, faithfully keeps the records of the Annual Assembly and the Brotherhood through notifying organizations and persons involved in Convention proceedings, e.g., committees, commissions, agencies, government, and other policy-making bodies; she serves as the personal secretary to the Executive Secretary; bookkeeper for the entire operation of the Convention office, including Year Book and Public Relations; prepares reports for all general and special meetings of the Board of Directors and committees; records and follows through on actions of the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relations, and carries heavy responsibilities for program set up of the Assembly of the Convention.

Convention Relationships

The continuing organization effected by the officers and staff of the International Convention enables sixteen national boards to report to the Brotherhood and makes possible a clearinghouse for both Disciple and interdenominational relationships. The Annual Assembly, of course, is the focal point in the Convention's services. It is here that those who attend and register are enabled to commend, endorse and make constructive suggestions for the units of work reporting to our Brotherhood.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION ANNUAL REPORT

The Convention office maintains a liaison relationship to the entire organizational life of our Brotherhood. This includes, through the Secretary or otherwise, membership on such important relationships as the Council of Agencies, the Home and State Missions Planning Council, National Association of State Secretaries. Representation is shared in an advisory capacity with all of the major boards reporting to the Convention. All appointments to the World Council of Churches and the National Council of Churches, and subsidiary committees are cleared through the executive officers of the Convention.

CERTIFICATE OF AUDITOR

August 9, 1956

Board of Directors,
International Convention of Disciples of Christ,
Indianapolis, Indiana.
Gentlemen:

We have examined the cash records of International Convention of Disciples of Christ for the year ended June 30, 1956. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the financial position of International Convention of Disciples of Christ at June 30, 1956, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

The working balance in the year book fund represents only a temporary balance to be absorbed as a reduction of costs of the 1956 year book when its net cost is assessed to participating organizations after issuance.

Yours very truly

GEO. S. OLIVE & Co.

ACTIONS TAKEN DURING BUSINESS SESSIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION ASSEMBLY HELD IN DES MOINES, IOWA, SEPTEMBER 28—OCTOBER 3, 1956

The 107th Annual Assembly of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ was called to order Friday evening, September 28, 1956, at Veterans Memorial Auditorium, Des Moines, Iowa, by President Riley B. Montgomery.

Executive Secretary, Gaines M. Cook, presented the program; also reports and resolutions which had been filed prior to August 30, 1956, for consideration by the Convention Assembly.

Fraternal Delegates, J. Leslie Colver from Great Britain, Joaquin Vargas and Juan Marcos Rivera from Puerto Rico, were presented. Greetings were received from Ira Paternoster on behalf of the Annual Conference of Churches in Australia; from the South Africa Association of Disciples of Christ, Percy R. Webber, Secretary; from the Churches in the Philippines; from the Churches of Great Britain and Ireland. Miss Carol Morris of Ottumwa, Iowa (Miss Universe), brought greetings to the Assembly. Richard W. Geib, minister at Kentland, Ind., was presented a Citation as the Rural Minister-of-the-Year. A copy of the book, For the Support of the Christian Ministry, by Wm. Martin Smith was presented to Dr. F. E. Smith.

Dr. and Mrs. Gaines M. Cook were presented with a Citation in recognition of ten years' service with the International Convention together with the gift of a round-the-world trip to mission stations during the coming year.

Report of the Committee on Time and Place

The report was presented by Executive Secretary Gaines M. Cook as follows:

Announcement was made that tentative plans to hold the 1959 Assembly in Pittsburgh had been canceled due to the fact that the new Auditorium would not be completed in time to hold this Assembly in Pittsburgh in 1959.

Announcement was made regarding the holding of the 1957 Assembly in Cleveland, Ohio, October 11-16 and the holding of the 1958 Assembly in St. Louis, Missouri, in October of that year.

Announcement was made that due to the recent cancellation of plans in Pittsburgh the Time and Place Committee has no recommendation to make for 1959 or in the years immediately succeeding. However, the Board of Directors has been requested by the Time and Place Committee to give immediate consideration to invitations for at least 1959 and 1960, with the understanding that the Board of Directors will be authorized to make decisions regarding invitations for these years at the earliest possible date.

“1. In Section ‘A’ of Report No. 14 are some immensely important concerns relative to the problems of increased enrollments, increased costs and need for additional support to our schools by our churches.

“2. We recognize with appreciation the vast service performed by the Ford Foundation in its recent grant of over two million dollars going to most of our church-related colleges; and while recognizing that the Board of Higher Education has already expressed the appreciation of the institutions to the Ford Foundation, we recommend that the Office of the International Convention convey the appreciation of Disciples of Christ generally to the Ford Foundation for this very discerning and encouraging gift to church-related higher education.

“3. We would underline the second aspect of our theme for the Year of the Ministry: ‘Recruit, Educate and Sustain.’

“4. We would point up the activities related to this Year of the Ministry mentioned in paragraphs 3 and 5 on page 104 of the Convention program.”

Pension Fund of Disciples of Christ

New and Increased Benefits Under the Pension Plan at No Additional Cost to Members and Churches

The Pension Fund of Disciples of Christ presents the following recommendation to the International Convention of Disciples of Christ meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, September 28 to October 3, 1956.

RESOLVED: That the International Convention of Disciples of Christ in assembly at Des Moines, Iowa, ratify the new and increased benefits under the Pension Plan approved and presented by the Trustees of the Pension Fund of Disciples of Christ as outlined below and that it instruct the Trustees to amend the Pension Plan accordingly.

The offer of new and increased benefits to 12% members of the Pension Plan (10% for single women) is made after careful study of costs, income and reserves on the part of the Consulting Actuaries and the Staff of the Pension Fund, with no increase in dues for members, churches or organizations.

HERE ARE THE NEW AND INCREASED BENEFITS PROPOSED:

- A. Protection Death Benefit Payable upon the Death of an Active Dues-Paying Member: An increase in the Protection Death Benefit under the following scale. The amount to be paid will vary according to the age of the member at death and the salary basis upon which the dues were paid during the months preceding the date of death. (The present scale appears in parentheses.)

Age at Death (Age last birthday)	Basic	Amount of Death Benefit
		Maximum	Minimum
Through 54	18 months' salary (12 months' salary)	$10,000 ($6,000)	$1,500 ($1,000)
55-64	15 months' salary (12 months' salary)	$10,000 ($6,000)	$1,250 ($1,250)
65-69	12 months' salary (9 months' salary)	$7,500 ($4,500)	$1,000 ($750)
70-74	9 months' salary (6 months' salary)	$5,000 ($3,000)	$750 ($500)
75 and over	6 months' salary (3 months' salary)	$2,000 ($1,500)	$750 ($500)

Note: This benefit is additional to the regular Cash Death Benefit of one thousand dollars under the Pension Plan.

- B. Scholarship Benefit: A Scholarship Benefit for each child of a deceased member, such benefit limited to $2,000 and payable $500 a year for each of the first four years of full-time study beyond high school.
- C. Pensioner Death Benefit After Retirement: An increase in the full Pensioner Death Benefit from $500 to $750 payable upon the death of a retired member.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

- D. Disability Pension: An increase in the Combined Disability Pension from $900 a year to $1,200 a year. Where the salary basis limits the regular disability pension to less than $600, the additional pension will be equal to the regular disability pension. The additional pension will be on the single-life basis with no corresponding additional pension to the widow.
- E. Pensioner Death Benefit Under Disability Before Age 65: An extension of the death benefit scale under "A" to apply upon the death of a disabled member who is under 65 years of age.
- F. Pensioner Death Benefit Under Disability After Age 65: An increase in the full Pensioner Death Benefit from $500 to $750 payable upon the death of a disabled member who is age 65 or older.
- G. Beginning Date for Additional Coverage: It is proposed that this schedule of new and increased benefits become effective at 12:01 A.M., October 1, 1956.

Concerning Adoption Practices

- WHEREAS: The present laws of many states concerning the adoption of children are too loosely drawn to protect both children and those seeking to adopt them; and
- WHEREAS: We recognize that good adoption practices involve a partnership which embraces social work, pediatrics, psychology, psychiatry, anthropology and law; and
- WHEREAS: Christian people must take their stand on issues involving the lives of children; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED: That this Convention go on record as favoring legislation designed to make more stringent the laws governing adoptions; be it further
- RESOLVED: That this Convention urge our churches to take the following steps:
1. Study the Kefauver Report on child welfare in America;
 2. Study community adoptive practices;
 3. Review state laws governing adoptions;
 4. Consult and work in conjunction with the directors of state and local social welfare agencies.

Concerning Approval of the Trust Fund Program of the Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ

The following resolution has been submitted by the Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ for consideration as an action of the Assembly.

BE IT RESOLVED: that the 1956 Des Moines Assembly of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ:

1. Express its hearty approval of the Trust Fund program of the Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ, whereby funds can be deposited with said Board and then loaned to congregations of the Brotherhood to assist them in their building programs.

2. Encourage individual members of our churches, churches themselves, and organizations of our churches, to take advantage of this opportunity for investment which provides safety, a fair interest return, a satisfaction of service being rendered, and availability of money when needed.

Resolution—No. 64 Concerning Christian Unity

The Council on Christian Unity, which has been given responsibility for matters that relate to the historic mission of Disciples of Christ in witnessing to the unity of the church in Jesus Christ, submits the following:

1) WHEREAS, the International Convention of Disciples of Christ has committed itself as a constituent member of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and the World Council of Churches, and

WHEREAS, the need for united Christian witness, action and service continues to increase,

BE IT RESOLVED: that this assembly of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ reaffirm its loyalty to the ecumenical agencies serving the cause of Christian unity and that the Council on Christian Unity be urged to encourage the congregations of the Brotherhood to strengthen their support of the National Council of Churches and of the World Council of Churches.

2) WHEREAS the National Council of Churches of Christ has given careful study to its needs for undesignated funds to underwrite adequately its multiple services, and has arrived at a formula which is equitably applied to all member churches, and

WHEREAS, the goal for local congregation giving from the Disciples of Christ has been suggested as $32,600, or an increase of $9,922 from local congregations over the preceding year,

BE IT RESOLVED

1. That local congregations be urged to consider increased responsibility by accepting a goal of $32,600 for the year closing December 31, 1956.

2. That congregations presently contributing to the National Council be urged to increase their annual giving for this cause, and

3. That additional congregations be invited to participate in the effort to reach the total goal recommended.

3) WHEREAS, the World Council of Churches is engaged in the erection of a new headquarters building in Geneva, Switzerland, at a total estimated cost of $750,000, of which member churches are asked to contribute $300,000 the balance being provided by individuals and foundations, and,

WHEREAS, the recommended share of the Disciples of Christ is $20,000,

BE IT RESOLVED: that the local congregations of the Disciples of Christ be urged to share in the underwriting of the cost of the new headquarters building as well as in their support of the current work of the World Council of Churches.

4) WHEREAS, the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ was one of the two national bodies which called for the setting up of the Conference on Church Union (Columbus Assembly, 1946), and

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, representatives appointed by the International Convention have participated actively in drafting the "Plan of Union for a United Church" (Greenwich Plan) which has been submitted to the unity commissions of the various participating communions for study, and,

WHEREAS, a meeting of representatives from ten local study groups set up under the auspices of the Council on Christian Unity has prepared a response, entitled "Comments from Disciples of Christ on Plan of Union for a United Church,"

BE IT RESOLVED: that we continue to cooperate closely in the Conference on Church Union in exploring these avenues to a united church.

5) WHEREAS, the Congregational-Christian and the Evangelical and Reformed Churches are moving toward the consummation in 1957 of their proposed union, and

WHEREAS, Disciples of Christ have followed with deep interest this significant coming together of four historic communions into a United Church of Christ, and

WHEREAS, the passion of the Disciples of Christ for the unity of the church would make them responsive to opportunities to participate in any enlargement of this union,

BE IT RESOLVED: that this Des Moines Assembly reaffirm the action of the International Convention taken at Buffalo in 1947, authorizing the Council on Christian Unity "to explore the possibilities of our sharing in this growing body of unity."

(The text of the resolution referred to and adopted by the Buffalo Convention in 1947 follows.)

"WHEREAS, the proposed union of the Evangelical and Reformed and the Congregational Christian Churches will likely be consummated within the next two or three years; and since this union, when it is realized will bring together four historic communions of diverse history, doctrinal emphases, and ecclesiastical polity, manifesting that there can be unity in diversity; and

"WHEREAS, some of the leaders of these uniting churches have openly expressed their hope that this body of unity would continue to grow, and have further stated that they look to the communion of the Disciples of Christ as the next fellowship of Christians with whom they should discuss the possibility of forming this united church; and

"WHEREAS, the historic passion of the Disciples of Christ has been the increasing union of the church;

"BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, meeting in Buffalo, New York, in the summer of 1947, authorize the Association for the Promotion of Christian Unity to explore the possibilities of our sharing in this growing body of unity."

6) WHEREAS, some of the most creative and courageous developments of our century in Christian unity have been occurring among the younger churches in such places as Japan, the Philippine Islands, South India, Jamaica and elsewhere, and,

WHEREAS, the United Christian Missionary Society has adopted a strategy making it possible for churches established through our missionary efforts to participate in such unions, if they so desire,

BE IT RESOLVED: that we commend the missionary statesmen of our brotherhood for this policy which affirms our historic passion for the unity of the church and that we hold firmly to our sense of comradeship with our fellow-Christians who enter into such unions.

7) WHEREAS, the United States Conference for the World Council of Churches, the National Council of Churches, and the Canadian Council of Churches have jointly called a North American Study Conference on "The Nature of the Unity We Seek," to be held at Oberlin, Ohio, in September, 1957, and have invited many local groups to study the topic, and

WHEREAS, delegates representing Disciples of Christ in the U.S.A. are appointed to this conference by the International Convention (in consultation with the Council on Christian Unity), and

WHEREAS, the International Convention has assigned to the Council on Christian Unity the responsibility of formulating statements on ecumenical issues on behalf of the Disciples of Christ,

BE IT RESOLVED: that the International Convention encourage Disciples everywhere to participate in local groups studying "The Nature of the Unity We Seek," particularly those which are interdenominational in scope, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that the International Convention recognize that statements made on behalf of Disciples of Christ in the United States and Canada will be issued in its behalf by the Council on Christian Unity.

8) WHEREAS, the student movements of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A., Congregational-Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Churches, and Disciples of Christ are discussing the possibility of, and developing means to achieve, a merger of student movements; and

WHEREAS, we believe the achievement of such a union would make a more united witness for Christ in our College and University life; and

WHEREAS, it is proposed that a plan of union be considered by student groups, and by agencies and state and area organizations of the constituent communions during the coming year; and

WHEREAS, such a union has implications for the total life of our brotherhood,

BE IT RESOLVED; that this Assembly urge the Council on Christian Unity to explore with the Joint Commission on Campus Christian Life of The United Christian Missionary Society and the Board of Higher Education the further development of these plans and to present them to the responsible sponsoring bodies, state and area, and national for appropriate action to assure support.

9) WHEREAS, during recent catastrophes, Disciples of Christ have been richly blessed in association with Christians of other lands to find that Lutheran, Reformed, Orthodox, and Evangelical Christians are our fellow-Christians, and

WHEREAS, although on many points we disagree, we have known a oneness in Christ which has called us to a common ministry among God's children and has provided a spirit in which our differences become stimulants to deeper thought and closer fellowship,

BE IT RESOLVED: that we hereby reaffirm that these are our fellow-Christians. Where they stand we also stand, for we are part one of another. Such witness as we have (to the unity of the Church, and for the ministering to God's children) in areas where there are no "Disciples of Christ" or Disciples' missions is first of all through these fellow-Christians. We recognize that on them and their churches rest the immediate as well as the continuing responsibility for ministering and witnessing in their situations. We affirm our desire to participate with them in that responsibility—our common responsibility—sharing through them what resources we may possess in spirit or ideas, or goods, or personnel; and we welcome their sharing with us in like manner, that the blessings of a whole ministry and the oneness of the whole church may be known where we witness, that the world may know our one Lord and the God who sent him.

Resolution—No. 65

Regarding Social Concerns

Shown on pages 230-234 of the 1956 Des Moines Assembly Program Book with the addition of Section "J," signed by the Department of Social Welfare of The United Christian Missionary Society, as follows:

The Committee on Recommendations recommended approval of Resolution No. 65 revised as follows:

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

Believing that God is the Sovereign of this world and that His will is revealed both in the redeeming love embodied in Jesus Christ and in the experience of judgment seen in history;

Believing, further, that it is God's will for man that he should learn to live in terms of love and mutual respect and helpfulness with his brother, thus making real the kingdom of heaven here "on earth as it is in Heaven," and believing that war, injustice, crime, intolerance and immorality are evidences of man's rebellion against God and the refusal of men and nations to acknowledge his sovereignty;

Believing, also, that such social evils as war, racial intolerance, poverty, and the liquor traffic with their resultant personal misery and social tragedy are not only symptoms of man's rebellion and sinfulness, but also that they themselves lead to the breakdown, stunting and debasing of personalities and the destruction of spiritual values and that therefore those of us who wish to respond to God's desire that we accept responsibility for our brother's welfare, and live with him in love must not only abjure evil personally, but must work to eliminate evil processes from the social order;

And believing that when men gather together to work and worship in the name of Jesus Christ they thus become a part of the body of Christ—the Church—and that as they do so they have a special responsibility to witness to his spirit, going beyond their own practice and wishes to speak to one another and to the world at large of what they believe to be His will:

BE IT RESOLVED: that the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ here assembled at Des Moines, Iowa, September 28 to October 3, 1956:

1. Reaffirms its conviction that as members of the body of Christ we should speak forthrightly and specifically of the sins of men, reminding them of the judgment and love of God as revealed in Christ and calling them to repentance, confession, baptism and the service of their fellow-men and their society;

2. Acknowledges that the church, desiring His kingdom to "come on earth as it is in Heaven," must make its actions parallel its prayers and that it must seek to build a Christian world order in which all men and women have the greatest possible opportunity for physical, mental, moral, and spiritual development; and acknowledges also that this requires church members as citizens and as a body of believers to relate their convictions in concrete and meaningful ways to the political, economic and social structures of society;

3. Recognizing the ambiguity of human moral decisions and social policies calls the churches and their members prayerfully to consider and actively to support, where their conscience allows, the following specific pronouncements:

A. Disarmament

We believe that the current discussions of peace and disarmament among nations provide an atmosphere in which sensitive Christians again will want to re-examine the nature of war, particularly atomic war, with its indiscriminate killing of combatants and noncombatants alike and its threat to civilization itself.

The cause of disarmament is a unique challenge for this generation. We must beat our swords into plowshares. In doing this we can turn vast forces of destruction and misery into a movement that will lift the level of living of all mankind as we participate in the only good war—that against poverty, ignorance, disease, and human selfishness. The "Atoms for Peace" plans submitted by the President of the United States to the United Nations is a step in this direction.

To achieve this end we support the efforts of our Government through the United Nations to secure effective multilateral reduction of armaments with adequate inspection under international auspices to insure compliance with agreements. We commend the appointment of a cabinet rank Presidential assistant on disarmament and we welcome the current investigations of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on Disarmament.

We pray that our leaders in hours of frustration will not be beguiled by the concept that possession of nuclear weapons by the potential belligerents is in itself a reliable deterrent to war. Fear cannot provide an effective restraint to war, for as the Evanston Report of the World Council of Churches says, "It is vain to think that the hydrogen bomb or its development has guaranteed peace because men will be afraid to go to war, nor can fear provide an effective restraint against the temptation to use such a decisive weapon either in hope of total victory or in the desperation of total defeat." Therefore we urge our government to seize every opportunity to keep open channels of communication with other nations and to continue patiently the search for disarmament despite the many difficulties and disappointments that frequently accompany such negotiations.

B. Universal Military Service and Training

As a Convention we have frequently expressed the conviction that any permanent system of Universal Military Service and Training is contrary to our Christian tradition. At this time we reaffirm this view.

The expansion of Universal Military Service and Training is incompatible with our efforts for disarmament. International abolition of conscription should become a major feature of a system of multilateral disarmament under international inspection. We urge our Government to work in this direction.

C. United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)

In our continuing support of the United Nations and its many activities working for peace we want to take special note at this time of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF). This agency has performed an heroic mission of mercy among millions of children on behalf of all of us. It has made possible projects of feeding, maternal and child care, mass health programs, child nutrition, and aid to children who are the victims of war and natural disasters.

We are proud of our Government's participation in this program and wish to commend the President and the Congress for again this year appropriating $10 million to this worthy enterprise. It is our hope that we will further express our concern for the children of the world by reviewing periodically this program in the light of the needs of children everywhere.

D. Citizenship

Christians have a special obligation to discharge their responsibilities as citizens. We demonstrate our concern for mankind by faithfully and energetically taking part in the political process. It is our duty to study the issues, become familiar with the records of public officials, recruit young men and women for the ministry of public service, to petition the Government as conscience dictates, and to regularly exercise our franchise as voters and citizens of a democracy.

Specifically we encourage our churches to emphasize citizenship as a Christian responsibility by including in their educational program such activities as: (a) a first voter recognition service for all individuals reaching twenty-one years of age, and for naturalized citizens; (b) a voter participation program in which each citizen would be encouraged to register and vote; (c) a "candidates' night" in which those seeking political office would discuss the issues with church members; (d) a series of "Round Table" discussions of the issues so that Christians may be adequately informed; (e) denominational and interdenominational seminars dealing with social issues.

E. Alcohol and Narcotics

Once again the public conscience is being awakened to the individual, family and social tragedies stemming from the use of beverage alcohol. Christians no longer can ignore the rapidly mounting number of alcoholics in the United States—4,700,000 in 1954—or the challenge of intemperance represented by the estimated $250 million a year in alcoholic beverage advertising. Each succeeding generation of Americans appears to be influenced more and more by advertising slogans and less and less by Christian ethics in formulating attitudes toward alcoholic beverages.

We have education, prevention and rehabilitation responsibilities in connection with the alcohol problem. A strong program of education was the tradition among our churches in times past. We should recapture this tradition and carry on an alcohol education program through all concerned agencies and every possible medium. We urge a legislative program eliminating the sale of alcoholic beverages. The ministry to the alcoholic, the problem drinker, and his family, likewise claims our sympathetic concern. We are heartened by the work of Alcoholics Anonymous and the growing number of alcoholism clinics which are allies of the church in rescuing thousands of individuals for a useful life.

Alcohol and public safety are always a concern in this age of motor and air travel. It is therefore gratifying to see the House of Representatives of the United States acting to prohibit the sale and service of alcoholic beverages aboard airliners. We commend the Congress for this prompt action.

Congress failed to act, however, after the Senate and House Interstate Commerce committees once again held hearings to consider prohibiting alcoholic beverage advertising in interstate commerce on television, radio, and in newspapers, magazines and other periodicals. We reaffirm our support of efforts to outlaw such advertising and urge our churches and their members to write their Congressmen and Senators concerning this legislation. Our churches also can take further action by commending those periodicals and media that do not carry alcohol advertising and by sending letters of protest to those periodicals and media that do carry such advertising.

The social and economic aspects of the alcohol problem are still a neglected area of study. This being so, we recommend that the Board of Higher Education give thought to encouraging some college or university to establish a department to study the social and economic aspects of the alcohol problem in a manner similar to that employed by the Yale University Center of Alcohol Studies in its research regarding the physiological and psychological aspects of the problem.

The narcotics traffic in the United States has reached alarming proportions, according to a report of the U. S. Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Narcotics. We express hope that the Senate will take like action.

F. Religion in Our Daily Work

In our daily work, and especially amidst the prosperity we now enjoy, Christians all too often give little thought to the implications of their Christian beliefs for business and industrial relations. We believe God speaks to us as employers, employees, and participants in the economic life of our nation and recommend for the study of the churches the Reports of Sections III and VI of the Evanston Report of the World Council of Churches dealing with "The Responsible Society in a World Perspective" and "The Christian and His Vocation."

We urge our local congregations to initiate programs of discussion and study dealing with such matters as: (1) the "doctrine of vocation," (2) labor-management relations, (3) the place of women in business and industry, or (4) the implications for the individual's employment to be found in his beliefs about the alcohol trade, world peace, and similar social issues. To this end we urge that pastors preach at least one or two sermons a year in this general area of concern. Congregations might also plan study groups, arrange retreats among members of similar professions or vocations so that they can think together about the meaning of the Christian faith for their own jobs.

G. The Church and Social Welfare

The church has always served and still serves as the social conscience of the community, setting the moral goals for its life, and fostering within individuals the will to help others. In this continuing role we are called to meet the challenge of changing times in the "Message to the Churches" of the National Conference on the Churches and Social Welfare which met in Cleveland, Ohio, November 1-4, 1955.

We are asked by the Conference to meet our responsibilities in the light of immense social and economic changes resulting from two world wars, an economic depression, and radical changes in the social structure of society. Special attention is directed to the plight of older persons. The United States population has doubled in the last half century, but the number of those past 65 has quadrupled. At the same time there has been a decline in employment opportunities for older people.

Crucial decisions must be made, the Conference report said, about the conservation of human and natural resources and various economic adjustments that take into account human values. We are resolved that the churches of our Brotherhood should take an active part in making these decisions. In particular we stress the urgency of a specialized ministry to older adults, the importance of training volunteers to work in community health and welfare agencies, and the need for guidance and financial support to young people who want to make social work their Christian vocation.

It is our conviction that Christian love still expresses itself through personal deeds of kindness and mercy. But love also is expressed in comprehensive and adequate programs of health and welfare services by private, church, municipal, state and national agencies. We believe that Christians should actively support community agencies working for social welfare and should engage in social reform through legislation and education to serve the needs of all disadvantaged persons.

H. Removing Racial Barriers

There is abundant evidence of a re-examination of racial practices throughout our Brotherhood life. Since such a suggestion was made in 1954 at the Miami Convention, several additional Brotherhood colleges and universities have begun to enroll students without regard to race. It is now a fact also that most of our national agencies have adopted practices in employment and in representation on policy making boards that include persons of minority ethnic groups. We wish to express our appreciation to those responsible leaders of our Brotherhood publications, agencies, institutions and churches who have initiated significant progress toward a fellowship without racial restrictions.

Still, with all the discernible progress, we are painfully aware that the pattern of discrimination both in society and in the church is changing all too slowly. There is hardly a community in the land where Negroes and other minority ethnic groups are free from discriminatory practices. It is also true that in many communities church leaders have suffered personal and professional loss because of their work on behalf of racial justice and understanding.

It is our hope that churches will mutually support one another and also will sustain their ministers and church leaders of all races who come under threat or attack for their activities in support of our frequently expressed objective of a "non-segregated church in a non-segregated society."

Christians living in communities where racial tensions are high are called to a special task of reconciliation. We urge them to exercise initiative and leadership in forming voluntary, interracial groups that will seek to encourage all groups of the community to participate in an orderly compliance with the law. As Christians we must act in a spirit of reconciling love toward the goal of Christian justice.

Not only do we speak to our congregations of their responsibility to serve the people of their communities regardless of race but also we call upon our churches to examine the real estate practices of their communities and their membership with a view to encouraging the development of neighborhoods where persons may live without racial barriers.

I. Public Education

Protestant Christianity believes firmly in freedom of conscience, separation of church and state, the dignity of the individual human soul and in providing the maximum opportunity possible with the resources at hand for the fullest development of every human being. Because this is our goal we have a tremendous stake in the preservation of the public school tradition.

Pressures of one sort and another pose a threat even to so vital an institution as the public school system. There is the tremendous population growth, taxing to the utmost facilities and personnel, a situation likely to continue at an accelerating rate for several generations. We believe that the educational welfare of our nations children is most important, both as a local and as a national consideration. Therefore, we urge our congregations to call to the attention of local, state and federal authorities the necessity of planning now for adequate financing of the school program in the next 25 years so that both buildings and teaching staff will be adequately provided. We strongly urge local congregations to support schoolteachers in all legitimate requests for better salaries and working conditions, and school boards and school administrators in all forward-looking programs.

The response of certain of our states to the Supreme Court's decision regarding integration in schools has resulted in the threat of disbanding the public school systems in those states. Since we believe in equality of opportunity for all children regardless of race, economic background, religious tradition or geographic distribution, we support the Supreme Court's decision outlawing segregation in the public schools. We protest all effort to establish privately controlled schools designed to support enforced segregation and discrimination in our society.

We also call attention to increasing pressure upon society by parochial school authorities to provide public funds for the support of their schools. Our position is that public funds should be provided to public schools only, not to private or parochial schools.

The place of religion in the public schools also is under constant discussion. Some say the religious heritage of America should be recognized and included in our public school curriculum. Others assert that there should be no teaching of religion at all. Another point of view is that there should be some sort of weekday religious education. We support the idea of treating the study of religion from an historical point of view as we do the study of any other phase of our culture. It should be accorded full recognition in the curriculum on the grounds that to omit it is to omit an integral part of our American tradition.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

We further suggest that the departments of social welfare and religious education of The United Christian Missionary Society sponsor a joint study of Weekday Religious Education programs as regards their implications for the principle of separation of church and state.

J. Refugees

Consonant with past actions of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ supporting the opening of our national doors to refugees and displaced persons, and in keeping with our refugee relief program under which the Brotherhood has resettled several hundred individual displaced persons, we wish to record our feeling that some form of national legislation should be enacted which would give continuing assistance to refugees and orphans in need of new homes, when the present Refugee Relief Act of 1953 becomes invalid.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Note: Variations from the original text as printed in the Program Book are as follows:

1. In paragraph 4, 5th line the word know be changed to believe.
2. In paragraph 1 under "Be it resolved" beginning with the word judgment be changed to read Judgment and love of God as revealed in Christ and calling etc. . . .
3. Page 231, paragraph 3 under "Be it resolved" be amended to read: Recognizing the ambiguity of human moral decisions and social policies, calls the churches, etc.
4. Section "A" on line 2 of paragraph 2, delete two words: "or perish."
5. In paragraph 4 of Section "A," line 2, change "hydrogen bomb" to read "nuclear weapons."
6. Correct typographical error in line 6 of paragraph 4 in Section "A." "Restrains" should be "restraint."
7. Section "B" paragraph 1, line 2, change word "American" to "Christian."
8. Delete last sentence of paragraph 1 (Section "B") beginning with words "We oppose any . . ."
9. Section "B" paragraph 2. Change second word "extension" to read "expansion."
10. Section "B," delete first sentence of paragraph 2.
11. Section "C" paragraph 2, line 2, change "Contributing" to "Appropriating."
12. Section "E," paragraph 2, line 4, after sentence ending with word "Medium" add sentence: "We urge a legislative program eliminating the sale of alcoholic beverages."
13. Section "E," paragraph 3. Line 2, change the word "Congress" to "House of Representatives," and in the same sentence delete the words "with speed."
14. Section "E," paragraph 3, delete the final sentence of the paragraph and add: "We express hope that the Senate will take like action."
15. Section I, second paragraph, line 5, delete words "Without equivocation." Also on same line change word "discrimination" to "segregation."

Resolution—No. 66

Concerning Penitence, Study, and Constructive Efforts With Regard to Problems of Peace and War

- WHEREAS the development of nuclear and other weapons of mass destruction threatens the existence not only of civilization but of human life itself in any future war and this accentuates the sinfulness of war and its denial of the spiritual value for which the church of Jesus Christ stands.
- WHEREAS the World Council of Churches declared at Evanston that "it is not enough for the churches to proclaim that war is evil" and urged churches in the world to study afresh the Christian approaches to peace.
- WHEREAS in accordance with this declaration the Division of Studies of the World Council of Churches has inaugurated a project to study again and afresh the whole meaning of war in the light of the Christian faith and the contemporary technological and political situations;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by this International Convention of the Disciples of Christ, in assembly at Des Moines, Iowa, September 28 to October 3 1956, that:

(1) we confess our negligence as peacemakers and our involvement in the war system which contradicts the teachings of Jesus Christ and opposes the spiritual values for which His Church stands; and

(2) that we urge both pacifists and nonpacifist Christians in our churches to participate jointly in the study as to the nature and meaning of war inaugurated by the World Council of Churches, to the end that our Christian witnesses may be clear and relevant to the present situation.

(3) we pledge ourselves to make effective our opposition to war and our witness to peace through working diligently to remove the causes of war and to establish the conditions of peace, such as freedom, justice and order, through the United Nations and other agencies, and to disassociate ourselves so far as possible from the destructive phases of war.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

Resolution—No. 67

Concerning Puerto Rican Work in New York City

WHEREAS, the migration of Puerto Rican citizens to the mainland of the United States has brought 500,000 Puerto Ricans to New York City, and it is predicted that the Puerto Rican migration will continue so as to more than double the present New York Puerto Rican population by 1970; and

WHEREAS, the Disciples of Christ have maintained a missionary program in Puerto Rico since the turn of the century and Puerto Ricans have been so receptive to evangelism that our mission there is one of our most successful, and consequently large numbers of the New York Puerto Ricans have Disciple background or preference; and

WHEREAS, the Puerto Rican Disciples of Christ in New York have started, almost unaided, six Christian Churches which are indigenous and have full-time university and seminary trained ministers and have a combined constituency of over 1,000 people and each church has a bilingual and interracial program well suited to serve the area in which it is located; and

WHEREAS, the home missionary agencies of the brotherhood are able to supply only modest amounts on pastoral support out of regular current budget, no money being available from this source for capital investment; and

WHEREAS, only two churches have had property of their own or/and facilities other than tiny store-front meeting places, and New York property values make it impossible for them to rent or purchase adequate facilities; and

WHEREAS, the oldest church, and the largest, La Hermosa Christian Church, which has been serving East Harlem for fifteen years, has had its building condemned to make way for a slum clearance housing project but has been offered the unusual opportunity to buy property and rebuild in the redeveloped area but at a cost far beyond the ability of the congregation; and

WHEREAS, the capital fund needs of these Puerto Rican congregations in New York are beyond the capacity of the New York-New Jersey Christian Missionary Society and The United Christian Missionary Society to meet in view of their previous financial commitments; and

WHEREAS, the movement of Puerto Ricans to the mainland constitutes the greatest home missionary challenge and opportunity in our time;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we approve the action of some thirty-five brethren, broadly representative of the agency and general life of our Brotherhood, in establishing a sponsoring committee to plan and promote a capital fund effort to assist our Puerto Rican brethren in New York to secure adequate housing for their various congregations, it being understood that any such effort projected by the committee will be regularly cleared through the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships and other recognized channels of the Brotherhood, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this project be commended to the churches and individuals of our Brotherhood as being worthy of their Christian concern and sacrificial financial support.

Concerning Our Chaplains

WHEREAS, due to world tensions, the Congress of the United States is maintaining in uniform nearly three million men and women to serve in the various branches of our Armed Forces, and

WHEREAS, in recognition of the moral and spiritual imperatives and disciplines of our military personnel, the Congress has wisely provided for chaplains to minister as representatives of their respective communions to the Armed Forces, and to the disabled in Veterans Administration Hospitals; and

WHEREAS, under a quota system each communion is asked to select carefully from among its ablest ministers for this area of service, establishing by regulation that these chaplains shall serve as faithful ministers of their respective communions, adhering to the beliefs and practices of that church; and

WHEREAS, the quotas assigned to the Disciples of Christ, have been, and are being fully met by ministers who volunteer service in the Chaplaincy; and

WHEREAS, these ministers of our Brotherhood, serving as Disciples of Christ chaplains, have served in such a way as to be a credit to our Brotherhood and to the Chaplaincy, often in isolated and lonely situations, apart from family and friends, without the close Christian contacts and fellowship which characterizes the civilian ministry.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, September 28 through October 3, 1956, that we:

1. Commend our chaplains for the faithful ministry they are providing men and women in the Armed Forces and in the hospitals of the Veterans Administration, and for representing our Brotherhood so ably and unselfishly in this ministry, and,
2. Pledge to them as a Brotherhood our efforts to keep strong this bond of fellowship with our chaplains, and, in the name of Christ, to sustain them in their ministry to the men and women in the Armed Forces and Veterans Administration with our fellowship, our support and our prayers.

Concerning the Responsibility of Local Congregations to Youth
Anticipating, Serving, and Returning From the Armed Forces

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has enacted legislation providing for a required period of military service on the part of all physically fit young men of our nation, a requirement that is causing approximately one million young men to enter military service each year and one million to return to civilian life; and

WHEREAS, a realistic appraisal of world conditions indicates that in all likelihood America will find it necessary to maintain a large military establishment for many years to come; and

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, many of the young people entering military service will be coming from our churches and out of our church families;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, September 28 to October 3, 1956, that we call upon our churches to—

1. Take steps to formulate and carry out a program that will better prepare the youth of the church to meet exigencies and temptations of military life.
2. Maintain a close and fraternal relationship with the youth of the church while they are away from home in military service.
3. Earnestly endeavor to meet the needs of those returning from military service and seek to integrate them back into civilian life with the least possible spiritual, moral and economic disruption of their lives.

Encouraging Continuance of Fraternal Visits Between Churches of the United States and Russia

The Committee on Recommendations recommended approval of Resolution No. 70 revised as follows:

WHEREAS: The exchange visits of American and Russian Churchmen under the auspices of the National Council of Churches have been a hopeful first step in re-building bridges of understanding with other peoples of the world, and

WHEREAS: The purposes of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in U. S. A. were

1. To make manifest the spiritual fellowship which all Christians have in Christ,
2. To exchange views respecting the life and work of the churches in the United States and the Soviet Union,
3. To increase mutual understanding between the peoples of the two countries and thereby advance the cause of world justice and peace,

BE IT RESOLVED: That the International Convention of Disciples of Christ assembled at Des Moines, Iowa, September 28 to October 3, 1956, commends the National Council of Churches for initiating exchange visits between American and Russian Churchmen, and urges further exchanges of this nature be considered to the end that bonds of friendship and understanding shall be strengthened; and by this process we may contribute to the lessening of tensions throughout the world.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be sent to the National Council and the State Department.

Inasmuch as the home is the foundation of civilization, the nation, and the church, and because it has been weakened by many forces and trends in modern life; and because these trends have endangered civilization, the nation and the church;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the 1956 Assembly of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, refer to the Department of Religious Education of The United Christian Missionary Society for study and implementation the following six proposed services in the area of Family Life:

1. To study conditions and trends in family life today,
2. To seek to discover the effect of modern life on the family,
3. To discover ways and means to improve family solidarity,
4. To recommend ways to safeguard children from the tragedy of broken homes,
5. To recommend methods and procedures whereby the home and church may strengthen each other while cooperating in the training of children and youth for Christian work,
6. To develop procedures for building strong Christian homes throughout our church membership.

Resolution—No. 72

Park Avenue Christian Church, New York City, in 1960

The Park Avenue Christian Church of New York City is the oldest congregation with continuous existence of the Brotherhood of the Disciples of Christ. For 146 years this congregation has celebrated the Communion of the Lord's Supper every Sunday without exception. For the last eleven years, the congregation has occupied the beautiful Gothic building at 85th Street and Park Avenue. The church is in a unique position for bearing witness to the mission and strength of the Disciples of Christ in an area where our people have never been well known. It is situated near the location of the Inter-Church Building of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America, and where the National Boards of a number of the major denominations have their headquarters.

This congregation has provided a church home for many Disciples of Christ who have moved into the New York area from every part of the country, and incoming and outgoing missionaries have had their first and last fellowship with their Disciple brethren in this congregation. The program of services offered by the church to the community is being greatly and effectively extended along with similar programs of comparable churches representing other major denominations. The parish buildings adjacent to the church are inadequate for the church school and the continuing program of the congregation. Plans are now being made to provide adequate room for the enlarged program.

Since the cost of the program itself is a strain on the resources of the local congregation and because the providing of necessary facilities will call for major capital expenditures,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, from September 28 to October 3, 1956, encourage the Park Avenue Christian Church of New York City to plan boldly for the celebration of the sesquicentennial of the church in 1960.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the International Convention recognizes the important place that the Park Avenue Christian Church holds within the Brotherhood of the Disciples of Christ, and

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Convention approve the plans of the Park Avenue Christian Church to present its program and its needs to interested individuals throughout the country, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention suggest that churches throughout the Brotherhood inform their members about the significant celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Park Avenue Christian Church in the year of 1960.

Resolution—No. 73

Concerning Clarification and Responsibility for the Publication of the Disciples of Christ Year Book

WHEREAS the Year Book of the Disciples of Christ is a Brotherhood publication in which the total life of the Disciples of Christ is interested, and

WHEREAS the publication of this volume, developed for many years by The United Christian Missionary Society, was assumed by the International Convention as a natural and logical assignment at the time it became a functioning organization under full-time executive leadership, and

WHEREAS the International Convention in assuming responsibility, inherited the traditional methods and policies which had governed its formation and publication, resulting in the fact that many principles and policies require review and study in relationship to new plans and broader cooperation, and

WHEREAS the Board of Directors of the International Convention has been keenly aware of the need for restudy of the philosophy, authority and responsibility in connection with the publication of the Year Book as a recognized function of the Board of Directors, and

WHEREAS the Home and State Missions Planning Council has discussed this matter and has recommended the setup of a special study committee by the International Convention for the purpose of clarifying all of the involvements in the work of editing and publishing the Year Book by the International Convention,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Des Moines Assembly of the International Convention be requested to authorize the appointment of a representative Brotherhood committee to study, for purposes of clarification, the philosophy, authority and responsibility of the Disciples of Christ Year Book, as a recognized function of the Board of Directors.

Concerning United States Census Listing of Christian Churches

The Committee on Recommendations recommended approval of Resolution No. 74 revised as follows:

WHEREAS, the United States Census Listing of Religious Bodies does not now list the title, Christian Church, and

WHEREAS, our national and state missionary societies use the term Christian Churches—officially, unofficially, or by way of explanation, and

WHEREAS, most of our Brotherhood churches are known as the Christian Church and since many, not using the term officially, are so called unofficially by the members and non-members alike, and

WHEREAS, this is an age when 20% of our membership is moving annually, there is a dire need in our Brotherhood for a uniform church name in order to eliminate confusion and loss of membership among our people, and

WHEREAS, we are called upon frequently to explain our Christian Church connection with the Disciples of Christ,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention of Disciples of Christ assembled at Des Moines, change its name to the "International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ)."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the officers and directors of said Convention be authorized and directed to take the necessary steps immediately to effect this change.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all of our churches be urged to use the designation "Christian Church" as the name of the local church.

Report—No. 75

Report of Consultation on Implementation of Resolution 74 Adopted by the Portland Assembly of the International Convention, 1953

Resolution 74 was referred to the Interim Committee of the Council of Agencies for guidance as to procedure for implementation. The Interim Committee requested that authorized representatives of the International Convention, the United Christian Missionary Society, and the Christian Board of Publication take the initiative for convening a consultation on mass media of communication composed of representatives of the various brotherhood agencies which might have a specialized interest in the proposals in Resolution 74 and in the problems connected with them.

Accordingly such a consultation was convened in St. Louis, Missouri, beginning at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 27, 1956, and adjourning at 4:30 p.m. on May 28. Fifteen agencies were represented.

Reports were received from the Broadcasting and Films Commission of the National Council of Churches, the Department of Public Relations of the International Convention, the Audio-Visual Department of The United Christian Missionary Society, and the Christian Board of Publication.

Many items were raised for consideration and at the conclusion, the Consultation approved a recommendation for the creation of a commission or some other type of continuing inter-agency committee to consider the various problems raised and to suggest solutions for them. The three agencies: the International Convention, the United Christian Missionary Society, and the Christian Board of Publication were requested to receive this recommendation and proceed with implementation with the International Convention to take the initiative in convening the representatives of the three agencies.

It was also agreed that this report would be presented to the Council of Agencies for information and that the Recommendations Committee of the International Convention should be advised of progress.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

The committee representing the above-mentioned three agencies would consider chiefly the type and nature of the Inter-Agency Committee or Commission which would undertake to find answers to the various problems raised. These problems include among others what agencies would be specifically responsible for each aspect of the total program; the Disciple financing of the Broadcasting and Film Commission; areas of cooperation interdenominationally, and how these enterprises can be financed; relationships with local Councils of Churches; how to make local churches aware of and to encourage them to use the present and future facilities available to them; how and in what areas should Disciples of Christ engage in production; and the problem of training non-professional technicians. The above list is not meant to be conclusive but merely represents some of the problem areas.

Respectfully submitted,

Resolution—No. 76

Application of the Disciples Peace Fellowship for Membership in the International Convention of Disciples of Christ

The Executive Committee of the Disciples Peace Fellowship has carefully reviewed your helpful letter of March 10, Article VI—"Admission of Cooperating Organizations" of the International Convention Constitution, and Resolution No. 37—amendment to Article VI, approved by the International Convention at its Chicago Assembly in 1952.

In compliance with action of the Executive Committee of DPF in its meeting of June 13, 1956, we are now writing to request that the application of the Disciples Peace Fellowship, to become a reporting organization to the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, be filed with the Convention at its Des Moines, Iowa, Assembly, September 28—October 3, 1956.

It is our understanding that this will allow time for the usual study of such applications made by the Convention's Board of Directors with presentation brought to the Convention for action at the time of its 1957 Cleveland Assembly.

With the privileges and responsibilities involved well in mind, we believe that this kind of relationship between our International Convention of the Disciples of Christ and the Disciples Peace Fellowship, an active brotherhood organization and fellowship, can be mutually beneficial.

Disciples Peace Fellowship
T. W. Simer, President

The Committee on Recommendations recommended that the application of the Disciples Peace Fellowship be accepted for consideration by the 1957 Assembly in accordance with the By-Laws of the International Convention concerning applications for membership (shown on page 241 of the 1956 Des Moines Assembly Program Book).

Note: Study procedures will be conducted by the Board of Directors of the Convention during the ensuing year. The application will be presented for action in accordance with the report of the Board of Directors.

Action—VOTED by the Convention Assembly to accept this application for consideration as provided by the By-Laws of the Convention.

Concerning the Cane Ridge Preservation Project

WHEREAS, the old Cane Ridge Meeting-House in Bourbon County, is the birthplace of the older of the two movements which eventuated into our great Brotherhood,

WHEREAS, the Project to build a Superstructure over the old Meeting-House in order that it may be preserved to future generations has been approved by three International Conventions and sanctioned by the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships,

WHEREAS, churches and individuals from 35 states and four foreign countries have contributed approximately $70,000.00 toward the total goal of $100,000.00,

WHEREAS, the Superstructure is now nearing completion,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this International Convention of the Disciples of Christ meeting at Des Moines, Iowa (September 28—October 2, 1956) go on record as again approving the Cane Ridge Preservation Project as worthy of the support of Churches and individuals in our Brotherhood;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention urge all Churches and individuals who have not contributed to this Project to join with the other Churches and individuals whose interest and support have brought the preservation of the old Cane Ridge Meeting-House so near to its completion. This we urge with the hope that when the work is completed later this year, the funds in hand will be sufficient to underwrite the complete expense.

Resolution Regarding the Inclusion of All Races in Local Church Membership

The International Convention Assembly meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio, October 25-30, 1949, received the following resolution which was referred to the Department of Social Welfare for study and subsequent presentation to the Convention.

“WHEREAS, the Leaders of the Restoration Movement started out to restore the New Testament Church in faith and practice, and

WHEREAS, the New Testament Church included people of many races, and

WHEREAS, we have failed to restore this practice in our local congregations,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this Centennial Convention calls upon the local congregations to make inclusion of all races in the membership the first goal of the new century.”

Progress reports of the Department of Social Welfare on the study of this resolution were received at the International Convention in Assemblies held in 1950, 1952, 1953, and 1954.

Action on the 1950 report included: “The Committee on Recommendations recommends that this International Convention Assembly of the Disciples of Christ:

“1. Accepts this as a preliminary report . . . and continues reference of the matter to the Department for further study, action, and report.

“2. Re-affirms the intent and purpose of the resolutions voted by the International Convention of 1946-1947, and 1948 . . . which declare it to be a Christian imperative to remove all racial barriers to full fellowship in the churches of Christ in work, worship, and membership.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

"3. Approves the substance of the resolution presented to the Centennial Convention, that such inclusive fellowship be made one of the principle goals of the churches in this new century. . . .

"5. Urges that special attention be given . . . to the development of effective methods and procedures whereby the goal of these declarations . . . may be speedily and fully realized."

Included in the 1952 report of progress received by the Assembly of the International Convention was this recommendation:

"It was recommended that the Department of Social Welfare set up a representative national committee to give guidance and counsel in the exploration of further steps to be taken. A feature of this program should be a study to determine the extent to which persons of minority groups are now being received into membership of the churches."

The 1954 report on this matter received by the Assembly states:

"The department now reports that a survey is underway, using a questionnaire widely approved by state, national and local church leaders to ascertain present practices of our churches in the United States and Canada in regard to reception of persons of all races and colors into membership. . . . When completed it is believed this survey will give a fair picture of the practices and attitudes of our churches."

The department of social welfare now brings to this Assembly the Report of the Survey of Racial Practices of the Churches of the Disciples of Christ.

REPORT OF SURVEY

Made by the Department of Social Welfare of
The United Christian Missionary Society
January—March, 1955

This Report has been prepared for presentation to the International Convention Assembly of the Disciples of Christ, meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, September 28—October 3, 1956, as part of Resolution "On the Inclusion of All Races."

This survey of Racial Practices was made by the department of social welfare of The United Christian Missionary Society as one phase of a program designed to implement the goal of making all Disciples of Christ churches racially inclusive in membership. This goal was expressed in resolutions passed by Assemblies of the International Convention meeting in 1950, 1951, 1952, 1953, and 1954.

The Survey had for its purpose the gathering of data on the racial practices of the Disciples of Christ congregations and the state and district activities that serve or are supported by these congregations.

The information of this Report was secured through the use of five different questionnaires. This series of questionnaires was prepared by the department in consultation with and review by the following:

The Christian Service Committee of the Home and State Missions Planning Council
The Social Action Commission of the National Christian Missionary Convention
The Religious Education Field Staff
The Christian Women's Fellowship Field Staff
A group of pastors, college and seminary professors and other brotherhood leaders
The Department of Racial and Cultural Relations of the National Council of Churches
The appropriate questionnaire was sent to each of the following groups:

1. Executive Secretaries of State Missionary Societies
 2. State Directors of Religious Education
 3. State Secretaries of Christian Women's Fellowship
 4. Administrative officers of colleges and universities
 5. All churches listed in 1953 Year Book of the Disciples of Christ
- The Questionnaires were sent in the period January—March, 1955.

The Chief Findings of the Survey

1. There are 464 Disciples of Christ congregations that are in some degree "racially mixed." These congregations, located in 40 states, represent 22.6 per cent of those returning questionnaires. They include 3,666 persons of an ethnic background that is different from the majority of the membership. 316 of these congregations have members of two or more races; 148 have members all of one race but have persons of two or more races attending some phase of the church program.

2. There are an additional 997 congregations that say they would welcome a person of another race as a member,

3. There are 191 congregations that say they would not welcome persons of other races as members.

4. Thirty per cent of the questionnaires returned were from churches located in communities that have residents of one race only.

5. Seventeen State Conventions of the Disciples of Christ in 1953 had participants of two or more races. 12 states have persons of two or more races on the policy making boards of the state society, the Christian Women's Fellowship or the Christian Education program.

6. Seven of the 8 Graduate Schools returning the questionnaire report that they had regularly enrolled students of more than one race and each school included at least one Negro student. (Since March, 1955, when this Survey was made the remaining school has enrolled students without regard to race.) 6 of the 17 undergraduate schools reporting had students of all races enrolled. Six other undergraduate schools reported that at that time they had admission policies that would not permit the enrollment of students without regard to race. (At least 3 of these have changed policy since the Survey was made.)

I. Report on Data From State Offices

The questionnaires sent to State Secretaries, State Directors of Religious Education and State Christian Women's Fellowship Secretaries included questions about (1) racial practices of congregations and (2) racial practices and policies of state organizations. This report deals only with the data on (2).

The facilities for state conventions are reported to be open to all races in 15 states; not open to all in 10.

Seven State Societies, 5 State Education Boards, and 6 State CWF's have a minority ethnic group person on the policy making board.

Twenty-two State R. E. Directors and 20 State CWF Secretaries report that all racial groups are invited to participate in activities sponsored by their offices.

The following is a summary of the activities listed as having participants of more than one race in 1953; with the number of states listing each activity:

State Convention—17	Chi-Rho Camp—13
CYF Conference—11	Youth Convention—10
Youth Commission—10	Lab School—7
Adult Conference—5	Program Planning Commission—5
Youth Meets—4	CMF Retreats—3 CWF Workshops—2

II. Summary of Data Concerning Universities and Colleges

26 Questionnaires were sent to the colleges, universities, and seminaries holding membership in the Board of Higher Education.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

III. Survey of the Churches

In January, 1955, 6,652 questionnaires were sent to churches listed in the 1953 Year Book of the Disciples of Christ. A questionnaire was sent to every church listed for which an adequate mailing address could be found.

Questionnaires were returned from 2,051 churches. There were an additional 24 churches that replied by letter or card.

The 2,051 questionnaires returned represent 30.8 per cent of the questionnaires mailed.

The resident membership of the churches returning questionnaires represents 37.3 per cent of the total resident membership of the churches of the Disciples of Christ listed in the 1953 Year Book.

The geographic distribution of the returned questionnaires by region is:

Northeast,¹ 29.8 per cent of those sent;
 North Central,² 29.2 per cent of those sent;
 South,³ 27 per cent of those sent;
 West,⁴ 40 per cent of those sent;
 Outside USA, 17.3 per cent of those sent.

A. Classification of congregations on the basis of racial practice

On the basis of the information on the questionnaires the congregations responding were classified in one of the following categories:

1. Congregations located in communities whose residents are all of one race.
2. Congregations in multi-racial communities that have but one race in church membership.
3. Congregations that have persons of two or more races now in the membership.

Classification 1.

Congregations located in communities whose residents are all of one race.

Six hundred twenty-one congregations, just a little better than 30 per cent of those responding are placed in this classification. The geographic distribution of these churches shows a heavy concentration in the North Central states with 57 per cent of them found in five states—Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri.

Eighteen of these congregations reported that they had once had members of two or more races; 4 of them indicated that this had been prior to the Civil War; 8 of them indicated that the persons of different race had been members until they had moved from the community.

Seven of these congregations report some statement or official action by the church board or elders favorable to the acceptance of all races into membership.

In answer to question No. 10, the replies were:

“If your church has members of one race only, in your judgment, what would happen should a person of another race present himself for membership?”

Welcome	Reject	Tolerate	Welcome Other Than Negro	Non- committal	No Answer
394	17	8	12	65	77

In answer to question No. 12 which asked for suggestions of ways in which the department of social welfare can assist the churches in achieving the goal of this resolution, the replies were: 201 positive suggestions or comment; 24 negative suggestions or comment; 358 “No” or left blank.

Classification 2.

Congregations in multi-racial communities that have but one race in church membership.

One thousand one hundred eight congregations, or 54 per cent of those responding to the questionnaire are in this classification. Geographically, the heaviest concentration is in the South Region where 554 of these congregations are located.

¹States in Northeast Region: New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania.

²States in North Central Region: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, South Dakota, Wisconsin.

³States in South Region: Alabama, Arkansas, Capitol Area, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia.

⁴States in West Region: Arizona, California North, California South, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Washington, Wyoming.

One hundred sixty one of these congregations once had members of more than one race. Thirty of these 161 say that they would not welcome all races into membership at the present time. Fifty-nine of them report that they now have persons of two or more races attending some part of the church program. Of these 161, 131 say that they would welcome persons of any race as members.

In addition to the 59 that once had members of two or more races, there are 93 other congregations reporting that they now have persons of two or more races attending the worship services or the church school.

Forty-one congregations report some statement or official action by the church board or elders that mentions race in some manner. Thirty-three of these statements are favorable, 8 unfavorable to the inclusion of all races in the membership.

In answer to question No. 10—"What would happen should a person of another race present himself for membership?"—the replies were:

589	83	15	66	193	162

In answer to question No. 12—"suggestions of ways in which the department of social welfare can assist churches in achieving this goal"—the replies were: 515 favorable suggestions or comments; 38 unfavorable suggestions or comments; 555 "No" or left blank.

Classification 3.

Congregations that have persons of two or more races as members at the present time.

Three hundred sixteen congregations, or 15 per cent of those responding, report that they now have members of two or more races. These congregations are found in 35 states. The combined resident membership of the 316 is 160,733. They include as members a total of 1,768 persons of ethnic background different from the predominate group in the membership; they also have an additional 1,254 persons of differing ethnic background in attendance. (Chart B)

One hundred forty of these congregations have 300 members or less; 171 have 300 members or more. (Chart A)

Eighty of these congregations report that they first included two or more races in the membership 25 or more years ago; 65 congregations report they first included two races 5 years ago or less.

There are 104 congregations of predominately Caucasian membership that include Negro members. There are 8 predominately Negro congregations that include Caucasian members. Ninety congregations include Japanese; 85 congregations include Indians; 66 include Chinese; and 101 include Spanish-Americans. (Chart C)

Chart D shows the number of churches in each region that have the various ethnic-group combinations. This chart includes the congregations of Classification 2 that have persons of two or more races attending some phase of the church program as well as the congregations in Classification 3.

With only minor exceptions the number of "other" races in these congregations is small. Sixty-seven per cent of them have 1-4 members who are not of the predominate ethnic group; 19 per cent have 5-9 such members; 10 per cent have 10-20 members; and 3 per cent have more than 21 members who are of a different racial group. When we add the persons of different ethnic group attending who are not members it does not change the percentage distribution very much. See Charts E and F.

B. Summary of answers to most important questions of the survey

621 congregations report they are located in communities whose residents are all of one race.

316 congregations report that at the present time they include members of two or more races.

148 congregations report that while the membership is of one racial group, they have persons of other racial groups attending or participating in some phase of the church program.

179 congregations report that while the membership at the present time is of one racial group, they have had at some previous time members of more than one race.

53 congregations report that there has been some official action or statement of membership requirements that refers to race.

1145 congregations report that if a person of another race presented himself for membership he would be accepted.

191 congregations report that such a person of another race presenting himself for membership would be rejected.

716 questionnaires carried positive suggestions or comment and 62 questionnaires carried negative suggestions or comment in response to the request to suggest ways that the department of social welfare can assist the churches in achieving the goal of the 1949 resolution.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS: This Survey, undertaken as one phase of a program by which the goal of inclusive fellowship could be realized, has been completed by the department of social welfare, and the information contained in the Report is made available to the entire brotherhood; and

WHEREAS: This Survey Report provides the best information now available on the racial practices of the Disciples of Christ; and

WHEREAS: In harmony with the referring of this matter to the department of social welfare for continued study and exploration, a Conference on the Disciples of Christ and Desegregation was sponsored by the department in June, 1955. This Conference brought together sixty-five brotherhood agency representatives and ministers to discuss possible next steps toward achievement of our goal.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this Assembly of the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, September 28—October 4, 1956, receive this Report of the Survey of Racial Practices of the Disciples of Christ.

That we urge the department of social welfare to give this document the widest possible distribution. We commend it for study to the churches, agencies, and institutions reporting to the Convention as a basis for moving as rapidly as possible in the direction of the Convention's stated goal of having inclusive membership as one of the principal goals of the churches.

That the department of social welfare be urged to continue its exploration of next steps that might be taken to implement this expressed goal, and that such exploration should follow the general pattern of consultation with a widely representative group that was used in the 1955 Conference on the Disciples of Christ and Desegregation.

Signed:

Department of Social Welfare of The United Christian Missionary Society.

The Committee on Recommendations recommended approval of this study report with the following requests for revision (shown on pages 242-249 of the 1956 Des Moines Assembly Program Book);

1. "Under Chart 'B' the total number of persons in each ethnic group in churches reporting two or more races in membership should be reported."
2. "That an amendment be added under Section III on the Survey of Churches at the close of the first paragraph to read as follows: 'Request was made on the questionnaire that a representative group, minister, layman and laywoman, answer the questions. In the following interpretation it is assumed that their answers represented the opinions of the congregation.'"

Action—VOTED by the Convention Assembly that Report No. 78 be approved as revised above by the Committee on Recommendations.

CONCERNING INCREASED SUPPORT OF THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

WHEREAS, we recognize that the Disciples of Christ (Christian Churches) are not equipped to translate and publish the Scriptures in lands around the world and that we have, as a Brotherhood, joined with other religious groups in working through our American Bible Society in the publication, distribution and translation of the Bible,

WHEREAS, we believe that the Society is carrying on an effective worldwide program in distributing the Scriptures in 176 languages and 28 additional characters: and that the Society fully represents the Disciples of Christ while acting as its cooperative Protestant Bible Agency,

WHEREAS, we recognize that the support of the American Bible Society from individuals and churches of the Disciples of Christ is not in proper proportion to our size as a responsible Brotherhood of 1,800,000 constituents, such support being actually less in 1955 than in 1945,

WHEREAS, the cost of operation of our American Bible Society has increased 187 per cent since 1945 and contributions from other religious groups have increased 131 per cent,

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

109

WHEREAS, the Week of Compassion gifts have helped the Society meet emergency needs—such as in this current year the need for Bible vans in the Philippine Islands—the obligation for supplying the Scriptures must be met by the giving of churches in addition to the Week of Compassion support,

WHEREAS, our own representatives on its Advisory Council are aware of the Society's needs and have concurred in supporting a financial goal for the Disciples of Christ (Christian Churches) of $52,337.00, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that we call upon the churches of our Brotherhood to specifically place the American Bible Society in their budget as a regular missionary responsibility and to increase their support according to their ability, in order that the work of our Protestant Voice in the publication and distribution of the Bible or portions thereof may be carried on around the world and that in assuming our share of the responsibility, we may thereby be "holding forth the Word of Life."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the above Resolution be sent to the State Missionary Societies so that it may be noted as a matter of record, when the missionary budgets of the State Societies are being presented to the several State Conventions.

Chaplaincy Endorsement Commission of the International Convention

Frederick W. Helfer, Chairman, Baltimore, Maryland
620 K of P Building, Indianapolis, Indiana

PURPOSE

The various sections of the military chaplaincy, Army, Navy and Air Forces, with the Veterans Administration Chaplaincy, assign each denomination or communion a quota, based on that communion's strength in the U. S. A. and the required needs of additional chaplains. Standards are set by these organizations such as age, education and training, and general fitness. Our Commission is asked to endorse only such men as shall be representative of the highest quality of the spiritual and moral integrity of our ministry, and to retain such relationships with our chaplains as to be able to withdraw endorsement should any prove unworthy, or be found undesirable for such duty.

ANNUAL REPORT

July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

The Commission operates on a voluntary basis on behalf of our Brotherhood, as a patriotic service to our country. Our responsibility is the approval or disapproval of applications for Ecclesiastical Endorsement or Reendorsement of the Army, Air Forces (including Civil Air Patrol), Navy and Veterans Administration, and the withdrawal of Ecclesiastical endorsement should a chaplain prove unworthy; to select the highest type chaplains possible for spiritual ministry to the men and women in the various branches of the Military and the patients and personnel in the Veterans Administration Hospitals, and to maintain Brotherhood ties with our chaplains in this most challenging ministry.

Committee on Selective Service Status of Ministerial Students of the International Convention

ANNUAL REPORT

July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

Harlie L. Smith, Chairman
George Earle Owen
Morris H. Pullin
Kenneth E. Thorne
Jay Calhoun, Secretary

The Committee on Selective Service Status of Ministerial Students of the International Convention was created to give guidance and assistance to ministerial students who need deferment from military training in order to study for the ministry.

During the past fiscal year this committee corresponded with 109 young men in regard to securing their IV-D status of deferment. In a number of instances this involved correspondence with local, state and national Selective Service boards.

The following procedure, based on United States Selective Service requirements, is recommended for securing deferment. Selective Service requirements make it necessary:

1. That the candidate sign a life commitment card stating his intention to go into full-time vocational Christian service.

2. That he obtain three copies of the following statements: (a) an affirmation from his local church that he is known to be a candidate for the ministry and that the church recommends him for deferment, (b) a letter from the college he is now attending or will attend stating that he is registered as a student, (c) a statement from a recognized graduate school of religion stating that he is pre-enrolled as a ministerial student.

The candidate should give the first copy of each of these statements to his draft board, the second copy of each should be sent to the above-named committee and the third copy is for his file. On receiving the three statements and life commitment card the Committee on Selective Service Status of Ministerial Students grants a certificate of recognition to the young man and sends a copy of the certificate directly to his Selective Service board.

In emergency cases the committee stands ready to appeal to Selective Service for young men who have met these requirements and for one reason or another have not been granted IV-D status.

A leaflet entitled "Selective Service Requirements for Young Men Planning to Enter the Ministry" may be secured without charge from the International Convention office, 620 K of P Building, Indianapolis 4, Indiana.

Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships of the International Convention

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Colorado Springs Assembly of the International Convention, 1923, approved a resolution calling for "the appointment of a permanent Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships to which shall be submitted all the budgets of the cooperating agencies. When such budgets shall have been reviewed and approved by the Commission, they shall be recommended to the churches. Full report of the actions of this Commission shall be made to the succeeding International Convention for its review and approval. . . . We further recommend that this Commission shall consist of twelve members, none of whom shall be an employee of any of the cooperating agencies. . . ."

It was recommended "that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships, when appointed, shall ask the cooperating agencies to be governed in submitting their budget askings by the following principles:

"1. Budget askings should be based upon the needs of the field, and cooperating agencies may accompany all proposed budgets with statements and surveys to support their askings."

2. It was recommended "in the case of emergencies or crises arising within the fiscal year affecting any of the cooperating agencies, that a special session of the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships, in conjunction with a special session of the Administrative Committee of the International Convention, may be called at the expense of the agencies asking for such a meeting."

The Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships has functioned each year since 1923. The wisdom of constituting this Commission has been demonstrated through the universal acceptance of the guidance of the Commission by all agencies reporting directly or indirectly to the International Convention; also by the churches who recognize that appeals for funds for causes which have been approved by the Commission have been studied and carefully weighed as to their relative importance. Thus, good balance has been maintained in the solicitation and expenditure of funds contributed by local congregations for the total work of the Disciples of Christ.

ANNUAL REPORT

J. Clifford Shirley, Chairman

Presiding during the Annual Meeting, March 6-9, 1956—J. Clifford Shirley.

Present: Commissioners J. Clifford Shirley, William L. Jones, Monroe G. Schuster, Garth Henrichs, Charles Severns, George E. Hicks, J. Clinton Bradshaw, Herbert L. Andrew, Homer W. Carpenter, Edward S. Moreland, M. M. Hargrove, Fred Henderson, Executive Secretary Gaines M. Cook, Recording Secretary Gertrude Dimke.

Prayer—Homer W. Carpenter.

Presentation of 1955 minutes, Executive Secretary Gaines M. Cook.

VOTED approval of the minutes of the 1955 Annual Meeting.

Assignments were made to five sub-committees to study reports as filed with the Commission.

Report on progress concerning capital fund campaigns approved in 1955.

VOTED confirmation of request of Council on Christian Unity for $1,000, equipment fund, previously approved by mail vote.

VOTED confirmation of approval of request from the Mississippi Christian Missionary Society to raise $3,000 between May 1, 1955, and May 1, 1956, for the establishment of a new church in Jackson, Mississippi. This had been previously approved by mail vote.

Hearings

A. Oregon Student Foundation. Report of Charles H. Addleman, on previously approved capital funds campaign for a two-year period in the amount of $54,494.98, to be concluded June 30, 1957, indicated that no funds had been raised during the past year, although some liquidation of debt on Student Houses at Corvallis and Eugene had been made through funds contributed for the general work. The report indicated that a request would probably be made next year to renew solicitation.

B. The Oregon Christian Missionary Society. Request for solicitation of $25,000.00 for the year closing June 30, 1957, for new churches.

VOTED approval of the capital askings campaign requested above.

C. Christmount. Report by Walter A. Davis, Vice-President. Request continued for $35,000 per year for a two-year period (total, $70,000) for the erection of new buildings and improvements. This includes the repayment of a $5,000 short-term loan on the present building. The report also indicated $16,750.15 outstanding unpaid on lots. Two hundred additional lots are available for sale. Present building on grounds consists of 7 houses, Aldridge Hall, and 10 aluminum cottages.

VOTED approval of $70,000 funds for buildings and improvement campaign, $35,000 per year for two years.

D. Cane Ridge Preservation Project. Rhodes Thompson, representative, reported. The report indicated progress on construction with total receipts of $63,602.32 including a bank loan of $17,700. Disbursements total $63,078.04, including payments on construction, promotion, notes and interest. Balance in the account was $524.28. Total expenditures and balance, $63,602.32. Amount of unpaid pledges $6,256.24 with saleable literature of $2,000 to total $8,256.24. It is estimated that $37,000 will be needed to complete the project.

VOTED approval of the request to extend the period for solicitation of a total of $100,000 for the Cane Ridge Preservation Project to June 30, 1957.

Note: The Commission specifically urges that a progress report be made to the Budget Commission by December 31, 1956, and that every possible effort be made to complete the entire solicitation and payment of funds by that date. This extension is made in light of the death of Dr. Robert M. Hopkins, which curtailed the completion of the campaign earlier. Other campaigns should have right of way. Therefore, it is imperative that the total solicitation and collection be completed by June 30, 1957.

E. Butler School of Religion. Dean O. L. Shelton presented a statement regarding needs and possibilities of the School of Religion in light of demands for church leaders among Disciples of Christ. Supporting data were given to show that present facilities of the School of Religion are inadequate from the standpoint of buildings, faculty and endowment, to meet the needs which a growing Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ will require. The specific request is for $1,400,000 for the current year, to be used as follows:

|----------------------------------|-----------|
| a. Additions to present building | $400,000 |
| b. Dormitory-apartment building | 500,000 |
| c. Endowment | 500,000 |

This is to be solicited from individuals and not from church budgets.

Note: An announcement was made concerning the proposed request for 1957-59—$1,500,000 and for 1960-65 of $2,100,000, to be used for new buildings including dormitories, new library, union building; also endowment. This information was filed "for information only" and is not part of the current request.

VOTED approval of the request for $1,400,000 to be solicited from individuals for the needs stated above (additions to present building—dormitory-apartment building—and endowment).

VOTED to approve the announcement of a ten-year effort by Butler to raise a total of $5,000,000 with the clear understanding that no action is taken for the approval of more than $1,400,000 for 1956-57.

Note: The School of Religion is to be notified that with reference to capital campaigns all askings subsequent to 1959 should take into consideration a proposed campaign for new church development in the decade beginning, 1960.

COMMISSION ON BUDGETS AND PROMOTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS
ANNUAL REPORT

F. The Disciples of Christ Historical Society. James E. McKinney, representative, presented a request for a continuation of a previously approved campaign for $50,000 for equipment to be used in the new Historical Society Building. This campaign was previously approved for $25,000 for the year ending June 30, 1956; $25,000 for the year ending June 30, 1957.

VOTED reconfirmation for the total approved capital askings of $50,000 for the period ending June 30, 1957.

G. Purdue Christian Foundation. C. A. Underwood, Director, presented a request for the extension of time to make collections on the approved campaign for $10,000 until December 31, 1956.

VOTED approval.

H. Northwest Christian College. A communication addressed to the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships contained the following report on the previously approved continuing campaign to secure funds to erect a library building.

Funds available for erecting Library Building,
July 1, 1955	$ 71,333.01
Funds received during the period July 1,
1955, to January 31, 1956	45,684.36
Total funds available for building as of
January 1, 1956	$117,017.37

The original plans for the proposed library building called for a structure estimated to cost $202,300. Subsequent enlargement of plans now call for a building to cost $255,000.

In view of these facts Northwest Christian College requests approval of a continuing campaign to secure from churches and individuals of the Northwest (Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Utah) funds sufficient to complete this structure. The specific request is for a campaign of $80,000 during the period February 1, 1956, to June 30, 1957.

VOTED approval of the above campaign for $80,000 to be completed by June 30, 1957.

VOTED to approve the askings of the Week of Compassion Committee for $525,000 in 1957.

VOTED approval of the efforts of the Pension Fund to continue the promotion of the Week of the Ministry so far as there may be financial consideration, recognizing that so far as calendar clearance is concerned the Budget Commission has no jurisdiction. The dates approved for 1957 are October 13-20.

VOTED approval of the following action submitted by the Commission on Brotherhood Finance with regard to the proposal known as "The Unified Program of the Christian Churches of Kentucky."

"The Commission on Brotherhood Finance has considered the request submitted on behalf of The College of the Bible, Transylvania College and the Kentucky Christian Missionary Society, to raise in Kentucky $220,000.00 (to be divided 32.5%—College of the Bible, 42.5%—Transylvania College and 25.0%—Kentucky Missionary Society) over and above regular giving during the year July 1, 1956, to June 30, 1957, and the same amount plus 10% during the year July 1, 1957, to June 30, 1958.

"The plan for raising these funds is designated as the Unified Program of the Christian Churches of Kentucky. The position of the Commission on Brotherhood Finance with regard to this plan was expressed in its report made in March, 1955, to the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships.

"Since the Study Committee set up to consider this plan has not completed its task this Commission gives tentative approval to the foregoing request submitted on behalf of the College of the Bible, Transylvania College and the Kentucky Christian Missionary Society for one year from July 1, 1956, in the hope that the the study committee will conclude its report within that time."

VOTED that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships request a progress report from Kentucky agencies in Unified Promotion by December, 1956.

VOTED to confirm the following action taken by the Commission on Brotherhood Finance re a request from the Kentucky Christian Missionary Society.

"To deny the request of the Kentucky Christian Missionary Society to campaign for $250,000 over a two-year period from individual gifts and pledges. This money was to be used for a conference ground and for a new office building."

VOTED that the following names be submitted as nominations for members of Unified Promotion to be elected by members of Unified Promotion, Inc., Disciples of Christ, in March, 1957, for a three-year term (to expire in 1960) after they have been approved by the Assembly of the International Convention in Des Moines, 1956:

The Commission on Brotherhood Finance submitted the following action for consideration:

"To recommend to the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships that they call to the attention of the various agencies the fact that all present and future campaigns for capital should be terminated as of June 30, 1959, in view of the program for new church development which will begin at that time."

In response to this action the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships took the following action:

VOTED that we acknowledge receipt of the recommendation of the Commission on Brotherhood Finance relative to present and future capital campaigns, and have given it careful consideration. In light of our understanding of campaigns already under way, we feel it necessary to take the following action:

VOTED approval of the following statement as a message from the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships to all agencies reporting to the International Convention of Disciples of Christ.

A statement by the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships relating the changing world scene to agency program planning and budget promotion.

For the past year we have been made conscious of the fact that we are living in a world that is in the midst of revolution. It is all too easy for us to assume that such revolution is taking place only in foreign lands.

Those who have read the book published by our Home Missions Department, The Church in a Changing America (if it has not been read a copy should be secured and studied carefully), have been shocked into realization that we in America are in the midst of a revolutionary situation.

We have been saying that in missions we must gear our concepts of the world mission to this changing and emerging condition. Just so, we must gear our efforts in America to the needs of the hour that is now upon us. And in doing this, we do not feel that we must be bound necessarily by patterns of operation that came into being in former years simply for the sake of preserving a pattern. It may well be that this pattern will have to be changed if progress is to be made in meeting the needs of such an hour.

When we review the situation we must remember that during the "depression" of the 30's we were forced to curtail our work in America, and in foreign countries work and properties deteriorated. Almost upon the heels of this came World War II, which prevented our correcting the conditions that had resulted from the depression.

Following the war, when we took an inventory we discovered needs involving a sum of money that to a people without an adequate sense of stewardship was staggering. We reduced the sum, but not the needs and launched an effort to secure a larger sum. We were only partially successful, but we learned a lesson.

We changed the pattern of the distribution of funds from percentages to the "basis of need." We took another inventory of minimum needs and discovered once again that we were faced with a very large sum.

The Commission on Brotherhood Finance was commissioned by the agencies to allocate funds on the basis of need to the best of its ability. This, it has done. It has been a heart-breaking experience for the members of that Commission. For example: the United Christian Missionary Society makes an asking of actual needs—not luxuries, but need. The Commission is forced to grant a budget somewhat lower than the asking, knowing all the time that actual needs will go un-met. The needs of all the agencies have been accumulating over this period of years since the 30's. They have been partially met by the Crusade and by the stimulation of an emphasis on stewardship that has accompanied the Long Range Program. But added to these accumulated un-met needs of former years are those that have been occasioned by this rapidly changing world scene, in which America is no exception.

It is our conviction that this is an hour which calls for Christian statesmanship that will not feel that it is bound to a pattern if in sober judgment and mutual agreement it finds that pattern no longer adequate—A statesmanship that upon such discovery will establish new patterns for this day and which will anticipate the morrow—A statesmanship that upon discovery that the present patterns are adequate but in need of implementation, will develop that implementation.

The Commission is aware of these rapid changes in our work and in American society, and feels that our church agencies and organizations would be well advised to keep our Long Range Plans flexible so as to take advantage of the new tendencies and developments with proper timing in order to get the full effect of the impetus of these new trends and tendencies.

VOTED that an expression of appreciation be extended to Miss Gertrude Dimke, Recording Secretary, and Dr. Gaines M. Cook, Executive Secretary, for their assistance to the Budget Commission.

VOTED that an expression of appreciation be extended to Mr. Glenn Lacy, Research Director, and to the Commission on Brotherhood Finance.

VOTED that the statement regarding the retirement of Chairman Dean J. Clifford Shirley be approved and made part of the record.

March 12, 1956

My Dear Dean Shirley:

It is my great pleasure to set down in writing a statement which I made to the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships during the closing period of our recent meeting. Now, for years, your service as Chairman of the Commission has brought us all the greatest satisfaction and confidence.

Your keen and discerning mind, your considered and balanced judgment, your intelligent and sympathetic ruling, your fine and timely sense of humor and your statesmanlike comprehension of our great Brotherhood movement, have combined to make you the Ideal Chairman.

For all of this, every member of the Commission is deeply grateful to you and the institution from which you come. Your generous investment of time has made possible this great service, through you, to our entire Brotherhood.

The fact that your term as a member of the Commission is expiring is a matter of extreme regret, for us all. When that term has ended, there will be a "lonesome place against the sky." Thank you, Dean, for all that you have done for the Commission and for all you mean to each of us.

With the most cordial good wishes, in which I am sure every member of the Commission joins me, I am

Very sincerely yours,

HOMER W. CARPENTER, Vice-Chairman

The following were elected as officers and members of the Executive Committee for the ensuing year:

Chairman	Homer W. Carpenter
Vice-Chairman	M. M. Hargrove
Member of the Executive Committee	J. Clinton Bradshaw

Adjournment.

Respectfully submitted,

J. CLIFFORD SHIRLEY, Chairman

National Association of State Secretaries

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The National Association of State Secretaries is a professional fellowship of State Secretaries and the Secretary of the All-Canada Committee. It should be distinguished from a national association of State Missionary Societies inasmuch as it is not involved either financially or organizationally with these Societies.

The purpose is stated thus in the constitution of the Association: "The object of this Association shall be to promote fellowship, to acquaint one another with the methods of work employed in the different states, to promote the efficiency of the work for which its members are responsible. To co-ordinate programs and plans of work for state missions, to assemble reports of work actually done through the State Society, to present the same to the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, in the religious press of the Brotherhood, and in these and other ways to bring upon the Brotherhood life the impact of the total work of State Missions."

The State Secretaries Association meets annually to discuss problems of mutual interest, and to share experiences of the various Secretaries in the administration of their work of state missions. This organization raises no money except for expenses incidental to the work of its officers, such as printing, correspondence, reports to the Annual Program Book and Year Book.

Through this Association representatives are nominated to the various agencies, councils and committees where representation of the State Secretaries is indicated.

One of the outstanding values of this Association is to be found in the opportunity for fellowship and personal acquaintance of the Secretaries themselves. These men have many common problems, and in the administration of their work, share common ideals as servants of the churches. Through the Association they are enabled to speak with a common voice on matters of Brotherhood policy in which they have earned the right to become well informed.

At the annual meeting of the Association, national Secretaries whose programs are related to the State Secretaries' office are invited for consultation.

The National Benevolent Association of the Christian Church

J. Eric Carlson, General Secretary

16th Floor, Landreth Building, Fourth and Locust Streets, St. Louis 2, Missouri

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

In February, 1886, a group gathered in St. Louis, Missouri, to discuss the problem of the orphaned baby and the aged men and women of the Christian churches. Gradually a plan took shape, and on March 10, 1887, an organization was formed, a charter secured, and the National Benevolent Association of the Christian Church was born. The purpose, as set forth in the Charter, was: "To help the helpless, to give a home to the homeless, to provide care for the sick, and comfort for the distressed."

From that beginning 70 years ago, 16 NBA Homes have grown—7 for children and 9 for aged. As it was never the intention of the NBA to centralize its work, these Homes developed from coast to coast where the need existed and the money was available.

Nearly 1,400 persons are served annually, and about 25,000 have been given Christian care since 1887. Other thousands, whom these NBA Homes are not equipped to serve, have been directed to other agencies. Each year about 900 children live in our 7 NBA Homes because they have lost one or both parents by death, were victims of broken homes, were wards of the juvenile courts, abandoned children, foundlings, or children born out of wedlock. 6 NBA Homes for Aged are totally dependent upon our churches for full support. 2 NBA Homes, dedicated in 1949, require partial church support for aged pensioners, retired full-time Christian workers, and a few able to pay for their care. Faithful members of the Christian Churches, past 70 years of age, in a state of health acceptable to the Admissions Committees of the Homes, and who are without sufficient means to live elsewhere may become residents of the NBA Homes for Aged. They pay an admission fee of $100 or $150 for a couple, bring what they have, and the church supplies what they lack. 492 were served last year. The Christmas Offering of the Brotherhood has been designated for these 16 NBA Homes.

Many doctors across the country contribute their valuable services to the various homes. The immediate oversight of each Home is committed to a Board of men and women, members of the churches in the Area where the NBA Home is located. Over 360 pastors, laymen and women serve on our 15 Home Boards. The National Benevolent Association, with headquarters in St. Louis, is the administrative body for the various Homes and members of the NBA Board of Trustees are approved in open assembly of the International Convention.

The Sixty-Ninth Annual Report July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

The service report covers the twelve-month period, May 1, 1955, through April 30, 1956.

The total number of persons served is the largest ever reported—1,622. Of this number 1,014 were children, 558 were older members of our churches, and 50 were mothers, for the most part unwed mothers, who found help in a time of need. There were 124 children under NBA supervision in foster homes or away at college. Each of these persons received total care so long as they remained under the supervision of the Homes. There were 741 applications for service to children which could not be acted upon favorably, in most instances because these children required services the Homes were not equipped to render. These were referred to other agencies. There were 44 adoptions completed. There were 76 children in high school, 262 in grammar school and 261 preschool children. There were 10 in college. There were 188 children returned to relatives. Forty-seven children united with the church.

Among the 558 senior citizens served during the year, 173 have no near relatives; 287, or more than one-half the total, are past 80 years of age; 38 are past 90 years of age; 10 are totally blind; 20 are confined to wheel chairs, and 31 are partially or totally bedfast. There are 18 retired ministers; 26 are ministers' widows, and 4 are retired missionaries. Total years of church membership represented in these Home families is 24,651, or an average of 44.8 years. In these families 85½ per cent are women.

As of April 30, 1956, there were 103 approved applicants whose names were on the waiting lists and the California Christian Home has the names of 100 persons who have expressed a desire to enter that Home, but formal applications have been deferred until such time as it appears likely they could enter the Home within a period of twelve months to eighteen months.

There are now fifteen Homes in operation, and on June 10, 1956, ground was broken for the sixteenth, a new Home for senior citizens at Edmond, Oklahoma.

The children who live in seven Homes for children of the NBA attend public school, a local Christian Church and Church School. Elderly residents, as they are able, attend a local Christian Church; for those who are unable to do so, an afternoon service of worship including the observance of the Lord's Supper is held each Sunday afternoon in the Home.

Maintenance receipts for the year ending April 30, 1956, totaled $898,928.36. The Christmas offering, which provides about one-half of the total maintenance receipts, amounted to $488,673.15. Gifts by bequest totaled $196,157.24, and new annuity gift agreements amounted to $49,946.67. The largest contribution for maintenance from a single congregation came from the East Dallas Christian Church in Dallas, Texas, and amounted to $18,041.94.

4,265 congregations participated in the support of Benevolence as carried on by the NBA. Many churches and groups make significant contributions of food, clothing and services during the year. While material contributions are important to our work, our greatest need is for cash to pay such bills as utilities, maintenance of equipment, insurance, doctors and salaries.

Significant achievements during the year include beginning of a new Home for older people at Edmond, Oklahoma. Actual construction is in progress and it is anticipated the building will be completed by January 1, 1957. The Emily E. Flinn Home at Marion, Indiana, is completing its building as originally designed by the architect. When completed and furnished, the capacity of this Home will be increased to about 75 or more than three times its capacity when the enlargement program began. The completed building was dedicated on August 26, 1956.

In November, 1955, the new bedside-care building was dedicated at the Illinois Christian Home. A section of this new building has been equipped as a chapel, which is a most important feature for the happiness of the residents. The service which this building is equipped to render will meet a growing and very urgent need among senior citizens.

Plans have been developed for the observance of Benevolence Emphasis Year in the Brotherhood Long Range Program, July 1, 1957, to June 30, 1958. A sound motion picture in color will be available to our churches during the year. It will be produced professionally, will be 28½ minutes in length and will depict total Benevolence as carried on by the NBA. Sufficient copies will be made for the widest possible use. To show the movie in your church, contact the Benevolence Home in your Area, the Area Representative, or the National Office of the NBA.

A bedside-care unit for the aged is in construction at the Fowler Homes in Dallas, Texas, and it is anticipated it will be ready for occupancy early in 1957. Plans have been drawn for construction of a residence for employees at this Home also.

Because of an expanding program at the California Christian Home in a rapidly growing Area, the NBA has employed an Area Representative to give full time contacting the churches and individuals in that area. We were fortunate to secure the services of Mr. W. Lawrence Wells, a well-known minister among our California churches, to serve in this important post. He began his work on January 1, 1956.

Mrs. Blanche Jenkins of Newton, Iowa, has been called to serve as Superintendent of the Ramsey Memorial Home at Des Moines, Iowa. She began her work on June 1, 1956. She was formerly President of the State Christian Women's Fellowship in Iowa.

Many of the children of these Homes have earned unusual distinction in their school work and we are very proud of them. Each one of the older folk in our Homes has rendered loyal, devoted service to the church during his or her active years. Through the NBA our churches have an opportunity to unite their efforts to provide care for needy children who have a prior claim upon their generosity and older folk who have reached the later years needing security, Christian love, understanding and companionship.

This is a growing work and represents a significant contribution by the churches toward the solution of the problems of needy children and older persons in their most helpless years.

Because of the needs to be found in these age groupings, we urge our church leadership to become thoroughly familiar with the resources within their own communities which can be called upon to help meet the needs.

To everyone who has shared in the support of this ministry of mercy and compassion, our sincerest appreciation. We covet your prayers, interest and continuing support on behalf of the residents, children and aged, whom we serve.

AUDITOR'S OPINION

To the Board of Trustees of The National Benevolent Association of The Christian Church

THE NATIONAL BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1956, and submit herewith balance sheet at June 30, 1956, and revenues and expenditures statement for the year then ended.

The Association's investments in bonds, stocks, and other securities are carried on the balance sheet at cost without determination of market values at June 30, 1956. Data on file in support of church receipts, bequests, trusts, and other revenue received by the Association were test-checked but we did not communicate directly with individuals and organizations to confirm the amounts recorded as received.

Cash funds in the custody of the Treasurers of the Homes and the receipts and disbursements of same are included in the accompanying statements based on monthly reports received by the Association from the Home Treasurers, but investments made and managed by officers of the Homes and in their custody are not included in the accompanying statements. The scope of our examination of such cash and investments was limited (except for those Homes which we ourselves audit) to an analysis of the Treasurers' reports and a review of the reports of independent auditors received to-date from Homes.

Investment in fixed assets, described on the balance sheet as "Investment in Homes' Property" and contra-account "Permanent Funds" are carried at values of appraisals made many years ago plus subsequent additions at cost less estimated depreciation. The total shown is subject to increases and decreases which might be brought about if current appraisals were made, uniform in base and applied to all Homes.

In our opinion, subject to the exceptions stated in the preceding paragraphs, the accompanying balance sheet and statement of revenues and expenditures present fairly the financial position of the Association at June 30, 1956, and the results of its operations for the year then ended.

Yours very truly,

MARE AND COMPANY
Certified Public Accountants

The National Christian Missionary Convention

Emmett J. Dickson, Executive Secretary
222 South Downey Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The National Christian Missionary Convention is a fellowship of Disciples of Christ, Christian churches, and Churches of Christ. The Convention was organized in Nashville, Tennessee, August, 1917. Preston Taylor of Nashville, Tennessee, was convener and organizer, and became the first president. Many of the brotherhood boards sent representation to give their support and encouragement to this Convention. The Convention serves more than 500 churches of its own constituency with congregations in 27 states of these United States.

The Convention has made progress during the years and it now has the full cooperation of all the brotherhood agencies and boards.

The Constitution and By-laws of the National Christian Missionary Convention states the following purpose and function:

It shall be the purpose of this organization to cooperate in the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; to promote the causes of evangelism; to foster and maintain a program of Christian education, missions, and benevolence among the Christian churches of the brotherhood; to perform such general supervisory functions as the best interest and work may require; and to cooperate with the International Convention, The United Christian Missionary Society, Unified Promotion and other brotherhood agencies and boards or movements for the furthering of the world program of the church, and to work with other religious movements chosen by the brotherhood.

To promote a closer spirit of cooperation and fellowship among our own churches.

To provide a large opportunity for the development of leadership and responsibility for building the Kingdom of God.

To provide a cooperative medium of self-expression and development that our best contribution might be made to the work of the church in the world.

To provide a medium through which we can interpret the needs and concerns of our people.

To provide an organization through which our churches can participate officially in brotherhood activities.

To provide a channel for intergrating the members of our churches into the total life of the brotherhood.

The National Christian Missionary Convention is the program channel by which the planned program of the brotherhood may reach all the churches.

ANNUAL REPORT

THE YEAR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION—THE CHURCH IN A CHANGING AMERICA—brought great improvement in the churches of the National Christian Missionary Convention. State committees on Christian Education were elected in all state conventions. There were six Ministers' Institutes, eight Young People's Conferences, four Chi Rho Camps, five Christian Women's Fellowship Institutes, three Planning Conferences on Christian Education and eight rallies for The Christian Men's Fellowship.

The Active Commissions made good reports for the Annual Session of the Convention in Kansas City. The Convention appointed a Re-study committee to evaluate the place and work of the National Christian Missionary Convention in Brotherhood life. The findings from the Conference on Desegregation held in Cleveland, Ohio, have been studied and sent to a special committee for report.

The "Year of the Ministry" will be our challenge for the new year.

National Christian Missionary Convention
Disciples of Christ
Indianapolis, Indiana

We have examined the statement of cash receipts and disbursements of the National Christian Missionary Convention, Disciples of Christ, Indianapolis, Indiana, for fiscal year ended August 10, 1956, verified certain invoices and checked other accounting records and vouchers to the extent and by means we deemed necessary. Our examination included tracing of cash receipts to deposits in bank (except cash spent during 1955 Convention), verifying certain requisitions with checks and checking returned checks for proper endorsement, signature of maker and amount. Cash in bank ($358.35) as of August 10, 1956, was confirmed by direct correspondence with the depository. Our audit did not include an examination of all the transactions.

It is our opinion that, except for cash disbursements made at the 1955 Convention, this statement presents fairly the cash receipts and disbursements as shown by the books and accounting records of the National Christian Missionary Convention, Disciples of Christ, for fiscal year ended August 10, 1956.

Thomas Circle, Washington 5, D. C.

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

Recognizing the extreme importance and value of a church representing the Disciples of Christ in the heart of the Nation's Capital, the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ, meeting in Memphis, Tennessee, brought into being as a Brotherhood institution the National City Christian Church. Alexander Campbell himself had expressed his keen desire for such a National Church, and other great leaders who followed him saw the desirability of having the Brotherhood establish this church, which would not only be a symbol of the strength and purpose of the Disciples, but would also be a home for the thousands of Disciple young people who through the years would come to Washington to work for the Government of the United States, and would later return to their home churches.

Following the action of the International Convention, a Corporation with a board of fifteen trustees, was set up to hold the property of the church for the Brotherhood, and lots were purchased on Thomas Circle in Washington for a Sanctuary and an Educational Building. Construction was begun in 1928 and the Sanctuary was completed and dedicated in October, 1930. About 40,000 Disciples of Christ across the country made contributions and pledges for the Brotherhood's church in Washington, and several leading families made substantial gifts. However, because of the depression of the 1930's, many of the pledges were never paid, and in 1933 the debt on the Sanctuary was $640,000. Getting the debt paid was a tremendous struggle, but through the strenuous efforts of the ministers of the church, the local congregation which gave most sacrificially, the contributions of the Christian Board of Publication, individuals, and the churches of the Brotherhood the mortgage on the Sanctuary was finally burned in April, 1950.

For twenty years, while the Sanctuary building was so heavily mortgaged, the congregation of the National City Church had to use for their educational, social and community programs buildings erected in 1881, and located a block and a half away from the Sanctuary. Immediately upon the burning of the mortgage on the Sanctuary, a campaign was started to complete the original plans for the church to erect an educational building immediately adjoining the Sanctuary building. Ground for the new building was broken in May, 1953, and on November 7, 1954, the Alexander Campbell Educational Building was occupied.

ANNUAL REPORT July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

The National City Christian Church Corporation suffered the loss of two outstanding leaders during the last year. At the very beginning of 1956 Mr. Thomas W. Phillips, Jr., of Butler, Pa., died, and one week later Mr. Oreon E. Scott, of St. Louis, Mo., passed to his reward. The members of the Corporation were greatly shocked and distressed at the passing of these two great leaders. Thomas W. Phillips, Jr., had been a member of the National City Christian Church Corporation for many years and, along with the members of his family, had given very liberally to our work in the Nation's Capital. He was a man of tremendous dedication to the Cause of Christ and he was a natural leader of men. Mr. Oreon E. Scott was president of the Board of Trustees of the National City Christian Church Corporation and he had rendered long and faithful service to the work of that organization. Under his inspired leadership the indebtedness on the main church building was wiped out—this in itself was a Herculean feat—and the beautiful new Educational Building was erected. May God bless the memory of these two wonderful men is our prayer.

Dr. John H. Davis, professor of Harvard University, was elected president of the Board of Trustees of the National City Christian Church Corporation on May 5, 1956. Dr. Davis was formerly Assistant Secretary of Agriculture for the United States Government and he was an elder in the National City Christian Church during his period of residence in Washington. He has been a member of the National City Christian Church Corporation for many years and he is thoroughly conversant with the work of that organization. New members recently added to the Board are Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson of New Castle, Pa., and Dr. Wilbur H. Cramblet of St. Louis, Mo.

The Alexander Campbell Educational Building which was formally dedicated on December 5, 1954, opens great new vistas of opportunity for the Brotherhood's National Church. The new building has been called by many outside of the local congregation the finest church educational building in Washington, D. C. Oreon E. Scott Hall, furnished by Mr. Scott as a gift to the church, is one of the most beautifully appointed social halls in the churches of the Brotherhood. It has a seating capacity of 700 in rows of chairs and 450 in tables, with a kitchen containing the most modern hotel equipment available. Phillips Chapel, of charming colonial design, can seat 120 and is ideal for small weddings and worship services. L.N.D. Wells Parlor, the Foster Memorial Library, the Memorial Room, the Ettie F. Andrews Communion Room have all been furnished through memorial gifts. In addition the building contains an assembly room seating 250 people, two small pullman kitchens, a bride's room, a music room, a projection room, workshop, costume room, cloakroom, living quarters for a full-time host and hostess, four offices, three nurseries and sixteen classrooms.

The front of the building is lined with Indiana limestone, matching the Sanctuary building, and the entire architectural design of the building is in harmony with the beautiful Sanctuary which has become one of the landmarks of Washington.

A Director of Christian Education has been added to the staff of the church and the attendance of the church school has increased twenty per cent in less than one year. The community program is being rapidly expanded; the work of the church with young people is taking on new life; and the adult department of the church school has shown a promising increase. The horizons are unlimited.

The cost of the Educational Building and equipment was $650,000, of which $400,000 has been raised. The Trustees of the National City Christian Church Corporation negotiated a loan of $250,000 to complete the payment. The indebtedness on the Educational Building as of this report is $236,000. At present the debt is being reduced at the rate of $14,000 a year. It is the hope of our leaders that a large part of the debt can be wiped out at one time as a result of a special drive for funds which will be launched sometime within the next few years. The local congregation has in the past and will continue to shoulder a large part of the responsibility for the debt, but this is the Brotherhood's church, owned by the Brotherhood, and administered by the Trustees of the National City Christian Church Corporation for the Brotherhood.

It is our hope at National City Church that all Disciples of Christ who come to Washington will visit their National Church. Our ever constant aim is to serve the Brotherhood and our Christ in Washington, the cross-roads city of the world.

The National Evangelistic Association of The Disciples of Christ

Newell M. Hall, President

Vincennes, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The National Evangelistic Association was launched at old Bethany Assembly in Indiana by Charles Reign Scoville and other prominent evangelists, including J. V. Updike, S. M. Martin, J. H. O. Smith, and J. V. Coombs. In the early 20's, Dr. Scoville joined with state secretaries C. W. Cauble and G. I. Hoover of Indiana, H. H. Peters of Illinois and Jesse M. Bader, then a highly successful evangelistic pastor, in sponsoring a series of evangelistic institutes in strategic areas. For many years the Association worked through the United Christian Missionary Society. More recently, it has become a separate agency reporting directly to the International Convention.

The purpose of the National Evangelistic Association is in the field of fellowship and inspiration rather than promotion. By means of a convention, held just prior to the International Convention, stirring addresses on evangelism inspire pastors of local churches to greater accomplishment in winning men to Christ, and those who have been particularly successful as evangelists share their methods and spirit with others. In this way the National Evangelistic Association strives to make the business of evangelism the first business of the church of Christ.

ANNUAL REPORT

The National Evangelistic Association exists for the purpose of becoming a rallying point of fellowship and inspiration for all in the Brotherhood who see the overwhelming responsibility of the church in evangelism. It is not an agency to conduct evangelistic meetings. It does not have facilities to discover evangelists and singers for the local church, neither does it maintain an approved list of such workers. The National Evangelistic Association implements its purposes largely through a convention which meets just prior to the International Convention. In 1954, the convention met at Miami, Florida. At this meeting the leading evangelistic preachers among us were given opportunity to inspire our people to greater zeal in telling the gospel story, and those who have had outstanding success in all fields of evangelism shared their experiences toward the end of improving and making more effective the evangelistic program of the local church. The National Evangelistic Association sustains a working relationship with the Department of Church Development of the United Christian Missionary Society and reports to the International Convention. Membership in the Association is open to all who pay annual dues of one dollar.

Respectfully submitted,

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that I have examined the financial records of the National Evangelistic Association for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1955, and ending June 30, 1956.

It is my opinion that the June 30, 1956, balance of $154.26 is correct, and the financial report accurately reflects the existing records.

Sincerely yours,

Pension Fund of Disciples of Christ

Hollis Lee Turley, Executive Secretary
800 Test Building, Indianapolis 4, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Pension Fund binds together some 5,000 ministers, educators, evangelists, chaplains, missionaries, state and national executives and approximately 7,900 churches in the support of the ministry in old age, death, and total and permanent disability.

The Pension Fund operates the Pension Plan, the 1919 Pension System and Ministerial Relief. It maintains an Additional Benefits Department for the ministry, enters into annuity agreements, receives bequests from wills, and administers gift money. Further, it invests the funds received, pays benefits, and conducts a Christian business organization for the benefit of the church and the ministry. All work is carried on under the policies laid down by the Trustees, and approved by the International Convention.

The promotion and operation of the Pension Plan is the largest single responsibility of the Pension Fund. Under the Plan, member dues are 3% of the monthly salary; church dues are 9%. Churches, large and small, participate, with the larger churches helping to carry a part of the load for the smaller ones that every minister might be protected. As of December 31, 1955, there are 4,660 members supported by 5,099 church or organization accounts.

Retirement pensions are paid to members who retire after age 65. Disability pensions are paid those who become totally and permanently disabled. Widow and minor child pensions are paid when the member dies in retirement, disability or active service. There are 1,203 pensioners under the Plan as of December 31, 1955.

Many of the pensions paid today are small, due to short periods of membership, the lack of church dues, and the meager salaries of the depression years. Because of the increased cost of living, supplemental checks are issued each quarter to some 760 pensioners. These checks have been made possible by gift money received largely from the offerings of the churches. The Pension Fund shares in the money given to the causes of the brotherhood through Unified Promotion.

TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT

January 1, 1954, to December 31, 1955

(Sixtieth of Ministerial Relief—Twenty-fifth of Pension Plan)

- I. 60th year of Ministerial Relief—organized 1895.
Ministerial Relief continued in needy and worthy cases with 134 served during 1955.
- II. 1919 Pension System—established January, 1919.
The 1919 Pension System was closed to membership June 30, 1928. Of the original 881 accounts there remained 38 active paying members as of December 31, 1955, and 349 receiving pensions.
- III. Pension Plan—began operation January 1, 1931.

Membership

In 1955 there were 501 new 9% dues accounts started by churches and organizations in behalf of their ministers and employees, and 300 new members who began paying their individual 3% dues. As of December 31, 1955, there were 4,660 active members and 1,203 beneficiaries, a total of 5,863 covered by the Pension Plan. The member accounts were supported by 5,099 church, college, and organization accounts.

Claims

During the year 1955, there were 24 deaths among active members, 7 new cases of total and permanent disability and 68 age retirements. Among total disability cases there were 2 deaths and 1 where health was regained and the member returned to active service. In the age retirement pension group, there were 40 deaths and 6 ministers who returned to active service. Deaths among the active members and pensioners left 11 minor children and 53 widows as beneficiaries.

Auditor's Certificate

Board of Trustees, February 20, 1956
Pension Fund of Disciples of Christ,
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Gentlemen:

We have examined the accounts and financial records of the Pension Fund of Disciples of Christ for the year ended December 31, 1955. Our examination was made in conformity with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

Our examination did not include a review of the actuarial basis of the pension plan, upon which an independent report is made by the Pension Fund's consulting actuaries.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of financial condition presents fairly the position of the Pension Fund of Disciples of Christ at December 31, 1955, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

We found that the Pension Fund's accounting records were well kept, and were adequate for the preparation of the accounting and statistical information required by the administrative staff of the Fund.

Yours very truly,

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

Unified Promotion is an agency through which boards reporting to the International Convention (and voting to cooperate) appeal unitedly to the local churches for the support of their work.

The purpose of Unified Promotion is:

- to inspire our people regarding the total Christian enterprise.
- to mobilize the total strength of our brotherhood for the proclamation of the gospel to the whole world.
- to eliminate both the fact and the spirit of competition in the promotional approach of the agencies to the churches.
- to avoid overlapping of effort by the correlation of the facilities and the personnel of the existing agencies.
- to serve the local church through a stewardship program of education, the provision of stewardship plans, and the preparation of stewardship materials.
- to assist the local church through making available plans and materials for the enlistment of every member for the support of the current expense and missionary budgets.

The request for this united procedure came from the churches through a resolution passed at the International Convention Assembly at Wichita in 1931. This resolution called for the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships to hold a conference of the representatives of agencies reporting directly or indirectly to the convention for the consideration of improved promotion.

This conference was attended by seventy-five persons. A continuation committee was appointed and in subsequent meetings the plan of Unified Promotion was developed.

The suggestions were approved in principle at the Pittsburgh Convention in October, 1933, and the detailed plan was approved by the Des Moines Convention in October, 1934. It was put into operation July 1, 1935, after fifty-three agencies had voted to participate.

ANNUAL REPORT OF UNIFIED PROMOTION

July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

I. "We Press On"

After closing the first five years of the Long Range Program with a gain of 81.082% over June 30, 1950, "We Press On" was selected as the theme for the new missionary year. If the Christian movement is to make progress there must be continued effort by the churches. It is required in climbing the mountain if the summit is to be reached.

When consideration is given to the lowered purchasing power of the dollar the gain is reduced from 97.31% to 83.71%. The only way to bridge this dangerous chasm is to press on. The very nature of the Christian Church compels it to "Press On" to the maximum of achievement in the work of Christ.

II. Twenty-one Years of Service

On June 30, 1956, Unified Promotion became of age since it completed twenty-one years of service. It has been a period of continued progress. During these years there has been a growing devotion by the churches to the mission of Christ at home and around the world. There has been a readiness to face a changing world with vision and self-giving.

III. The Procedure

1. The ministers and other leaders of the churches and their organizations have been interpreters of the theme and program to the total church as basic in its program. Also, there has been dependence upon the same leaders to promote doubled giving and doubled service in the decade of the fifties.

2. The promotional program of the year has been planned, launched, and executed in the spirit of the theme.

3. The secretary of the State Missionary Society in states cooperating in Unified Promotion has served as the state director of Unified Promotion. The state secretaries of the Christian Women's Fellowship, the area Directors of Religious Education, and the heads of agencies or institutions in the state or area participating in Unified Promotion have served as representatives of Unified Promotion and have worked in cooperation with the state director of Unified Promotion.

In each state cooperating in Unified Promotion there is a state committee which has rendered effective assistance in the spirit of cooperation. It was elected by the state convention. In many states the state committee on Unified Promotion has been expanded.

The executive secretary of Unified Promotion has worked in very close cooperation with the leaders on the state level.

IV. Christian Stewardship:

A Brotherhood of Trustworthy Christian Stewards.

The development of Disciples of Christ into a Brotherhood of trustworthy Christian stewards has been made the objective of all stewardship efforts. This seeks to make each individual Disciple a trustworthy steward that he may have the blessings of divine partnership and effective churchmanship. It seeks to lead every church into trustworthy stewardship in relation to its members and to the world task of the kingdom. This would make possible a Brotherhood with great power and adequate resources to fulfill its responsibilities. Unified Promotion, through the Director of Stewardship, has carried the responsibility of preparing the program and materials for stewardship education and commitment in local churches.

"We Press On in Christian Stewardship" was the theme for the stewardship program for 1955-56. This recognized the "Year of Stewardship 1954-55" as but the launching of an enlarged and continuous program of stewardship. This continuing effort to achieve the great objective of trustworthy stewardship was proposed under three divisions.

1. "We Press On" with Thorough Stewardship Planning.

Stewardship has become recognized as one of the major functional programs of the church. The manual and materials furnished by Unified Promotion offered to the Stewardship Department of the local church suggestions for planning the stewardship program for the entire church. A large and growing number of churches planned effectively with the result that their churches grew in stewardship understanding and practice.

2. "We Press On" in Aggressive Stewardship Education.

It has been recognized that stewardship must be taught, if Christians are to become trustworthy stewards. An extensive program of stewardship education was offered, using every means available. This included stewardship sermons, teaching in the church school and all organizations, Schools of Stewardship, stewardship literature and audio-visual aids. There are many reports of churches with effective stewardship education, resulting in greater stewardship of life and possessions.

3. "We Press On" in Stewardship Commitment.

Stewardship principles mean little unless put into practice. Therefore, there was furnished to each church suggestions for committing its members to the full stewardship of life, time, talent and possessions. The church program provided for the consecration of life and the right use of time and talent. It also provided for definite commitment to financial stewardship in worthy support of the church's work, local and world wide. The program provided for a strong presentation of tithing. Christian tithing has proved a great blessing to a large number of Disciples and to the Kingdom. "Make Christian Tithing the Norm, Rather than the Exception in Christian Giving" has been suggested as a worthy aim for the local church.

V. Special Days

Unified Promotion has the responsibility, assigned by the International Convention, for the promotion of the observance of the three Special Days: Thanksgiving, Easter and Children's Day.

1. The objective for the observance has been two-fold: (a) educational, and (b) to secure offerings for the support of the cooperating causes.

2. In the course of the year, the work and needs of each cause participating in Unified Promotion have been presented in the study materials prepared for use in the classes of the Sunday school and for general distribution within the churches. Materials were prepared for different age-level groups, with the purpose of creating growing concern and unifying the interests of the total church in the work of the Brotherhood.

3. Offerings received for the cooperating causes were credited (unless otherwise directed) as regular giving and applied on the goals suggested by Unified Promotion.

4. Progress has been made throughout the Long Range Program, both in the number of churches ordering materials for the observance of the Special Days, and in the amount of offerings received.

- a. In 1949-50, orders for material for the three days totaled 6,810, while in 1955-56 the total was 9,408.
- b. In 1949-50, the offerings for the three Special Days amounted to $432,296.86; last year the amount received was $715,560.61.
- c. Six years ago, 1,616 churches had standing orders for materials; currently the number has increased to 3,097.

VI. Every Member Enlistment

1. Every Member Enlistment

a. Informs the Members

A realization that the times are so exacting of spiritual resource, that churches which are content with less than half of their members actively enlisted, face utter collapse or failure.

When a person confesses his faith in Jesus Christ as his Savior and accepts Him as Lord, he has enlisted in the Christian movement and has accepted responsibility for its growth in all the world and in every area of life. How can a beginner succeed in such a venture without information?

The Every Member Enlistment is the plan whereby every member of the congregation is to be acquainted with the program of services and activities of the church. When a program has been developed by the pastor, the church board, and the functional committees, every member deserves to have information regarding it if he is expected to become a part of the activity. The program of the church locally needs to be interpreted to the membership in an effective manner.

Also, every member has a right to be informed regarding the world outreach of the church. The attainments in the activities of the Brotherhood need to be presented to every member. How else can a member of the church become concerned about the outreach causes?

b. Mobilizes the Members

The primary purpose of the Every Member Enlistment is to strengthen the loyalty of the membership, the acceptance of a larger sphere of service on the part of every member, and the deepening of the spiritual life of the whole church. So great an effort as the Every Member Enlistment, reaching more people than any other contact of the church, is a means of building up spiritual power.

In other words, by an effective program of Every Member Enlistment, the giving of present givers increases, and non-givers become givers. Our task is to bring to every member in the church a spiritual vitality that will find expression in a consistent and worthy overflow of Christian service and money.

c. Provides the Money

It is a tested plan. Through forty years in churches of all types it has been demonstrated sufficiently that the Every Member Enlistment, when carefully planned and thoroughly carried out, is the most effective method of underwriting the budget of the local church and every phase of the church's task in its program of world outreach.

With rare exception, the churches which have been successful in respect to both local expenses and missionary contributions have been those which conduct a thorough-going Every Member Enlistment year after year. Without adequate funds the program of the local church languishes, and the outreach of the gospel is shortened.

There are ample funds in an average congregation to provide for the growing work of the church at home and abroad. Those funds need only to be discovered and enlisted, through information, organization, and persuasion, for the church to have all the money it can use wisely.

These are the reasons Unified Promotion has promoted a program of Every Member Enlistment as a service to the church.

2. Cooperation

a. Unified Promotion has cooperated with the movement known as Religion in American Life. This emphasis came in November and aided the churches and their members in that month for the financial support of the program of the church at home and around the world.

b. Unified Promotion cooperated in the United Church Canvass and has encouraged the churches of cities or towns or counties to make their appeal for funds simultaneously.

VII. Publicity

Unified Promotion has received generous and helpful cooperation from the state and national publications for the regular program, including Special Days, stewardship, and the cooperating causes.

These publications have provided an effective channel for carrying the story of the work to a large percentage of the constituency. In addition, advertisements have been published in the state and national papers concerning the program of the year.

There is a very real sense of appreciation for this cooperation of the publications of the Christian Board of Publication, the World Call, the state papers, and a number of bulletins.

The Ministers' Bulletin has been issued each month in behalf of the program.

The secular press has manifested an important interest in the affairs of the church. This has been very helpful.

VIII. Field Cultivation

1. The contacts of the representatives of the cooperating agencies with the churches have been a vital part of the field program.

2. The state directors of Unified Promotion and the state representatives have served devotedly during the year in the interest of the local church and its world causes. These workers have been indispensable in the promotion of church program planning, in the making and releasing of financial goals, and in securing goal acceptances, in stewardship, in special days, and in church visitation.

3. Unified Promotion has carried the responsibility for the representation of the cooperating agencies in the state, district, and county conventions. The state conventions have increased in attendance and value each year.

IX. Central Receiving Agency

The churches have the privilege of remitting their offerings to Unified Promotion or to any of the cooperating agencies. The total remittance to the central office has increased gradually. The churches have made their own decision as to whom their remittances have been sent, free from pressure by Unified Promotion or the cooperating agencies.

The cooperating agencies have been prompt in sending reports of offerings which have been remitted directly to them at the end of each month. On or before the fifteenth of each month the central office has made a report of offerings for the month, and distribution has been made of the funds to the cooperating agencies. Each agency has received its full share at least by the end of each quarter. Comparative reports have been issued for many of the months. A statement showing the offerings in each state by churches and organizations has been issued monthly.

X. Commission on Brotherhood Finance

The Commission on Brotherhood Finance has been elected by the assembly of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ at the request of Unified Promotion in order to provide a more satisfactory method of distribution of funds subject to division.

It is the purpose of the Commission to study the budgets of askings of each agency in Unified Promotion and to approve a budget of askings for each year on the basis of needs. The total of such approved budgets of askings is the budget of askings for the year for the agencies in Unified Promotion that is submitted to the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships which reports its decision to the International Convention for action.

The proposed budget of askings for 1956-57 is $4,904,200.00.

XI. Financial Report

A. Additional Gains

During the year closing June 30, 1956, there was an additional large increase in the offerings received by Unified Promotion.

The offerings from the churches, Bible schools, Christian Women's Fellowships, youth and children's groups, and individuals, comprising the amount reported by the cooperating agencies as well as the amount received direct by Unified Promotion, subject to division, totaled $4,238,156.21 as of June 30, 1956, which is 8.96%. The comparison with the results as of June 30, 1950, shows an increase of $2,090,188.67, which is 97.31%.

The churches and their organizations are congratulated on their efforts which made possible this achievement.

D. Certificate of Auditor

The Board of Directors
Unified Promotion, Inc.,
Disciples of Christ
Indianapolis, Indiana

We have audited the accounts of Unified Promotion, Inc., Disciples of Christ, for the year ended January 31, 1956, and have proved the correctness of all account balances as of that date.

We found that all recorded receipts had been deposited in the bank and distributions have been made according to the principles set forth in the by-laws. We also found that expense items have been properly allocated and the funds correctly handled.

In our opinion, the records have been properly kept for the year under review.

Committee on Week of Compassion

Box 5636, Indianapolis 19, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Week of Compassion stemmed from the Brotherhood Dinner observance. The first Brotherhood Dinner was held in 1938. For the first three years no offering was promoted, the dinner being only for fellowship. At the Brotherhood Dinner in 1941 the churches were urged to make offerings for the work of the Churches of Christ Missionary Committee of Great Britain to be used for their foreign mission work. Our British brethren, because of war conditions, were finding it difficult to maintain their missionaries. Five thousand dollars was suggested as the goal. The offering totaled $13,009.66. In 1943 the Committee on Relief Appeals of the International Convention promoted an offering on the occasion of the Brotherhood Dinner to the end that the following causes might be aided: The American Friends Service Committee, the Y.M.C.A. War Prisoners' Aid, the American Bible Society, the Church Committee for China Relief, the Y.W.C.A. World Emergency Fund, the American Committee for Christian Refugees, the Central Bureau for Inter-church Aid and the International Missionary Council Orphaned Missions Fund. The offering totaled $36,728.47.

Sensing the necessity of continuing and expanding the work of the Committee on War Services, covering the 8% pension dues of Disciple chaplains serving in the Armed Forces and the inadequacy of our Brotherhood's response to the emergency causes cleared through the Committee on Relief Appeals, the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships of the International Convention authorized an effort, to be known as the War-time Service Fund, to raise $250,000.00 for these causes. As a part of this effort the first Week of Compassion was held in February, 1944, with the Brotherhood Dinner as a part of the week's observance.

The Purpose is to:

- express the deep concern of Disciples of Christ in the projects of ecumenical fellowship and service.
- create an awareness regarding the military and veterans services including encouragement and assistance to chaplains.
- alert Disciples of Christ to a keen appreciation of their responsibility to those in distress in other lands and to enlist their support to the greatest possible extent in order that the material benefits of these projects may be widespread, alleviating homelessness, illness and despair without regard to race, color, or creed.
- develop the Christian values inherent in the work of relief, reconstruction and rehabilitation, not only in the Christian response to acute human need, but also in the inevitable strengthening of Christian witness around the world through this sharing of possessions in the spirit of Christ.
- bring about a greater understanding and realization of the brotherhood of all the children of our Heavenly Father and to generate among the peoples of the nations a mutual trust and an international friendship of people upon which alone can be built a solid structure of world unity and world peace.

ANNUAL REPORT July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956I. Procedures

The 1956 Week of Compassion was observed February 19-26. The observance was continued because of the continuing responsibility of Disciples of Christ to alleviate the physical and the spiritual needs of humanity in a world troubled as an aftermath of war, to meet the needs of military and veterans services, and to share in ecumenical fellowship and services. The nature of the problems of people around the world naturally places a responsibility upon Disciples of Christ.

The theme was "Care and Share," and its spirit permeated the promotion and the observance of the Week of Compassion.

The Week of Compassion was observed on behalf of the Committee on Relief Appeals of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, the Committee on Military and Veterans Services, and the Pension Fund for Reserve Chaplains' Pensions. Each of these groups presented their askings to the Committee on the Week of Compassion. As a result of study of these requests, the minimum financial goal of $498,730.00 was approved.

By the request of the Week of Compassion Committee and the assembly of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, the promotional responsibility was carried by Unified Promotion.

One Great Hour of Sharing was jointly promoted by a number of Protestant bodies. Disciples of Christ, as well as some other groups, received their offerings at an earlier date, and gave token cooperation. This observance was a united voice of ecumenical and Christian sharing.

The contributions from the churches totaled $489,180.91, which was a gain over last year of $15,039.64 and $50,704.31 over June 30, 1954.

II. Special FeaturesA. Fellowship With Our British Churches

The Churches of Christ in Great Britain needed encouragement. They faced a serious shortage of ministers due to wartime losses. Lack of evangelistic leadership has caused a drastic decline in church membership. The British Home Missions Committee pointed out that a fraternal ministry could help to build up the churches.

In response to the suggestion of the British Home Missions Committee, three pastors and their wives have been sent to Great Britain for three years to assist our British churches in a definite program of church development. This project has been supported from Week of Compassion funds to the extent of nearly $25,000.00.

B. Share Our Surplus

Through the "Share Our Surplus" program foods from United States surplus stocks have been made available by our government to religious and other voluntary relief agencies and have been distributed free to hungry, ill, and destitute people overseas. The Week of Compassion has provided nearly $50,000.00 for this purpose.

C. Ecumenical Services

Disciples of Christ have shown their interest in ecumenical services through their offerings to Week of Compassion. Malcolm McCallum has been supported in ecumenical services in Egypt with headquarters in Cairo.

A new church building has been made possible on the island of Zante, where there was great destruction as a result of earthquakes three years ago. Disciples of Christ have paid for the erection of the building and the people have paid for the furnishings. Also, in Yugoslavia a seminary has been furnished with cots and mattresses for the dormitory. About $35,000.00 has been used for such services.

D. Self-Help Projects

One of the most encouraging results of the Week of Compassion offerings has been self-help projects. For example, trade schools have been conducted in an effort to help young people to have trades and thus become able to support themselves and others. $30,000.00 of Week of Compassion funds have been allocated to such projects.

III. Distribution of Funds

Following is a list of the distribution to those interests included in the approved askings:

A. Committee on Military and Veterans Services	$106,814.91
B. Committee on Relief Appeals	356,373.39
C. No allocation to Pension Fund for Pensions for Reserved Chaplains because adequate funds were already on hand.
D. Promotional Expense	24,492.61
E. One Great Hour of Sharing	1,500.00

Committee on Relief Appeals

(From Week of Compassion Receipts)

C. O. Hawley, Chairman

Box 5636, Indianapolis 19, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The first Committee on Relief Appeals of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ was appointed at the assembly held at Richmond, Virginia, in 1939.

The purpose of the committee is to deal with the various appeals coming to Disciples of Christ for assistance in times of distress and destitution in the war-torn areas of Europe and Asia in work of relief, rehabilitation, and reconstruction. This purpose is being realized through cooperation with Church World Service, an agency created for such service by several Protestant bodies.

In carrying out this purpose the program has shifted according to the changes of the crucial needs of humanity, both physical and spiritual. It has received from the churches generous support through the years. It has received its funds from the Week of Compassion.

II. Material Aid

Appeals to the Brotherhood for material aid to devastated areas has been under the direction of the Department of Social Welfare of the United Christian Missionary Society through mutual understanding with the Committee on Relief Appeals. Mrs. Ruth E. Milner, National Director of Social Welfare Services, is in charge of this task. From July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956, approximately 21,099 pounds of our churches' service gifts of material aid were shipped to Belgian Congo, Africa, Philippines, Japan, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Germany (Hilfswerk-Protestant Relief Agency at Stuttgart), and to the Disciples' Chaplains in Korea, as well as to the home missions institutions, migrant people, and other worthy causes in the United States. The material gifts included hundreds of layettes, clothing of all kinds, sewing materials, school items, shoes, soap, and simple medical remedies. These were gifts from women's groups, church school classes, youth and children's groups. These bulk shipments were in addition to material aid given by members of Christian churches in community efforts, sent through Church World Service.

Cooperative relationships have been maintained with CARE, CROP and Heifer Project, Inc., for the promotion of gifts in kind, heifers and goats, for devastated areas.

III. Ecumenical Team Workers and Fraternal Work Campers

In May, 1956, William C. Maxon replaced Parker Rowe on The Greek Team. He is a graduate of Oklahoma A and M in agriculture and will be in Greece for two years.

Six young people received scholarships which enabled them to attend ecumenical work camps abroad.

Three foreign students were brought to the United States to participate in Stateside camps receiving full support from Week of Compassion funds.

IV. Refugee Resettlement

Appeals to the Brotherhood for participation in the refugee resettlement program has been under the direction of the Department of Social Welfare of the United Christian Missionary Society and supported by Week of Compassion funds. Miss Ella L. Williams, Field Representative in Refugee Resettlement, is in charge of this program.

From July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956, more than 750 churches have shown an interest; completed assurances covering 516 people have been received from 186 churches; eighty-two refugees have come to 27 different churches; twenty pre-assurances have been filed by the department to be reassigned to corresponding churches. The assurances cover a job and housing for the refugee, and the churches promise the refugee a loan large enough to pay transportation from New York to place of resettlement and enough to live on until his earnings begin.

Report of Chaplain 9% Dues Fund

(From Week of Compassion Receipts)

Administered by the Pension Fund of Disciples of Christ

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

Since 1942, with the exception of a short period before the Korean War, church dues have been paid in behalf of ministers, who were called into the reserve military Chaplaincy of the Army, Navy and Air Force. The Church dues are paid now for reserve Chaplains who pay their member dues on the salary base of $200.00 a month. Funds for this cause first came from the Emergency Million, but more recently have been provided by a share of the Week of Compassion Offering.

The purposes of the fund are: 1) To provide continuance of Pension Protection for ministers whose civilian ministries have been interrupted by military service in the Chaplaincy. Thus the Chaplains' Dues Fund is limited to reserve Chaplains, and is not for career Chaplains, whose pension and protection benefits are reasonably assured from the Government. Less than one-fourth of the chaplains who have served are career men.

2) To maintain for the brotherhood an unbroken fellowship with those who thus serve.

3) To continue the protection benefits of the Pension Plan in a time when they are especially needed.

4) To assure these chaplains who have set aside a few years from their civilian lives to minister to our youth in camps, hospitals, aboard ships and overseas, that our brotherhood is concerned in the important work they are doing and desires to share in it.

ANNUAL REPORT

Present program of paying Pension Plan 9% dues for Reserve Chaplains on active duty began July 1, 1950. (Dues increased from 8% to 9% July 1, 1954.)

Balance in fund as of June 30, 1955	$30,357.96
Balance of 1955 Week of Compassion offering—received during year ending June 30, 1956	7,193.51
Total	$37,551.47
Total dues paid for seventy-three Chaplains	20,084.65
Balance June 30, 1956	$17,466.82
Dues held in Reserve for possible later claim by Chaplains*	8,000.00
Balance available for future 9% dues from July 1, 1956	$25,466.82

*There are 22 Reserve Chaplains on active duty who are not enrolled in the Pension Plan at present. The experience during World War II was that many, not previously enrolled, later became members and wished to claim dues for their Chaplain service period. Preparation for such action is made in the present situation by carrying this amount in reserve.

Report of Committee on Military and Veterans Services

222 S. Downey Avenue, Indianapolis 7, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

Upon recommendation of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ the United Christian Missionary Society established the Committee on War Services at the beginning of World War II. In 1947 the name of the committee was changed to Committee on Military and Veterans Services. From the beginning the Board of Trustees of the United Society has given broad freedom of action to the committee. Without cost to the committee it has provided all of the general services made available to the various departments of the United Society. The financing of the program of the committee has been dependent, however, upon receipts from the Week of Compassion.

Industrial Defense Community Services -----	9,851.40
National Interdenominational Agencies -----	7,637.00
	$ 83,584.56

III. Chaplaincy Services

The Committee works through a six-phase program in its efforts to meet our Brotherhood responsibility to provide chaplains for our young men and women in military life, and service to the chaplains:

(1) Procurement of Chaplains. During the year the number of chaplains on active duty from our Brotherhood has varied from 121 to 126. With a reduction in armed strength a corresponding fewer number of chaplains has been required. We are over our quota in the Army and Air Force, and are about even in the Navy. Visits are made each year to most of our seminaries by the director of chaplaincy services to acquaint seminarians with the Army and Navy training program to men who look forward to the chaplaincy upon graduation, and to interpret the need for reserve and National Guard chaplains to all interested seminarians.

(2) Maintaining Fellowship with Disciple Chaplains. Mr. Boyd seeks to visit each chaplain in the U.S.A. annually, and the Committee extends this tie to our chaplains throughout the world by similar visits. During the summer of 1955 Dr. Frederick W. Helfer, chairman of the Commission on Chaplaincy Endorsement, and member of the Committee, visited chaplains in Europe and participated in the Interdenominational Chaplains' Retreat at Berchtesgaden, Germany. In May and June, 1956, Mr. Boyd made an extensive tour of the Pacific area, including chaplains in Alaska, Japan, Korea, Okinawa, the Philippines, Kwajalein, Guam and Hawaii.

(3) Disciple Chaplains' Retreats. For several years a retreat pattern in the U.S.A. for all Disciple chaplains, Reserve and Active Duty, has been established in three areas. These retreats provide inspiration, a sharing of ideas, and rich fellowship, and strengthen the relationship with the chaplains and all phases of Brotherhood life. This year the families were also invited. Retreats were held as follows:

Central Area, Selkirk, Ontario, Canada, August 12-15, 1955

East Coast, Richmond, Virginia, April 17-20, 1956

(4) The bi-monthly magazine, "The Disciple Chaplain." It is a mimeographed news bulletin that ranks high in the field of similar publications, well received by our chaplains. It is sent, in addition to all chaplains, reserve and active duty, to chaplaincy services of other communions, armed forces headquarters, chiefs of chaplains, Disciple Colleges and to state offices.

(5) Literature. Chaplains receive as gifts from the Brotherhood subscriptions to World Call, The Christian-Evangelist, Year Book, Pastoral Psychology, and Sunshine Magazine. Also, upon entrance on extended active duty the chaplain receives a leather-bound copy of the RSV New Testament and G. Edwin Osborne's book, Christian Worship, and from time to time other books are sent. The chaplains are also provided with a series of pamphlets for general distribution through their literature racks, produced by the Committee, at a cost or free basis.

(6) Relocation of Chaplains. Upon the return of the chaplains from military duty to the pastoral ministry the Committee cooperates with the director of ministerial services and state secretaries in their relocation in civilian pulpits.

In all this the effort of the Committee is to remind the chaplain that a great Brotherhood is behind him as he seeks to bring a spiritual ministry to the men and women in the Armed Forces, and takes pride in him, in his character, service and sacrifice in this work.

IV. Camp and Defense Community Services

(1) General Program and Counseling Service. The Committee assisted many churches in military and industrial defense areas through the services of C. E. Weber. Mr. Weber met with ministers, church boards, and committees and served as guest speaker for special occasions. He administered the program of financial assistance and field worker services.

(2) Field and Parish Workers. The Committee's two field workers, Miss Margaret Westfall and Mrs. Anita Newsom, were assigned to 15 churches located in military and defense areas. They assisted these churches with personal evangelism and guidance regarding the churches' ministry to military personnel. Church members and in some instances parish workers were trained to continue the program.

During the past year the Committee gave financial assistance for the support of four parish workers, all but the first being part time:

Mrs. Sue Bigbee, First Church, Rantoul, Illinois
Mrs. Frank Davis, Central Church, Columbus, Georgia
Mrs. Olive Graham, First Church, Colorado Springs, Colorado
Mrs. Williard Smith, First Church, Columbia, South Carolina

(3) Financial Assistance. The Committee made support appropriations and capital grants to a number of churches in strategic military or industrial defense areas:

Support Appropriations (amount given is the annual rate):

Colorado Springs, Colorado, $600.00 for support of part-time parish worker.

Homestead, Florida, $1,200.00 salary support for the minister of a new church.

Columbus, Georgia, $600.00 for support of part-time parish worker.

Mountain Home, Idaho, $960.00 salary support for the minister of a new church.

Rantoul, Illinois, $1,500.00 for half the salary of a full-time parish worker.

Bossier City, Louisiana, $1,200.00 salary support for the minister of a new church.

Aiken, South Carolina, $1,080.00 salary support for a new congregation.

Columbia, South Carolina, $960.00 for support of part-time parish worker.

Jackson, South Carolina, $600.00 salary support for the minister of a new church.

Mineral Wells, Texas, $300.00 servicemen's program support.

Norfolk, Virginia, $1,200.00 salary support for the minister of a new church.

Petersburg, Virginia, $260.00 for advertising our church in the post paper.

St. Albans, West Virginia, $600.00 salary support for a small church.

Capital Grants (does not include committed but unexpended grants):

Bossier City, Louisiana, $5,000.00 applied on purchase of church site and $5,000.00 toward the construction of the first building unit of a new church.

Fayetteville, North Carolina, $5,000.00 applied on the construction of the first building unit of a new church.

Jackson, South Carolina, $3,000.00 matching funds to retire the indebtedness of a new congregation.

Hurst, Texas, $5,000.00 applied on the construction of the first building unit of a new church.

V. Interdenominational Cooperation

(1) General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Services Personnel. The Committee maintained membership in and cooperated fully with the General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel. It contributed financial support to the commission in the amount of $7,656.00. Willard M. Wickizer concluded two years of service as Chairman of the General Commission early in the year. Carl M. Boyd and Frederick W. Helfer performed significant committee assignments.

(2) Interdenominational Servicemen's Centers. The Committee continued to support several interdenominational servicemen's centers and programs as follows:

Denver, Colorado, $720.00 for the center sponsored by the Denver Council of Churches and the YMCA.

Protestant Council, New York City, $300.00, for posters welcoming servicemen to the churches of New York (the poster space being provided free).

Seattle, Washington, $750.00 for the center sponsored by the Seattle Council of Churches and the Armed Forces YMCA.

Tacoma, Washington, $750.00 for the center sponsored by the Tacoma Council of Churches.

(3) Cooperative Committee on Ministry to Service Personnel in the Far East. In September, 1954, Willard M. Wickizer visited military installations in the Far East in company with Chief of Chaplains (Maj. Gen.) Charles I. Carpenter of the Air Force and five other ministers. Following this visit a joint committee entitled "Cooperative Committee on Ministry to Service Personnel in the Far East'' was created by the division of foreign missions of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and the General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel to foster a camp community program in military communities in the Far East. The Committee on Military and Veterans Services appropriated $5,000.00 to this joint committee to assist in maintaining such a program in Japan through the Church of Christ in Japan.

VI. Cooperation With Commission on Chaplaincy Endorsement

The Committee on Military and Veterans Services cooperates closely with the Commission on Chaplaincy Endorsement of the International Convention. The chairman of the commission, Frederick W. Helfer, is also a member of the committee and one of its representatives on the General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel. The services of Carl Boyd are contributed by the committee to serve as secretary of the commission.

The United Christian Missionary Society

A. Dale Fiers, President,

222 South Downey Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The United Christian Missionary Society was created by the brotherhood of Disciples of Christ which long had sought a plan of cooperation for its missionary and religious education work. The American Christian Missionary Society, Christian Woman's Board of Missions and the Foreign Christian Missionary Society spent two years of intensive study and planning to prepare a proposed constitution. Modifications were made and it was given wide publicity and full discussion for a year.

In October, 1919, in Cincinnati, Ohio, it was approved by each of the boards and the International Convention. On October 20, the day following the Convention, the constitution was perfected and adopted at a meeting called for that purpose. The election that night of its first Board of Managers, officers and Executive Committee (now Board of Trustees) completed the formal organization. The Society was incorporated June 22, 1920, after careful legal study.

The Code of Regulations of the United Society states the following purposes and functions. "That the world may the more fully come to know Christ, the Son of God; that all men everywhere may increasingly appropriate for themselves His way of life; that a world of Christian brotherhood may be realized, and that the unity of God's people may be achieved, this Society is established.

"To this end the Society shall aid in the preaching of the gospel of Christ at home and abroad; shall create and foster a program of Christian education and training to the end that men's minds may be enlightened concerning the Christian way of life; shall lend encouragement and assistance to local congregations with a view of helping them to become as efficient units of the Kingdom as possible; shall interpret to the world the social implications of the teachings of Jesus; shall advance the cause of Christian womanhood; shall establish and maintain such institutions as schools, institutes, orphanages, hospitals and homes in the neglected areas of the world, and shall engage in such other forms of Christian service as will help to bring in the Kingdom of God, in which His will shall be done on earth as in heaven."

Since the Society began to function, the efforts of Disciples of Christ in missions and Christian education at home and abroad have been coordinated and made stronger by this central organization.

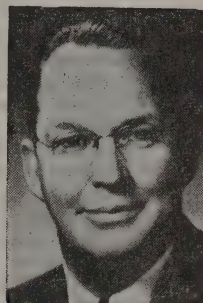

The United Society is a proved instrument. The churches chose it as a way of work. The churches continue to support it. The work continues to move forward.

STUDENT WORK

Send the names of students going to college to the following list of persons who are ministering to Disciples of Christ students in various educational institutions. Home churches and pastors are encouraged to correspond with each center about their own young people who are coming. The type and inclusiveness of the program vary with each place. Not all of the contacts on each campus have been listed and no doubt some campuses with religious programs for Christian Church students have been overlooked. Information about such will be welcomed by the Student Work Office. If no name is listed, check elsewhere in the Year Book for the pastor of the nearest church.

This list is published in the interest of making available Christian guidance for increasing numbers of young people in institutions of higher education across the land. The letters in parentheses designate the position of the person listed. (M) Minister of local church. (SW) Person mainly responsible for student work. (P) Administrative and faculty personnel. (I) Interdenominational personnel. *Indicates appropriation.

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

Executive Statement—A. Dale Fiers, President, Indianapolis, Indiana

The reports of the divisions and departments of The United Christian Missionary Society indicate that the 36th year of the Society's work as an agency of the Disciples of Christ was one of significant progress. Careful consideration of these reports by churches and individuals will provide an inspiring and informative study of the outreach of the churches through the Society in the United States and around the world.

The report of the treasurer shows a satisfactory situation for the year. The total funds administered in 1955-56 amount to $5,115,426.72 as compared with $4,561,220.33 in 1954-55. The net worth as shown in the Combined Statement increased from $9,814,827.06 to $9,969,142.59.

Capital for Kingdom Building provided essential funds for the capital undergirding of the world enterprise, home and foreign, beyond regular budget. The year indicated a heartening increase in the response of the churches. A sum of $255,483.63 was contributed for capital needs during 1955-56, bringing total contributions thus far to $883,573.29. The campaign which has been approved for a total of $2,845,500.00 continues through 1959.

The outreach of the Society in the home land as reflected in the departmental reports, indicates an enlarging range of service to local churches and state and area work. This will be particularly noted in the following:

(1) The area of basic research. The production of study and survey documents in connection with the Long Range Program emphasis, "Our Church in a Changing America"; the analysis of the 1953 Year Book; other related materials, and the enthusiastic response of the brotherhood to these materials indicate there was need for research to provide basic resources for use in carrying out the program of the church at all levels.

(2) The development of the processes of coordination and unification in program planning and organizational structure. The program and structure of the Brotherhood moves with steady pace toward more over-all coordination in both relationships and program. The Society has through its staff and general administration endeavored to serve the increasing needs for consultation and guidance arising from this development.

(3) The production of materials which implement programs cooperatively planned. The Society through its various departments which are related to the Home and State Missions Planning Council, The Christian Education Assembly, and its Curriculum Program Council, devote a major share of time and budget to the production of materials based on these co-operative processes.

(4) Service in terms of personnel. The call for field service among the churches and in the various activities of the state and area organizations has steadily increased. The staff of the Society, as revealed in the report of the resources department, points up the strong ties of personal relationship that exist between the Society and the churches in terms of service rendered through the staff members.

The outreach of the Society on the fields abroad as reflected in the reports of the foreign division indicate a dynamic situation. As in the work at home, the importance of study and research is clearly indicated.

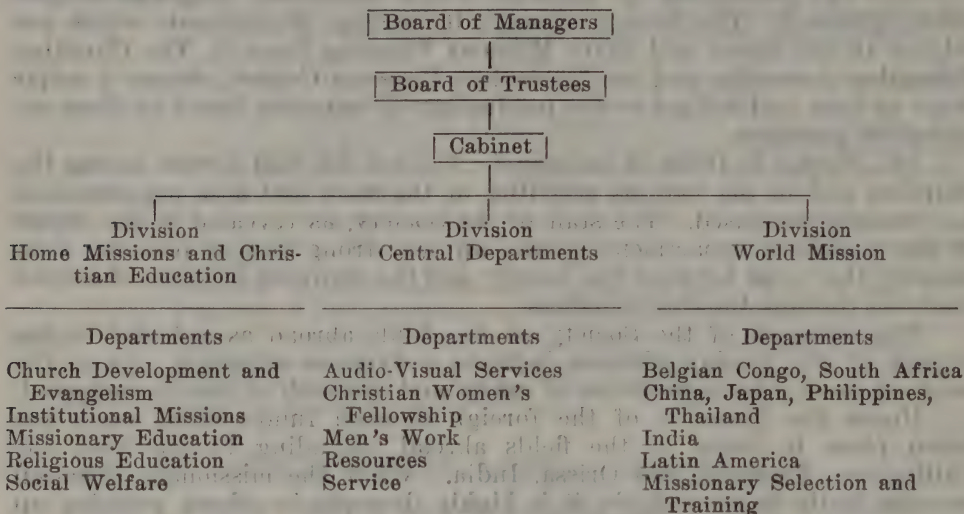

Under the direction of the foreign division fundamental study has taken place in many of the fields abroad, including Puerto Rico, the Philippines, Thailand, and Orissa, India. While the missionary situation remains static in some fields, it is highly dynamic in others, pointing up the necessity of creating fields of priority and the necessity of developing more mobility and flexibility in the implementation of resources and personnel. The policies which have been approved in the Strategy for World Missions are not merely theoretical considerations, but have practical importance for every field in which we labor. The process was begun whereby a member of the foreign division executive staff sits down with the missionaries on every field to discuss in detail the implications of the strategy of world missions. A crucial situation is pointed up by the fact that China is for the most part closed to missionary contact except through the avenue of prayer. The needs on all the fields still far outstrip resources available.

The reports indicate a heartening response to the appeals for both resources and personnel. The response of builders for Congo and evangelistic personnel reflects the effort to meet the needs of the growing church.

A very significant development has been the expansion of the program of the College of Missions. This was stimulated by the generous gift of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Martin of a large summer cottage at Crystal Beach, Michigan, which will be used to house the summer sessions of the College of Missions. George Earle Owen was appointed dean of the College of Missions. The dean and the executive secretaries of the foreign division, Virgil A. Sly, chairman, are responsible for the administration of the College of Missions under its Board of Directors. The College of Missions in no way duplicates the facilities of Disciple colleges and seminaries in the field of missionary training.

One of the most significant achievements in general administration was the approval of organizational adjustments whereby the departments were regrouped into three administrative divisions, namely, the division of world mission, the division of central departments, and the division of home missions and Christian education. The purpose of these adjustments was to bring the Society's structure into line with organizational trends already far advanced in the life of the brotherhood. These changes will make for more effective administration, more effective coordination of the work of those departments which plan and implement programs for local churches, and for more effective liaison between the Society and the planning bodies with which it has relationships. The basic chart setting forth these changes is as follows:

Each division will be headed by an executive chairman who will not administer an individual department, but will have relationship to all departments of the division. These changes were approved to go into effect July 1, 1956.

The executive chairmen of divisions were appointed as follows: Spencer P. Austin, executive chairman of the division of central departments; Willard M. Wickizer, executive chairman of the division of home missions and Christian education; Virgil A. Sly, executive chairman of the division of world mission. Vice-chairmen, who administer a department, were appointed for the division of home missions and Christian education and the division of world mission. They are George Oliver Taylor and Mae Yoho Ward, respectively.

During the year Robert G. Nelson was called from the work in Jamaica to become executive secretary of the department of Belgian Congo and Union of South Africa. He began his work in May. Ira A. Paternoster was appointed as executive secretary of the department of resources. Walter Weimer, assistant treasurer, died May 12, 1956. Mrs. Evangeline S. Hirschman, controller, was elected assistant treasurer and Alfred C. Brown was appointed controller.

The educational training program of the Society made it possible for William H. McKinney, executive secretary of the department of men's work, to study missionary movements abroad and to engage in a special study of the lay movements of Europe.

The United Society depends upon the loyalty and voluntary labors of a great host of persons who share in its management and administration. These are the members of the board of managers, the board of trustees, and the advisory commissions and boards associated with the institutions and programs for which the Society is responsible. This great company of leaders together with members of the staff carry on the work. Deepest appreciation is expressed to these persons too numerous to name individually who represent the life and strength of the Society. Special mention, however, must be made of the board of trustees who meet six times a year to give detailed supervision to the staff and the administration for the work at home and abroad. An indication of the devotion and spirit of this group of 10 men and 10 women is found in the decision of Mrs. Arthur M. Depew, chairman of the board of managers, and a member of the board of trustees, to go to the Belgian Congo with her husband as a short-term missionary in connection with the builders' program.

The staff members have given generously of their time to the ecumenical movement at both the world and national levels. Substantial subsidies from departments are made for ecumenical purposes around the world. The reports indicate that the Society is a significant factor in the ecumenical outreach of the Disciples of Christ at home and abroad.

A special word should be included about the increasing significance of Missions Building in the life of the brotherhood. This is reflected by the fact that in addition to the departments of the United Society nine other brotherhood boards and agencies are housed in Missions Building. But even more, Missions Building is becoming a center of interest for ministers, ministers' wives, church leaders, and local church tour groups who desire to know more about the personnel, organization, and program of these boards and agencies. The service department report indicates 1,016 visitors coming to Missions Building last year.

The establishment of a Bethany Bookstore in Missions Building by the Christian Board of Publication as a part of its merger with the sales literature section of the United Society has also increased the appeal of Missions Building to visitors. Missions Building is owned by the Society debt free. Occupancy by Disciple agencies is on the basis of a service charge which covers only operation and maintenance. At the current Indianapolis rates for office rental, space now occupied in Missions Building would cost the brotherhood approximately $175,000 per year. Missions Building therefore represents an important brotherhood resource.

DIVISION OF GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

Audio-Visual Services

The department offers several major services to the brotherhood. These include production of filmstrips, recordings, films and slides for Christian training and education; distribution of materials to churches and church groups; training in utilization; and special photographic services.

Production. During the past year the sound color filmstrip BRIDGING YESTERDAY WITH TOMORROW was completed. This interprets the strategy of world missions. Assistance was given to the production of the filmstrips U.N. SEMINAR, PROGRESS IN MEN'S WORK and THE CHURCH REACHES OUT. A sound motion picture film on the mission work in Africa, INGLIA OF THE CONGO, was produced from film taken on the field.

The department cooperated through the Broadcasting and Film Commission of the National Council of Churches in planning and producing major films on mission study themes for the year.

Distribution. The audio-visual library distributed, during the year, 3,905 films, filmstrips and recordings to 2,662 churches. These included not only the productions of the department but also productions of other mission boards and religious films from commercial sources which were considered of value to our churches. The library now contains more than 700 titles.

Training. All members of the department participated in the program of the International Audio-Visual Workshop in Green Lake, Wisconsin, September 3-9. An A-V workshop for Missions Building staff was conducted on May 12 and 14. Special services were rendered to other groups through conventions, conferences, workshops and interviews.

Assistance was given to missionaries and other staff personnel in the selection, procurement and use of audio-visual equipment.

Photographic Service. The department maintains extensive files of black and white pictures and transparencies on the work of the various departments. These are made available for publication and duplication as requested. Hundreds of pictures were added last year.

All-Agency Conference. An all-agency conference on audio-visuals, broadcasting and television was held in St. Louis, Missouri, May 27-28. National agencies, state societies and colleges were represented as plans were discussed for more effective use of all the media of mass communications. A committee was formed to project plans for bringing into being an inter-agency advisory fellowship which will offer more effective leadership for the brotherhood in audio-visuals and mass communications.

Men's Work

Field Work. Four full-time staff workers constantly scheduled, spent more than 50% of their time in the field. Their work is supplemented by 12 dollar-a-year men, each giving a minimum of two weeks of his time annually.

Retreats. These are week-end gatherings for men. Seventy were held during the past year with approximately 6,000 men in attendance. Nearly all of them are held during the months of April through September.

Literature. Several thousand program packets and the manual "Why and How of Men's Work" were distributed as sales literature. Six issues of GLANCE (newsletter) were mailed to over 8,500 leaders of men. Free literature included a pamphlet on Men's Work in the Dynamic Church, a tract on How Men's Work Can Succeed, a large chart entitled Progress of Men's Work, showing step by step the progress of men's work and how it fits into the local church, and numerous reprints of articles on men's work from church magazines.

Two New Manuals. One manual is entitled "Guidance Material for Men." This manual is used in schools for men to better inform them of their opportunities for service in local churches. The second is for C.M.F. presidents in local churches. It lifts up all the relationships of the local C.M.F., beginning with the minister, local committees, state and national agencies.

Laymen's Sunday. More churches are observing Laymen's Sunday year after year. Guidance material for conducting Laymen's Sunday is mailed upon request, and also included in our program packet.

National Christian Men's Fellowship Commission is composed of members-at-large, state presidents of 33 men's state organizations, directors of men's work, dollar-a-year men and national staff members. The names of the Central Committee are: W. B. Pearce, Chairman, Shreveport, Louisiana; Glen Sedam, Vice-Chairman, Gadsden, Alabama; William H. Mc-Kinney, Secretary, Indianapolis, Indiana; Lewis J. Ackers, Abilene, Texas; Kenneth Hicks, Jefferson City, Missouri; Oris Wright, Vincennes, Indiana; Thomas B. Yates, Dishman, Washington.

Achievements. Larger churches are organizing Christian Men's Fellowship groups. Many churches report the men are better informed. More men are serving on national, state and local boards. Ministerial students in all of our institutions of higher education have received information regarding men's work from the staff, in person.

Men's work is more closely coordinated with national, state and local programs. The department played a vital part in the largest gathering of Protestant men in our history in Cleveland, Ohio.

Two steps in increased field training have been successfully launched. They are:

1. Working closer with rural churches.
2. Laboratory training schools with the manual, "Guidance Material for Men."

Twenty-eight thousand names of key men in local churches were added to our mailing list.

Southern California, Texas, and Illinois called full-time directors of men's work. Four states are now seeking to employ directors. In addition to these, there are ten states now being served by directors.

Resources

The Society cooperates in its promotional procedures as a constituent agency in Unified Promotion, and so receives major budget support from the undesignated and specified offerings of individuals and churches in mutual fellowship with other causes and agencies cooperating in Unified Promotion.

Link Relationships and Definite Object Giving. In order to personalize the work and enable churches and individual supporters to enjoy more intimate participation in support of the budget, the link missionary relationship was developed. There are now approximately 750 links, many missionaries having four link churches. The cost of a link is now $1,500.00 to Unified Promotion, and of this the United Society receives not less than $1,000.00 specified to the world mission budget for link support. A second link requires $6,000.00 to Unified Promotion. Offerings counting toward a link relation are: (1) Regular church giving to Unified Promotion, (2) three special day offerings, Easter, Children's Day and Thanksgiving of the Bible School, and (3) the regular CWF giving.

"What Your Dollars Can Do" is a special folder indicating definite object giving. These projects are within the Society budget and receive Year Book credit in Unified Promotion.

Wills, Annuities and Special Gifts. Through the years the United Society has received additional income for its work from bequests, special gifts and gift annuities. The regular giving of churches is supplemented by these gifts to the Society budget. Two sections of the department supplement each other in keeping the churches informed.

Field Service. In response to requests some 2,800 speaking assignments were made from the field desk for churches, CWF, CMF, CYF, link visits, schools of missions, church night fellowship, district youth meets, district, state and national conventions, adult and youth summer conferences,

UNITED CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY ANNUAL REPORT

Interpretation and Publicity. Weekly 173,000 copies of worship and news bulletins were ordered by 945 churches. The bulletins continued to carry information about organized brotherhood work. Printing, shipping and handling of orders for church bulletins is handled by the Christian Board of Publication, while editorial responsibility remains with resources department.

The United Society bulletin, LEAVEN, was mailed to 72,000 persons monthly, September through June. LEAVEN carried reports on the current work and answered questions from the churches concerning policies of the United Society.

News and feature articles interpreting work of the United Society were released through brotherhood publications.

Service Department

Missions Building has a total of over 70,000 square feet, and houses the 15 departments of the United Society and 9 other brotherhood agencies.

The department of service is responsible for the maintenance and operation of the building and grounds, as well as these other phases of work:

1. Office personnel. The clerical and office personnel necessary to do the work in the 15 departments of the United Society is provided through this department. Applications or requests for information from persons with secretarial or office skills desiring to serve the brotherhood are always welcomed.

2. Materiel services. Much of the equipment and supplies used by our missionaries and institutions both at home and abroad is purchased by this department.

3. Library. Missions Building library is a valuable resource of material on missions and Christian education. It not only serves persons who come in, but loans books for use outside upon request by local libraries.

4. Literature. While the sales literature section was merged with the Christian Board of Publication on July 1, 1955, the United Society continues to distribute its own free materials. We also furnish personnel for literature displays in conventions and assemblies.

5. Visits to Missions Building. Arrangements for purposeful tours should be made in advance; they are educational and rewarding. A thousand sixteen persons visited the Building in 1955-56.

6. Supervision of work in the following 10 work sections: church records, incoming mail, print shop, central transcribing, file room, remittance mail, addressograph, mimeograph, mail forwarding and stock room.

Certificate of Auditor

Board of Trustees
The United Christian Missionary Society
Indianapolis, Indiana

We have audited the accounts of The United Christian Missionary Society for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1956, and have verified the cash, securities and other assets as of that date.

We have also examined the Treasurer's report, a copy of which is attached hereto, showing assets of $9,394,157.08, total liabilities of $345,560.71, and total fund balances $9,048,596.37, as of June 30, 1956.

We certify that the Balance Sheet shown in the Treasurer's report is in agreement with the records of the Society and with our report of audit as of June 30, 1956; and in our opinion, correctly presents the financial condition of The United Christian Missionary Society at that date.

DIVISION OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

The development and growth of world missions was most heartening during the missionary year of 1955-56. The statistical report shows significant development in all areas. The report on church membership shows practically the same number as 1954. This is due to changes in reporting. The church statistics for Japan are to be found in the column reporting the figures for the United Church of Christ in Japan and are not included as a part of our statistical summary. Also, there has been extensive revision of church rolls in Argentina and India.

The Argentine Mission celebrated its Fiftieth Anniversary in April, 1956. A mission tour of thirty church men and women from the United States were present for the occasion. Mae Yoho Ward, executive secretary for Latin America, accompanied the tour and remained for administrative conferences.

The division of foreign missions operated under the policy outlined in the new Strategy of World Missions, approved in January, 1955. As a part of the strategy a comprehensive study docket was prepared dealing with the vital areas outlined in the strategy: (1) evangelism, (2) development of the younger churches, (3) cooperation in union, (4) flexibility and mobility in mission administration. Missionaries and nationals in all mission fields received the workbook, using it as a basis for evaluation of the present program and planning for the future. Mrs. Ward met with such groups in South America and Virgil A. Sly in Mexico.

As a part of this field implementation of the strategy of world missions, the division requested Donald A. McGavran to make a three months' study in Puerto Rico of church development and growth. This very splendid study is now being considered by the church in Puerto Rico as a possible pattern for its future development. Mr. McGavran was also asked to make a study in the Philippines, Thailand and India. Within another year the division will be able to bring to the brotherhood a comprehensive report giving the results of the application of the strategy of world missions across the world in areas of our responsibility.

Two new books were published in 1956 under the auspices of the division of foreign missions: Disciples of Christ in Argentina, 1906-1956, by J. Dexter Montgomery, celebrating the fiftieth anniversary in Argentina; and New Missionaries for New Days, by E. K. Higdon, presenting the program of missionary training and selection of the division of foreign missions.

Missionary Selection and Training

Purpose. To find the right person for the right job and give him the right preparation for the right field. Ability to meet the needs of the field is the basis of selection and training.

Premises. (1) Missionary work overseas is an extension of the mission and ministry of the church at home, (2) a mission field is any area of life that is un-Christian, (3) one who wishes to serve God on a full-time basis should find out where and how he can serve best, (4) each person is directed to the field, at home or abroad, where he can serve best.

Preparation. Missionary service abroad demands dedication, physical stamina, ability to learn a foreign language, emotional stability, sensitivity to the needs of others and flexibility in working with them, and a truly Christian experience of God in Christ. A college education is a first step,

*The church statistics for Japan are reported now through the general report of the United Church of Christ in Japan (Kyodan) and are not computed as a part of our total membership.

followed by specialized training (e.g., churchmanship, medicine), seminary, missionary orientation, language study on a graduate level.

Procedure. The three steps in becoming a missionary are: (1) Volunteer: there are now over 600 in correspondence with the candidate secretary. (2) Candidate: any time during or after the sophomore year of college one may apply for candidacy by having a physical check-up, returning information blanks and references, passing the Health Survey tests, and then being presented to the board of trustees. There are 97 candidates in training. (3) Commissioned Missionary: upon completion of his preparation the candidate is then commissioned by the board of trustees in Indianapolis.

Africa Missions

The Belgian Congo. Congo mirrors prosperity abroad. Increased salaries for trained workers point the value of education, reward the industrious and make living cleaner, richer and better.

Schools and students are constantly more numerous and of higher quality. Year by year the standards for leaders are edging up. Our secondary schools are paying off. Experiments are being made with impetus and success. There is an occasional girl in a village school. One such astonished her teacher when she did better than the boys. Coquilhatville has four kindergartens. Scouting is spreading from Coquilhatville to the interior.

Historically noteworthy is the entrance in 1955 of the Belgian Congo government into primary education for the Congolese. In getting an education, all Congolese have been subjected heretofore to mission teaching, Catholic and Protestant, which has carried with 100% acceptance. It was, as one visitor said, "Very evidently the policy of the Belgians to convert the Congolese to Christianity." Even if not a policy, it was a golden opportunity.

Missionary personnel is more adequate today but the need is far from saturated. We need school supervisors and directors for regional schools; doctors for the doctorless hospitals; and nurses for nurse-less hospitals. The biggest and most promising Protestant medical work in Congo, at Kimpese, where we are full partners, lacks our cooperation beyond financial aid and one laboratory technician. The doctor at Mondombe without missionary nurses puts in one-sixth of his work days in visiting rural dispensaries and the leper colony. Each missionary evangelist must spread himself over hundreds of square miles trying to serve a population of 75,000 or even 138,000.

The new maternity building at Monieka would be a credit to any community at home. Patients with leprosy have new hope and new perseverance in treatment, as most cases are improved and many cured with the new drugs. That is true also for tuberculosis, but in a lesser measure, since facilities and drugs are inadequate.

Construction is the order of the day with funds from Crusade and Capital for Kingdom Building, plus very important subsidies from the Colony and its welfare funds. We dare not ask for all of the subsidies we could get since we don't know who would do the building. Builders are badly needed.

Huge government subsidies for education are releasing budget money from home for evangelistic expansion. Three hours of religious instruction a week in the schools gives many a boy his first contact with the content of Christianity, and wins him to Christ and the church.

Improved evangelistic methods and organization use motor transportation, audio-visual aids, duplicating machines and better trained native personnel. Stewardship is improving. Interesting beginnings are being made in organizing rural churches with officers, services, budgets and stewardship handled locally.

South Africa. Mr. Basil Holt attended the World Convention at Toronto, Canada, and visited the United Society offices. He brought to the board of trustees a comprehensive statement of the South Africa work where he is the Society representative.

These plans included a request for new missionary personnel; the development of a national organization; study of reports of the ministry in South Africa; suggestions as to a vital program of church development; request for church building funds. Development of these plans was started in 1955. A missionary couple was appointed; a start has been made to better understand the ministry; the national organization of the churches has been completed; funds have been provided for the new church building at Benoni. The total program in South Africa has new life and meaning.

China Mission

Out of silence in China, our prayers continue to call our former Chinese colleagues within the fellowship of the love of Christ.

Prayer

"Father, we thank Thee for the spirit in which the seed of Thy church was planted and tended in China. Grant that its growth may continue amid turmoil and change. To those whose love has grown cold, give a fresh vision of Thyself; to those whose zeal is kindled, give wisdom and humility; that in the bond of peace and in righteousness of life all who call themselves Christians may witness a true profession, to the honor and glory of Thy name. Amen."

From Prayer for China, 1955

Japan Missions

Our work in Japan must be reported from the viewpoint of its relation to the total Protestant Christian movement, and especially, but not exclusively, that major part of Protestant work known as the (United) Church of Christ in Japan. We are now an integral part of the United program in view of the facts that: (1) Our historically United Christian Missionary Society-related congregations have, of their own volition, been members of the United Church since its pre-war formation; (2) The integration of our Japan Mission into the Interboard Committee for Christian Work in Japan which resulted from the report of the Commission on Friendly Inquiry of 1954.

Our two schools, while operating under their own autonomous Boards of Directors, are linked with the seventy-three other schools in the Christian Education Association. Our Social Welfare institution (East Tokyo Institute), in like manner is a unit in the Christian Social Work League, with its seventy member agencies.

In regard to the churches themselves, together with the dozen or so kindergartens and other activities that they maintain, it would be misleading to speak of them as "our" churches because they consider themselves a part of a movement in Japan for the unity of God's people that comprises all of the congregations in the United Church, in number more than one thousand four hundred fifty. Within this great fellowship they are happy to be making their witness to their Bible-based beliefs, without any arrogant assumption that their understanding of the Bible is superior to that of others.

During the year three new chapels have been erected with Society help: one of them at Honjo, in far north Akita Prefecture; one in East Tokyo, called North Asakusa Church; one in Kashima, on the Pacific shore in Ibaraki Prefecture, where the famous Kashima Shrine holds sway over the lives of the people, like the temple to Diana, at Ephesus of old.

The Christian High School for Boys, called Sei Gakuin, in Tokyo, erected one of the largest and most modern auditoriums of any similar school in Japan to replace its chapel lost by fire in 1954. This new addition to the physical plant has given added prestige to the school and has given the student body a deeper respect for the place of their daily chapel services.

The Girls' High School, Joshi Sei Gakuin (Margaret K. Long Memorial), with over a thousand students, celebrated its Fiftieth Anniversary in November, 1955. (Sei Gakuin will have a similar celebration in 1956.)

The Centenary Program of Evangelism, piloted by the National Christian Council of Japan, is challenging heightened endeavor toward personal witnessing and the strengthening of the Church. Our twenty missionaries, each in his own way, whether in teaching, preaching, counseling, social welfare, planning, organizing, personal witnessing, music, or various special activities have all been serving as units in the one united enterprise of bringing Christ to the attention of the Japanese people.

Latin America Missions

Argentina. Argentina saw freedom of press and individual liberties restored in 1955. The end of the Peron era afforded opportunities for increased services on the part of the churches. Plans for the Fiftieth Anniversary to take place in April, 1956, occupied the time and attention of leaders. Changes in personnel involved the transfer of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Andress to Asunción and the replacement of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. McWilliams, who were retiring, by Mr. and Mrs. George Smedley.

Two seminary students, Louisa Unamuno and Osvaldo Guiducci, served Villa Mitre and Barranqueras, respectively, as a part of their seminary program.

Ward School continued its excellent progress under the leadership of its new director, Ernest Bauman. Its campus, during the summer holiday, was used for four summer conferences.

Jamaica. The special emphasis in Christian Education this year was on Leadership Training Institutes for Church School leaders. Miss Gladys Harrison returned after a year's leave of absence for special work in religious education and became secretary of Christian Education for the Council of Churches as well as for the Disciples. Three students enrolled in the Union Theological Seminary, and Robert G. Nelson was the Disciple representative on the teaching staff.

Oberlin High School has continued to grow, reaching an enrollment of 68. These students came from 12 of the 14 parishes in the island.

The dedication of a new Manse for King's Gate Church and the St. Colme's Hostel (dormitory) of the Union Theological Seminary and repairing, remodeling, and redecorating of several of our churches was a part of the rehabilitation program. The establishing of the Mission and Association offices and opening a Book Store at 70A Duke Street was a step forward in centralizing the work of the Mission Association. Regular supplemental preaching by members of the Christian Lay-leader's Fellowship in several districts of rural churches have borne results in increased attendance, greater interest, and better support of the work.

Mexico. The evangelistic work is carried on by two self-supporting churches and thirteen smaller churches all manned by national pastors. A missionary, Paul C. Kepple, was elected by the Union of Christian Workers to direct the evangelistic work for two years. In Los Nogales, Zacatecas, a well-constructed and well-equipped church building was erected and dedicated. An important part of the program was the enlisting of a large number of tithers.

All Disciple work in Mexico is now coordinated and carried on under the direction of a democratic organization called the Union of Christian Workers. Its president is the pastor of Central Church in San Luis Potosi, Mr. Daniel Lopez de Lara.

Paraguay. The fifth organized church, Tacuacora, was added to the other four, all of which had a good year. The Barrio Colon church prospered under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Martinez de Castilla of Argentina. The other churches were served by missionaries but ministerial leadership is being developed and there is one student in the Buenos Aires Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lemmon came to the end of a 31-year directorship at Colegio Internacional. They were honored by students, alumni and friends. The nation decorated him for distinguished service and Asunción made him an "adopted son." The Lemmons stated that the school really merited the honors and that they themselves were but symbols of the esteem in which the school was held.

The social centers at Coronel Oviedo and Friendship Mission continued all-round community programs and served more than twice as many people as the previous year.

Puerto Rico. The dedication of new church buildings highlighted the work of the year: Comerio Street, Bayamon, First Church, San Juan and Juan Domingo. These, and other buildings in process of construction, called forth sacrificial giving on the part of members, though the churches were assisted by the Society and Church Extension.

A new constitution worked out mutually by the Puerto Rican leaders and the Society went into effect and the new Administrative Board was incorporated on June 10. A. Dale Fiers was guest speaker at the annual convention, and expressed approval of the new working relationship.

The offerings continued to grow and special emphasis was given to increasing ministers' salaries. The churches sent their missionary offerings to the United Society for distribution.

Personnel news included: Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Williams left the island. Mr. and Mrs. Garland Farmer remained in the United States on extended furlough. Joaquin Vargas became Student Chaplain at the University. Francisco Resto, a 1954 graduate of the seminary was ordained. Mrs. Juan Rivera was the fraternal delegate to the World Convention. Donald A. McGavran made a survey of the work.

India Mission

The year under review has been one of mixed encouragement and defeat for the India Mission. The political tensions between America and India have been reflected in a more critical attitude toward American Mission work. On the other hand, the success of the first Five-Year Plan in India, with its development of a Social Welfare State, has given an impetus to all forms of betterment whether carried on by government or by mission and church agencies.

During the year we have seen the further development of two service programs calculated to bring a better life to the village people in areas where formerly we had had institutional work primarily for Christians. In the title of each we have therefore emphasized "life," such as the "Abundant Life" program and the "Star of Life" program.

Centering at Damoh the "Star of Life" program has taken on considerable momentum. Earlier in the year 18 village helpers were recruited, trained and sent into ten villages. In July a further group of 12 joined the force and were spread in seven more village centers. In the meantime, the supervisory force was established with consultants in Agriculture, Sociology and Home Economics, the doctor missionary being the expert in Public Health.

Enthusiastic reports come to hand regarding the other service program in Bilaspur District, centering on Takhatpur and Fosterpur under the heading "Adhik Jeewah" or "Abundant Life." Literacy has been the interest from which activity has fanned out, bringing about 450 adults into a functional knowledge of reading and writing.

Our Mission is carrying an increasing load of the education of the children of our districts. Most schools have been full to capacity during the year. Mungeli Primary has brought a new classroom and assembly hall into use; Brooks Middle School has a new carpentry classroom; Bilaspur High School for boys enjoys their new building. A large group of young people were in training for both village and town pastorages. Ten were in the Union Bible School in Janjgir and six in Leonard Theological College.

The story of our medical work cannot be put into statistical form except in terms of joy and peace and thankfulness; nevertheless, almost 107,000 treatments were given in 1955.

During the past year in Orissa there has been consistent advance along several lines. The physical plant at the new station, Diptipur, has had the addition of a teacher's new home, the first bungalow has been completed and occupied, the eighth grade school was filled to capacity. The Christian community has grown considerably both by baptisms from within the group and also eighty-four from outside. The greatest advance has been the establishment of seven new village churches.

The Church in India was reconstituted in 1955 and entrusted with the direction of the work.

Philippines Mission

The Christian work which is sponsored in the Philippines by The United Christian Missionary Society was marked by several significant advances and changes. A net gain of almost 1,000 members was reported, with seven new churches being established. Thirty-three more churches became self-supporting during the year. Most remarkable was the gain in funds raised on the field. Whereas the total raised in 1953 was $24,146.00, during 1954 the amount reported was $41,101.00, and in 1955 $82,243.00.

Within the United Church of Christ, which includes work in the Ilocos, Abra and mountain provinces, changes occurred in several church conventions, with greater freedom and maturity being gained thereby. The upland churches in Abra, which include Tinguian congregations, were organized into a separate convention. Ilocos Norte churches have included heretofore congregations of Claveria and Luna, which areas now comprise a new district and one which was surveyed by a special team of workers in 1955. The plan to locate a missionary family in Launa-Claveria resulted from the survey which found homesteaders in considerable numbers settling on excellent farmland there, and "doors more open for Evangelical Christianity than in any other area of the Philippines."

The churches and mission program of Apayao were also reorganized into a Mission Conference, to be administered under the Board of Missions of the United Church. In spite of competition from the Roman Catholic high school, our own high school in Kabugao gained in enrollment in 1955. Certain new developments were effected also in the mission agricultural program in Kabugao.

The Laoag church, in cooperation with the Philippines Youth Crusade, sponsored an evangelistic campaign November 9-22, with Dr. Enrique Sobrepena, presiding bishop of the United Church of Christ of the Philippines, as preacher. Attendance averaged over 1,000, and 501 persons made decisions for Christ, with 130 Christians rededicating their lives.

The youth program of the Tagalog Churches of Christ was also reorganized and strengthened in 1955, with pilot projects developed in several local churches. Tagalog Disciple young people participated strongly in the sending of a youth missionary from the Philippines to Nigeria. The rehabilitation of the Gastambide church building, and the completion of the first missionary residence in Manila, were other notable accomplishments.

The complete integration of the Philippines mission into the Interboard office was the most significant administrative advance of the year.

Thailand Mission

Four new missionaries were added during the year: Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Sewell from Britain, Rev. David Luo, Chinese minister, and Miss Vevina Gesite, a nurse sent by the United Church of the Philippines. This raises the number of missionaries to twelve, but the majority are still giving a large amount of time to language study. The field is preparing a full program in the very near future.

Our Youth Groups have given outstanding service. In addition to conducting their own meetings and participating in conferences, they have carried on the following activities: church choir work, Christmas drama, cleaning and beautifying church grounds, conducting Sunday schools in out-stations, Vacation Church Schools, giving regularly to help a local Christian in the leper colony in north Thailand, giving toward the Sam Yek chapel fund, and raising money by work projects toward neon lights for one of the local Nakon Pathom churches.

Our Thai evangelist, Kru Bamrung Adipat, was one of a team of four, sent by the Asia Council on Ecumenical Mission for a month's visit to the churches in Burma. On his return the team conducted special meetings in our area. We were very happy to have one of our workers selected for the team. The result has been a stimulus to evangelism and increased interest in the Burma churches.

During the year a storefront was secured in the market place of our Banpong out-station. The downstairs provides a chapel and upstairs an apartment where a worker's family can live. This is a big move forward from meeting in homes and no place for a resident worker. This group should now grow rapidly.

Our annual convention was a time of rich blessing. Much interest was shown in a general church program, and there was good participation in free discussion regarding plans for the churches. The Thailand work is gradually becoming a forward moving unit of much promise.

DIVISION OF HOME MISSIONS

Interdenominational Cooperation. The division continued to cooperate through staff participation and financial support with the following organizations: National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., John Milton Society for the Blind, National Religion and Labor Foundation, National Conference of Social Work and National Service Board for Religious Objectors, with major support given to the National Council of Churches. In addition, a sizable grant was made to the Protestant Religious Center building project at Intermountain Indian School, Brigham City, Utah.

Home and State Missions Planning Council. The division continued its cooperation with the Home and State Missions Planning Council. Much of the division's program planning was done through this consultative organization, especially six of the nine standing committees closely related to the division: committees on Christian service, effective ministry, evangelism, local church life, town and country church, urban work.

Church Development and Evangelism

Personnel. Fred W. Michel became director of urban work and mission churches in June, 1956, following the resignation of C. Donald Baugh. Mr. Michel had served for several years as director of church establishment and mission churches. Jay R. Calhoun came to the department as its first full-time director of ministerial services.

Long Range Program. The Long Range Program emphasis of "Our Church in a Changing America," was sponsored by the department, the state societies and the Board of Church Extension in 1955-56. Three study and survey documents grew out of this emphasis: Our Church in a Changing America by Fred W. Michel, Facts About Our Churches in a Changing America by Dale W. Medearis and F. E. Rector, and Our Church—Its Past, Present and Future, basic authorship by C. Donald Baugh. Other materials related to the Long Range Program were Local Church Goals at Mid-Point, edited by the department, and Mandate for Evangelism by David C. McNelly.

Year Book and Population Studies. The department made a comprehensive study, conducted by Dale W. Medearis, of Disciples of Christ Year Book statistics, based on the 1953 Year Book and the 1950 U. S. Census. A second research study dealing with population and the growth of resident membership of the Disciples of Christ by Dale W. Medearis was also published. The two studies were released in the spring of 1956.

Evangelism. Among the year's major evangelistic projects were the pre-Easter project, Witnessing for Christ, with its special emphasis on personal witnessing; schools of evangelism held in Dayton and Youngstown, Ohio; Harris County, Texas; and Savannah, Georgia; meetings with state committees in Florida, Northern California, Illinois, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Carolina and Virginia. Evangelistic meetings were conducted by John W. Frye, national evangelist, in the District of Columbia, Idaho, Illinois, Georgia, North Carolina, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Church Development. The director of church development conducted church administration institutes, promoted the observance of Church Loyalty Month (October), wrote a weekly column for Front Rank, in addition to filling an unusually heavy writing schedule.

Ministerial Services. The ministerial services section of the department was strengthened by the addition of a full-time staff member. Ministerial recruitment was given added emphasis during the year in connection with preparation and release of the Year of the Ministry material (1956-57 Long Range Program emphasis). Contacts were made with church-related colleges and seminaries leading to closer relationships with ministerial students. In addition to emphasis on recruitment, ministers were assisted in securing suitable locations, churches in finding the right minister, and ministerial students aided in Selective Service deferment.

Church Maintenance and Mission Churches. Financial support was given to 67 ministers in 54 white churches, nine Negro churches and one larger parish in the United States, and three churches in Canada. Eleven state and area secretaries, including the All-Canada secretary, were given salary support. Four mission fields, with programs of pastoral guidance and support, radio, kindergarten, ministerial training, social service and community improvement, were supported and administered in Louisiana (French-Acadian), Texas (Mexican), California and Colorado (Japanese), New York and Connecticut (Puerto Rican). Much attention was given to the establishment of new churches. All the churches showed a better-than-average gain in membership, stewardship and program expansion. The Puerto Rican work in Greater New York was given special attention with the director serving in an advisory capacity to the Puerto Rican ministers and lay workers in this very critical and challenging area.

Town and Country Church. Training opportunities were provided for those working with town and country churches through in-service training institutes and short courses, in addition to contacts made with graduating seniors of Disciple seminaries. The program of churchmanship institutes was further developed with gratifying results. Promotion was given to the rural minister of the year project. The Town and Country News-letter, a bi-monthly program guidance bulletin, was sent to a key list of town and country leaders.

Urban Work. The department aided both individual congregations and city associations through surveys for new churches and the relocation of existing congregations. In cooperation with the School of Religion, Butler University, an urban church institute was held in the summer of 1955, with scholarship assistance given selected urban ministers. The important survey instrument, Our Church—Its Past, Present and Future, was produced.

Rochester Hospital Chaplaincy. Cooperation was continued with the Minnesota Christian Missionary Society and the Iowa Society of Christian Churches in the support of Vernon H. Carter as chaplain at the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota. Mr. Carter's services to patients, their relatives and friends, included hospital visitation, transportation, housing assistance, liaison with the local church and other aid.

Negro Work. In cooperation with the National Christian Missionary Convention, service was given Negro churches through program materials, convention participation, church visitation and financial help to nine churches and two area workers. Financial and leadership assistance was given to Goldsboro Christian Institute, Goldsboro, North Carolina. Scholarship loans were granted a limited number of young people in accredited colleges and seminaries. Support was also given the Preston Taylor Memorial House, a residence for Negro students at Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Institutional Missions

All Peoples Christian Church and Community Center, Los Angeles, California. The professional and lay leaders of All Peoples are to be commended for the fine way they assumed additional work loads when ill health caused the resignation of Director Dan B. Genung, effective April, 1956. Last year's work campers painted walls, laid new flooring in the offices, and generally improved work and play areas. A Day Camp for children ages 7 to 11 averaged 40 in daily attendance. Resident church members total 370 with many participating in an area survey and calling campaign. Mr. Harsh J. Brown, who has served during 1955-56 as Center director was named in June to assume the position of general director.

Hazel Green Academy, Hazel Green, Kentucky. Of the 111 boys and girls enrolled 41 received full work scholarships. Dr. L. G. Derthick, superintendent of schools in Chattanooga and former Hazel Green Academy student, was commencement speaker for the class of 15 graduates, 10 of whom will seek further education. Acting on suggestions from the Advisory Board the Academy secured the services of one new teacher, also a registered nurse and started construction of a small clinic building. The Bookmobile, a joint Academy and County project, served 36 rural schools, circulating 25,000 books and received commendation from the district library supervisor. More than 800 people viewed the 75th anniversary historical pageant "A Light in the Hills," prepared and directed by Mr. and Mrs. J. Goff Long, former students.

Jarvis Christian College, Hawkins, Texas. Enrollment increased to 212, of which 33 were graduated—4 in the area of Religion. Three of the latter received scholarships at Yale University Divinity School and Howard University. The Dining Hall and Student Fellowship Building was dedicated March 25. The agricultural program was expanded to include a dairy herd of 35 cows and physical layout for same. Emphasis has been given to the place of the small farmer in East Texas economy. In November a new work program was inaugurated wherein every student works $\frac{1}{2}$ day each week in activities designed to develop work skills, habits and attitudes.

Mexican Christian Institute (M.C.I.), San Antonio, Texas. This Center is responsible for an area of $2\frac{1}{2}$ square miles, where 18,000—predominantly Spanish-speaking—Americans live. The service reaches beyond Center walls to schools, playgrounds, housing areas, with a fresh emphasis on the "hard-to-reach" boy problem. More than 2,000 people are aided in Center clinical services, consisting of 8 groupings: 2 maternity, 3 baby, 1 T.B. streptomycin, 1 for the sick and 1 immunization. Eight hundred eight boys and 724 girls are registered in various activities. One hundred adults received citizenship papers following class instruction at M.C.I. Over 4,500 individuals received benefits from contact with the Institute.

Mount Beulah Christian Center and Farm, Edwards, Mississippi. Saturday Bible school for children opened in October and closed for the summer with 152 enrolled, a weekly average of 56. A semi-monthly community program, consisting of devotional, religious and/or educational film and recreation, averaged 65 in attendance. The Bookmobile, from November through June, served 15 rural Negro schools, circulating 1,962 books, 300 magazines besides pencils, crayons, tablets and some needed clothing. More than 3,500 individual services were handled by the Nex-T-New Store besides the 40 comforts made and distributed. Through the clinic, directed by Dr. M. I. Ting, 161 patients were examined, 31 prospective mothers enrolled in health classes. Vacation Bible schools, remedial reading classes, and youth conferences enrolled nearly 1,000.

Tougaloo Southern Christian College (T.S.C.C.), Edwards, Mississippi. T.S.C.C. graduated 36 in May, 1956, 3 of whom appear in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. One junior also appears in Who's Who. The new department of Religion and Philosophy has enjoyed a successful first year under the leadership of Carlton L. Lee, Ph.D. Religious Emphasis Week was observed in March using the theme "A Faith for Students in Times Like These" under direction of Dean W. O. Gill of Jarvis Christian College. More than 100 applications for admission to Freshman class were received before school closed in May. Full tuition scholarships were offered to valedictorians of accredited high schools in Mississippi.

Yakima Indian Christian Mission, White Swan, Washington. Ground-breaking services in March marked the beginning of construction of the new parsonage near the church. A new modern laundry was installed in two basement rooms and remodeling begun of the former chapel room of the girls' dormitory for use as a clinic. The clinic enlargement is to meet increased demands which numbered as high as 40 in one day. Dining room and kitchen have been renovated and made more serviceable and sanitary. During the year 18 boys and 22 girls have lived at the Mission, averaging 36 which is capacity. Fourteen of the number stayed the entire year. This number is increasing due to cooperation with the state welfare board.

Social Welfare

Cooperation With State Commissions on Christian Action and Community Service. During February, 1956, the department arranged two area planning conferences of state secretaries and state chairmen of Christian Action and Community Service. More than forty attended the two meetings which lasted for two and one-half days each. Nineteen clinics and institutes were held in connection with various state programs during the year.

Local Church Committees. A new "5 point minimum program" folder to help local church committees to better understand their task was produced. The department is in correspondence with 480 local church committees and constantly encouraging the establishment of others.

Social Action News-Letter. In order to make the News-Letter more useful a whole new supplement dealing with "Washington News" has been added and the back page has been converted to a resource section for the use of local church committees in preparing programs. Over 850 new subscriptions have been received.

Round Table Discussions. A new set of eleven discussion group packets have been prepared to aid local church groups interested in serious discussions of social issues as they are related to the Christian faith and have been made available through the Christian Board of Publication.

Material Aid. From July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956, the department shipped 21,099 pounds of material aid gifts to Belgian Congo, Philippines, Japan, Puerto Rico, Jamaica, Korea, Hilfswerk (Protestant Relief Agency at Stuttgart, Germany), as well as to home missions institutions and other worthy causes in the United States.

Refugee Resettlement. A total of 186 assurances admitting 516 persons has now been arranged for by the refugee resettlement field worker. Eighty-two of the refugees had arrived by June 30, 1956.

Race Relations. The department of social welfare cooperating with the Kansas City Christian Church Commission and the department of church development and evangelism has arranged for a survey-study-action program with the Kansas City churches designed to help them face the population problems of a rapidly changing community. Staff members of the department have served as counselors and advisors in regard to race relation problems in many areas.

Minister-at-Large.—Through special funds the department is making available the services of Mrs. James D. Wyker as minister-at-large to the churches of the brotherhood.

Ecumenical Team Workers, Migrant Workers, Exchange Students, Work Campers and Interns. In May, 1956, William C. Maxon replaced Parker Rowe in the Greek Team and will be in Greece for two years. Three exchange high school students were placed in Disciples of Christ homes in cooperation with the Student Exchange Commission of the Brethren and seventy-two young people participated in work camps at home and abroad, in summer ministry to agricultural migrants, and as interns in social service centers.

Seminars. Two seminars on peace and world order were held during the year; one of four days at the United Nations and one of four days spent at the U.N. and in Washington, D. C., dealing with the problem of disarmament. Twenty-four Disciple representatives also participated in the interdenominational Churchmen's Washington Seminar dealing with the church and political action.

Legislative Testimony. Personal appearances and testimony on several legislative issues before Congress have been arranged including, interstate alcohol advertising, universal military training, and disarmament.

Social Education Sundays. Each year increasing numbers of local churches use the special materials prepared for Sundays on Freedom and Democracy, Labor, World Order, and Race Relations.

DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Our Year of Christian Education. In the series of annual emphases of the Long Range Program, 1955-56 was observed as Our Year of Christian Education under the theme, "Our Church a Teaching Church." The five long-range goals were stressed: increase in church school attendance and enrollment; leadership training; use of summer for teaching; family life; and student work. The churches put the spotlight of attention on their teaching programs, studied strengths and weaknesses and made plans for improvement. The following excerpt from a minister's letter typifies many hundreds of evaluations of the year: "The national emphasis has enabled the entire congregation to express a greater interest in the teaching ministry of the church."

Curriculum and Program Council. The third annual meeting of the Curriculum and Program Council was held in Indianapolis in May, 1956. Because of the volume of work the Council voted to hold a second meeting each year. In addition to review and clearance on missionary education themes, leadership education courses and texts, topics for workers conferences and for meetings of Chi Rho Fellowship, Christian Youth Fellowship, Christian Women's Fellowship and Christian Men's Fellowship and other such regular items, the Council reviewed manuscripts for two church program planning manuals, approved manuscript on campsite development, approved plans for a national study conference on church and family life, and reviewed the minimum standards for church school buildings and equipment.

Christian Women's Fellowship

Christian Women's Fellowship. Christian Women's Fellowship is the inclusive name for all reporting women's organizations including Fellowships, Councils, Missionary Societies and Fellowship Guilds (businesswomen's groups). The only exceptions are businesswomen's organizations which have not yet become a group in the Christian Women's Fellowship. On June 30, 1956, there were 3,816 Christian Women's Fellowships and 338 businesswomen's organizations, making a total of 4,154 organizations which is a gain of 82 over the past year.

The International Christian Fellowship has rendered distinguished service through the president, Mrs. Russell C. Putnam, and the vice-president, Mrs. H. I. Rudduck. The advisory council has served faithfully in helping to plan the general programs and in advising the department on its general work. The commission members have given great assistance in reviewing manuscripts and making valuable suggestions as to the department's work. The commission had a brief Fellowship meeting in Toronto, Canada, in August.

World Christian Women's Fellowship. The World Christian Women's Fellowship was organized at the time of the World Convention of the Churches of Christ held in Toronto, Canada, August 16-21, 1955. The International Christian Women's Fellowship was hostess to all overseas women at a luncheon on August 16. Fourteen hundred and seventy-five women attended the luncheon and several hundred more heard the program. The World Fellowship plans were projected and greetings from many lands were heard at this meeting, but the World Christian Women's Fellowship was organized on August 20, 1955, with several thousand women at the organizational meeting. Mrs. Charles K. Green, Manchester, England, was elected president and Mrs. Juliana Banda, Quezon City, Philippines, vice-president. World Christian Women's Fellowship is in no way an administrative body. Through a semiannual newsletter the women in the various lands represented have fellowship with one another. Jessie M. Trout, executive secretary of the department of Christian Women's Fellowship is secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Love Gift. The Love Gift project continues to challenge the women. The women contribute as individuals instead of organizations. The money received is for the training of missionary candidates, missionaries on furlough and nationals in their own lands or on scholarship elsewhere. This money is part of the regular offering of a state and though not counting on the local Fellowship's goal, counts on the state's regular offerings. The Love Gift total for 1955-1956 is $123,260.98.

Long Range Goals. In addition to participating in the general Long Range Program, the women are working on their four goals: (1) Deepened Spiritual Life. Each year brings evidence of greater development of the spiritual awareness of women. Increased Bible study and reading of devotional literature is marked. (2) Double Membership. The increase for the year is 11,406, bringing the total to 248,935. (3) Doubled Giving. Regular offerings for 1955-1956 were $1,356,531.39, which is a gain of $78,972.87, or 6.2%, but the Love Gift, $123,260.98, being also regular offerings, the total amounts to $1,479,792.37 and the gain is $93,432.36, or 6.7%. The gain in regular missionary offerings is 94.5% over the base year of 1949-1950. (4) An Annual School of Missions in Every Church. The responsibility for a school of missions has been assigned to the total church but Christian Women's Fellowship retains it as a goal. There were 567 in 1955-1956 compared to 182 in 1949-1950. This is a slight decrease over the past year which may not be correct if all churches holding schools sent in reports.

Staff Meeting. Instead of the regular staff meeting, national and field staff personnel, state presidents, advisory council, and a number of ministers met for a two-day conference on "Women in the Church." The findings of the conference are being prepared as a resource book for study groups and administrators in the local church.

Mission Tours. Miss Katherine Schutze conducted two tours. The business women's tour visited Missions Building, Cane Ridge, Hazel Green Academy, Transylvania and College of the Bible in Lexington, Ky., Bethany College and the Campbell home in Bethany, W. Va., the World Convention and places of interest in Ontario. A general tour to Latin America included Puerto Rico, Brazil, Paraguay, Argentina (the special occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of our work there), Bolivia, Chile and Panama.

Personnel. Mrs. Ward T. Nicholas succeeded Mrs. B. H. Bruner as state secretary of Indiana.

Missionary Education Department

Program. Church-wide planning for missionary education continues to grow in importance among our churches. This is evidenced by the fact that more than 1,000 names of world outreach chairmen are on the department's mailing list. Information concerning program and materials is sent to these persons, and individual service has been given to many of them in connection with the setting up of church schools of missions and other phases of their responsibilities.

Observation schools of missions represent a new type of leadership education project initiated on an experimental basis during the year. The observation school has demonstrated its value in training observers in teaching methods and in the administrative aspects of schools of missions, as well as in the multiplication of schools of missions in the area where the pilot school is located.

College and seminary visitation and participation in student retreats have given opportunity for service in missionary education for future church leaders. A reading list and packet material interpreting the missions program have been prepared for professors of missions and those who teach concerning local church program.

Staff members have participated in many institutes, workshops, and other leadership projects where missionary education has been a significant concern.

The study themes for the year, Indian Americans and The Christian Mission in a Revolutionary World, have been timely and challenging subjects. Few home missions themes in recent years have elicited the interested response which was given to the study of Indian Americans.

Missionary reading is encouragingly on the increase, due without question in large part to the reading program for youth and the Christian Women's Fellowship program, initiated under the title, "Books Are Bridges."

Much attention has been given to preparation for the 1957-58 Missionary Education Emphasis Year in the Long Range Program.

Materials. The department has cooperated in the usual way in the planning and publishing of a wide range of interdenominational study and supplementary materials through the Joint Commission on Missionary Education of the National Council of Churches. Disciples of Christ stood fourth among the participating communions in 1954-55 in the use of these materials. General publications of the department have included a series of lectures by Donald W. McGavran on The Church in a Revolutionary Age; Growing Edges in Home Missions by Genevieve Brown, for use in the 1956-57 study of "Mission Field: U.S.A."; an in-service training filmstrip for world outreach departments, "The Church Reaches Out"; the annual missionary reading list, Toward World Christianity; the semi-annual bulletin Memo for Ministers; and various types of guidance materials for leaders.

Materials for age groups have included: Children: Units on the current study themes in Junior Programs; the weekly two-page section "Friends Around the World" in Junior World; and missionary informational articles in the Uniform Lesson quarterlies. Youth: Missionary units in Fellowship (for seniors) and PM Pack (for junior highs); an illustrated book, Lands of Tomorrow, by Mareta Smoot, based on visits with youth on a round-the-world journey; World Fellowship Youth Meet and Conference materials; annual resource booklets for CYF and Chi Rho leaders on the year's studies; and monthly program guidance in World Call. Adults: On the two study themes, program packets for Christian Women's Fellowship, single programs for Christian Men's Fellowship, discussion packets for general adult use; materials for Woman's Day which included a guidance pamphlet for leaders, a resource booklet for speakers on the theme "A Faith Triumphant for Decisive Days," and a worship litany; Easter Week of Prayer Services on the theme "The Redeeming Christ," prepared by Mrs. Charles F. Bailey, and a booklet of intercessory prayer guidance, Fields White, prepared by Mrs. Arthur M. Depew; monthly program guidance and missionary worship services for Christian Women's Fellowship in World Call.

Religious Education

(For additional data see statistics on "Christian Education Projects" pages.)

International Sunday School Convention. Disciple delegates, totaling 249, attended the 23rd International Sunday School Convention at Cleveland, Ohio, July 27-31, 1955, held under auspices of National Council of Churches. The total registration was 4,386. The Disciples of Christ delegates met at the Franklin Circle Church on three afternoons and one evening. Plans and materials for the observance of Christian Education Year were presented with demonstration of their use.

Staff Members Overseas. Charles C. Mills, national director of youth missionary activities, began a leave of absence on December 1, 1955. He and his wife, Irene, are giving service in our Disciples of Christ Congo Mission in Africa. H. Gray Russell, thirty years a missionary to Congo, is serving in Mr. Mills' absence.

Parker Rossman, student work executive, was loaned to the World Student Christian Federation for eight months to serve as a member of the staff at the Federation headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland, in the capacity of fraternal secretary beginning January 15, 1956. Robert S. Bates, missionary candidate, carried the responsibility for our student work program while Mr. Rossmann was away.

James L. Ballinger, national director of youth camps, conferences and fellowship program, assisted in the first summer youth conference conducted by our British churches in the summer of 1955. He also visited among our churches in England and Scotland giving counsel concerning their youth programs.

Religion and Public Education Conference. In St. Louis, November 6-8, 1955, a conference on religion and public education was sponsored by the National Council of Churches. There were nearly 200 delegates representing more than 20 denominations and many state councils. The conference was empowered to speak only for itself and referred the reports to the National Council and its 30 member denominations. The Disciples of Christ had 8 delegates at this Conference.

Volunteer Workers. The growth and development of the Christian education program is made possible by the volunteer services of hundreds of district and state chairmen of children's, youth and adult work, members of state commissions on Christian education and directors and faculties of camps, conferences, World Fellowship Youth Meets and leadership schools.

Children's Work

There are 13 employed state directors of children's work. Persons accredited as instructors for laboratory training schools total 233. Children's missionary giving through the Definite Object of Giving was $11,712.16, an increase of $863.48 over the previous year. Children's groups participating more than doubled, increasing from 424 to 879.

Youth Work

National Coaching for Camp and Conference Directors. The second quadrennial coaching conference for those non-staff persons who carry the chief administration of our summer youth camps and conferences was held at Brownwood, Texas, February, 1956. The conference was financed by funds deriving from the service fees paid by campers and conferees.

Chi Rho Fellowship Institutes. From September, 1954, to December, 1955, 223 two-day institutes were held in 35 states and areas in the United States and Canada for the purpose of training adult leaders of intermediate youth. Approximately 3,500 leaders representing 1,072 churches, participated. The institutes were led by 305 persons whom Miss Iris Ferren, special youth worker, had trained for that responsibility.

Christian Youth Fellowship. The International CYF Commission met August 22-27, 1955, at Bloomington, Indiana, University of Indiana, Smith-Wood Hall. The 215 youth and adults representing 34 convention areas and Canada made plans for the 1956-57 CYF program. The youth theme for 1955-56 was "No Hands But Ours."

Special CYF Representative. Miss Colleen Coleman, 1955-56 president of the International CYF Commission, served as a special CYF worker from September 1 to December 31, 1955. She represented youth in many planning, leadership training, and inspirational meetings in states, districts, and churches.

Youth Missionary Activities. Youth giving for regular work of all agencies in Unified Promotion (Christian World Friendship Fund giving) totaled $134,069.08, an increase of $17,878.36 the past year. The goal was $125,000.00. During 1955-56, 2,990 groups gave to CWFF, an increase over the past year of 48.

Caribbean Youth Tour. Twelve youth visited Disciple and other mission work in Cuba, Jamaica, Haiti, The Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico, June 27 to July 19, 1956. Tour members and Jamaican youth redecorated and landscaped the Bethlehem Church; Puerto Rican youth joined tour members in beautifying McLean Conference Grounds.

Student Work

The Student Workers' Association held its annual meeting at Lake Webster, Indiana, August 23-28, 1955. A manual for ministers to students was developed which was published in preliminary form in October. The Ecclesia of the Disciples of Christ Student Fellowship met at Lake Webster, Indiana, August 28 to September 3, 1955, with 418 students and leaders in attendance. The theme of the conference was "Let Love Be Genuine" (Romans 12).

Home Church Plan. During 1955-56 accredited student centers were privileged to appeal to the churches of their respective states for over-and-above financial support. This was the first of the five years of the Home Church Plan agreed upon by Unified Promotion.

Bible Chair Consultation. The department of religious education carries the national administration of the four Bible Chairs founded by the Christian Woman's Board of Missions more than 50 years ago at these state university centers: Ann Arbor, Michigan; Charlottesville, Virginia; Lawrence, Kansas and Austin, Texas. In March, 1956, the heads of these four Bible Chairs met with national staff members of the United Society for a two-day consultation. It was agreed that we should encourage the teaching of religion for academic credit on tax-supported campuses, recognizing at the same time that there may be many patterns and that there must be varying means of church safeguards and/or supervision.

Adult Work

A conference on the comprehensive Christian education of adults and older youth was held at Spring Mill Inn near Mitchell, Indiana, January 9-13, 1956, under the auspices of the Curriculum and Program Council. Thirty-eight persons participated. Study was made of the characteristic developmental tasks of young adults, middle-aged adults and older adults and their implications for the Christian Education curriculum and program.

Family Life

The department of religious education expanded the portfolio of national director of family life to a full-time position. Richard E. Lentz, experienced pastor and national administrator of adult and family life programs of the National Council of Churches, began in this position on March 1, 1956.

A consultation on home and family life was held in St. Louis in November, 1955, in which 25 persons devoted two days to planning how the churches may strengthen their help to families.

Educational Administration

The tenth annual three-day meeting of the National Fellowship of Disciples Directors was held at Cincinnati, Ohio, in February, 1956, with 77 in attendance.

The Workers' Conference Packet for 1955-56 was issued on the theme, "Our Church a Teaching Church."

World Call

George Walker Buckner, Jr., Editor
222 South Downey Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

World Call was established in 1919 as an "International Magazine of Disciples of Christ." It was formed by the merging of five magazines directly related to various national boards and subsidized by them.

Seven years of preparation made possible the uniting of these five magazines and also gave a voice to four other national organizations without a regular publication. This venture in cooperation occurred a year before the forming of The United Christian Missionary Society. The organizing agency was the Men and Millions Movement.

The first editorial sentence in the first number of World Call, January, 1919, was:

"This magazine is meant to be a channel through which the call of the world's supreme needs and the challenge of Christ's supreme leadership may reach the people of God." In further defining its purpose it went on to say: "The world that is the church's field is not merely the geographical world. We must Christianize the whole range and content of every nation's life, especially our own. . . . This magazine we believe to be here by God's appointment with the simple duty of making known in word and photograph the reality, scope and urgency of the world call and the progress of Christian forces in answering the call."

World Call is managed by the World Call Publication Committee on which there are six representatives from the various phases of work of The United Christian Missionary Society, and one each from the Council on Christian Unity, the Board of Church Extension, the Board of Higher Education, and the National Benevolent Association. The Pension Fund cooperates but has not taken membership on the Publication Committee.

Other national agencies may be admitted to membership by vote of the Publication Committee. The agencies agree to share in any deficit on a basis to be determined mutually. It has never been necessary to apply this provision.

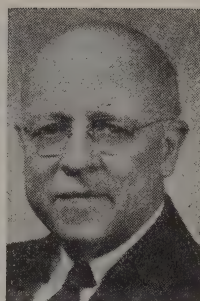

The Editor and Chief of Staff is elected by the Publication Committee. He is in charge of editorial and circulation policies and reports to the Committee.

World Call carries no local church news. Its concern is with the total world outreach of the church in the broad sense of the term. While it deals chiefly with the work of Disciples, much space is given to the larger aspects of the Christian world. While practically all Disciple ministers subscribe to World Call, its typical reader is the interested and active member and lay leader of the local church.

ANNUAL REPORT July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956

Representation: WORLD CALL is operated through the World Call Publication Committee on which the following boards are represented: The United Christian Missionary Society, the Board of Church Extension, the National Benevolent Association, the Board of Higher Education, the Council on Christian Unity.

Staff: James L. Merrell, who has been a part-time editorial associate for more than three years, was elected in June to the position of assistant editor on a full-time basis. Mr. Merrell is a journalism graduate and holds a B.D. degree from the Butler School of Religion.

Circulation: Circulation showed a monthly average of 67,921. This was a loss of 407 over the year before. The decrease came in the earlier months and the trend was upward in May and June.

Finances: Advertising and subscription receipts for the year ending June 30, 1956, was $119,462.61, a loss of $186.52 over the preceding year. WORLD CALL continues to operate without a deficit. The cash balance at the end of the year was $11,841.96.

Ten Per Cent Legion: WORLD CALL's Ten Per Cent Legion gives annual recognition to all churches which send in subscriptions (with a minimum of ten) equal to at least 10% of their resident membership as reported in the Year Book. The September issue of WORLD CALL listed 709 churches which qualified for the Ten Per Cent Legion in 1955-56. Subscriptions in 16% of these churches totaled 20% or more.

First Ten Churches: The following ten churches led the Brotherhood in WORLD CALL subscriptions:

Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature

Box 179, St. Louis 3, Mo.
"You Are What You Read"

HISTORY

The Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature was officially established through action of the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ in 1944 when this body unanimously adopted resolution setting aside the last week in October or the first week in November to be known and observed as Christian Literature Week.

Resolution in 1950 reaffirmed its endorsement and urged that all churches of the Disciples of Christ set aside this week in the calendar of the churches for the all-important task of encouraging the reading of Christian literature in order to cultivate a more intelligent Discipleship.

The first complete report of the Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature was made to the International Convention meeting in Miami, Florida, in 1954. This report was carried in the 1954 Year Book of the Disciples of Christ.

PURPOSE AND FUNCTION

It is the purpose and function of the Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature, not only to promote the observance of Christian Literature Week, but to urge churches of Disciples of Christ and their membership throughout the year to follow a plan of daily Bible reading; to read more and better books and magazines, especially in the field of religion; to encourage the launching of new church libraries; to encourage subscription to religious journals, and to urge the exhibition and use of church school literature of the highest quality and Christian educational value. By such promotion it is hoped to exalt the place of Christian literature in the life of the church until it shall be considered one of the prime requisites of the church and church school.

ANNUAL REPORT FOR YEAR 1956

Nineteen fifty-five was a record year for the observance of Christian Literature Week, according to the reports received by the Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature. Twelve hundred and ninety-six churches reported that they sponsored an exhibit of books and materials for free distribution during this week.

The Commission provided a packet of materials which was mailed to all pastors, superintendents, and Christian Women's Fellowships presidents. The packet contained the following:

Attractive display poster

Manual containing suggestions for planning the observance of Christian Literature Week

A reading plan suggesting regular daily Bible readings, twelve outstanding books and magazines, and periodicals published by and for Disciples of Christ

Three-minute talks to guide ministers, church-school superintendents, presidents of Christian Women's Fellowships, and other church leaders to stimulate the reading of Christian literature

Suggestions for establishing a church library

Programs and Projects

The popularity of the book-of-the-month program, sponsored by the Commission, is growing every year. The book reviews, prepared each month by well-read Disciples, were carried in practically every state and national journal throughout the year.

The library program, which was launched by the Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature in cooperation with the Christian Board of Publication, has proved very successful. Over 120 churches have established registered libraries since this project was initiated.

Over 100,000 reading plans ordered by and used in the churches.

Seventeen per cent of the churches exhibited books and other Christian literature during Christian Literature Week. As a result, literally thousands were introduced to the very latest and best Christian literature.

Statement of Finances

Printing and Assembling Packet Materials -----	$3,500.00
Stationery and Postage -----	400.00
Clerical and Mailing Expense -----	600.00
Traveling Expense -----	450.00
Year Book Expense -----	100.00
Telephone and Telegraph -----	25.00
Contingent Expense -----	250.00
	$5,325.00

The above statement of finances is underwritten by the Christian Board of Publication and is included among Grants in Aid of that agency to the Brotherhood.

Costs of the exhibits of books and materials are also borne by the Christian Board of Publication. The value of the books included in the exhibits for 1955 amounted to approximately $70,221.00. Books purchased through these local exhibits amounted to approximately $21,816.00.

The Christian Board of Publication advises the Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature that they paid local churches $2,181.16 for handling these exhibits. This amount represents a 10 per cent commission on the books sold. The Christian Board further estimates that the cost of providing this service over and above the profit on the books sold amounted to more than $6,000.00, which cost was borne by them.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST REPRESENTATIVES SERVING THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST
IN THE U. S. A.

297 Fourth Avenue, New York, New York

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST
IN THE U. S. A.?

The National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. is an interdenominational body created by 30 Protestant, Orthodox and Anglican bodies in the U.S.A., organized at Cleveland, Ohio, in December, 1950. This is the merger of 13 interdenominational organizations whose scope of work includes the total historical expression of interdenominational work in the United States.

Through staff and officers it serves its constituent bodies through missions, Christian education, social welfare, Christian society, Christian youth, men and women's work. Its headquarters are in New York City and its governing body is composed of elected representatives from the constituent denominations or brotherhoods.

It does not presume to speak for the churches, nor to be a "superchurch" to regulate any of their programs. It does, however, make pronouncements and suggests programs which may be submitted to the constituent bodies for any action or cooperation which they desire in line with the merits of such pronouncements or programs.

The National Council provides a channel by which cooperative Christianity in the United States may speak as a Christian voice to the nation on appropriate subjects. It has wide influence in counseling with government, by providing an expression of Christian conviction on many problems relating to our national life.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST REPRESENTATIVES SERVING THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

156 Fifth Avenue
New York 10, New York

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

WHAT IS THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES?

The World Council of Churches, whose central office is located in Geneva, Switzerland, is now represented in 47 countries and is the organizational expression of the spiritual unity of 162 Christian communions. It was officially founded in 1948 at Amsterdam.

Its fellowship includes Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox churches. Christ prayed four times for one thing; that all who believed in Him, might be ONE. The World Council was founded in obedience to that command. It is not a "superchurch" and has no jurisdiction over the church bodies associated with it. This unity recognizes differences but provides a fellowship with which diversity and unity can be recognized.

The World Council provides a means by which assistance can be given to victims of war, catastrophe or world disturbance. It also provides an institute for the training of new Christian leaders. Its departments include youth, women and laymen. Its Assemblies are held every six years.

MINISTERS' DIRECTORY

MINISTERS' DIRECTORY

The following list is unofficial and does not necessarily designate official standing in the Disciples of Christ. Ministers who did not indicate their desire to be included and whose names were not submitted by the State Secretaries are not listed.

This list was compiled from all available sources. Each name was checked for proper classification with the State Secretaries or individuals themselves. Every effort has been made to compile a complete and accurate list of all known ministers who are either (1) preaching or (2) ordained. Names without known addresses have been omitted. This list was up to date as of November 16, 1956.

NOTE: Committee on Military and Veterans Services will forward only first-class mail addressed to Chaplains at the addresses below.

Statistical Tables

PERIOD COVERING: July 1, 1955, to June 30, 1956, except as otherwise noted.

CHURCHES LISTED: those congregations which according to the best knowledge of the Year Book Office are affiliated with the religious body designated in government statistics as "Disciples of Christ." The minister designated as serving each Church is the minister of such Church at the time the Year Book went to press. Such minister may not necessarily have been serving the Church during the previous year which ended June 30, 1956.

CHURCHES are listed without regard as to white or Negro membership.

OFFERINGS which are not classified under a column are listed at the end of each State report.

EXPLANATORY NOTES:

DESIGNATED OFFERINGS: includes offerings given through Unified Promotion to any of its cooperating agencies (sometimes given direct to agency) which are not subject to division according to their percentage share of Unified Promotion funds. They are monies "over and above" the regular percentage. The National City Christian Church participates in Unified Promotion only through designated money.

TOTAL OFFERINGS: includes all monies given to all causes except local expense.

PER CAPITA GIVING: based on the total missionary giving of each church (excluding local expense).

CODES:

- ss—Church school organization only.
- cwf—Christian Women's Fellowship.
- $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{8}$ —Indicates the proportion of time the church has preaching during the month.
- irr—Irregular preaching.
- *—Includes money spent during the year for Building Fund purposes. It does not include money raised and not spent.
- # #—Indicates offerings made by Disciples of Christ in this local church.
- ¶—Operates on a Unified Budget covering Church and Church school.
- —There are some offerings for this church listed at end of State.
- §—Affiliated with the National Christian Missionary Convention.
- †—Consists of offerings made to various benevolent causes such as local charity, Church World Service, American Bible Society, World Council of Churches, National Council of Churches, direct supported missions, and to others for which credit is not also given either in previous columns or at the end of the pages for the State.

Priceless Praise

"Because it confines its operations exclusively to a select clientele, the Presbyterian Minister's Fund enjoys a remarkably low mortality and lapse ratios. Low administrative costs, coupled with the fact that the Fund has no sales force expenses, permits extremely low net cost—in fact, the lowest of all companies, according to Best's Life Insurance Reports."—From the Broadcast Philadelphia Insurance Underwriter's Official Magazine.

Your Brotherhood Publishing House

The Christian Board of Publication and your needs are closely tied. Church leaders among Disciples of Christ tell us their wants and requirements and materials are either prepared and published or secured from other sources for you.

Working together effects a better team to advance the program of Disciples of Christ.

Can we count on you not to drop a stitch?

"OUR RESPONSIBILITY BEGINS WHERE YOUR DOLLARS END"

Rising out of the Purpose to "Help the helpless, give homes to the homeless, provide care for the sick and comfort the distressed," beginning in a small cottage with a few orphan children, this work has grown and multiplied.

Over 27,000 Needy Children and Aging People Have Been Served in the NBA Homes — Thousands Have Been Referred to Other Sources for Help.

God's people are not found WANTING IN BENEVOLENCE!

Great and good gifts reached the NBA Homes from countless friends—beef, pork, poultry, fruits and vegetables in season and canned, clothing and household linens, furnishings, and other items of need. Visits with friends in our Homes and in their homes, the ever amazing support of our churches, church schools, individual gifts, programs for our children and aged folk—all these, and much more, have made living abundant at our Homes.

Thank you, everyone, in the name of Him Who taught us to share ourselves and our possessions with others.

*These Are Your Homes . . .
We Want You To Visit Them!*

...the object of this Association shall be to provide for the physical, moral, intellectual and spiritual wants of those who may seek or need its protection and aid. For the attainment of this object, its purposes are to establish and maintain homes, hospitals, training schools and such other institutions or supplementary care as may be conducive to these ends and undertake such other similar work as may from time to time be considered appropriate and desirable . . .

The property of the Association is irrevocably dedicated to religious, charitable or hospital purposes of the Disciples of Christ.

Devotional Literature*

With a world-wide circulation of more than 3,000,000 copies per issue, The Upper Room at its low price represents today's greatest value in devotional literature.

For a few cents a copy, churches or individuals can purchase a two months' supply of daily devotions written by outstanding Christian men and women of many lands and many denominations—an average cost of a small fraction of a cent a day!

More than 70,000 churches use The Upper Room in their ministry, supplying it regularly to their members and prospective members. Each issue contains daily meditations, Scripture, prayers and thoughts for the day.

10 or more copies of one issue to one address 7¢ per copy. Individual subscriptions (by mail) $1.00 a year, three years for $2.00. Order from:
